A Pretty Wedding

A large gathering of friends from far and near assembled on Wednesday evening of last week at the residence of Mr. Geo. Campbell Aberdeen, the occasion being the marriage of his daughter Mary to Mr. John Morrison, a young and prosperous yeoman of Glenelg.

The young couple were supported during the ceremony by Mr. Peter Morrison, brother of the groom, and Miss Bella, sister of the bride.

The quartette, as they stood before Rev. Mr. Little, who performed the main part of the ceremony, looked their very best. The dresses were becoming and fashionable, both as to design and richness of material and the contrasts of light and shade bro't out to the best advantage "the beauty and the chivalry" of the group.

Rev. Mr. Little, in his usual happy style, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Jansen of Durham, soon reached the "whom God has joined together let no man put asunder," and there was showered upon the happy pair a regular flood of congratulations from every one present in turn.

Among the guests present were Messrs. Will Angus and Will Gilchrist, and Misses Sarah and Mary Gilchrist of Bruce, Mr. and Mrs. Lamont of Saugeen, Mr. and Mrs. McKinnon of Port Elgin, Mr. and Mrs. Smith of Derby, Mr. and Mrs. Buyers of Williamsford, Mr. and Mrs. McGilvray of Elmwood, Dr. and Mrs. Smith of Dornoch, Inspector and Mrs. Campbell of Durham, besides numerous friends from Glenelg Bentinck, and other places.

The marriage gifts to bride and groom were many, well assorted, rich and useful.

The esteem in which the young couple was held may be judged by the long list—too long to insert. Suffice to say that the kindness extended will not soon be forgotten.

The supper was truly a sumptuous repast. Mr. Little and Mr. Jansen occupied seats of honor at the tables. The groomsmen managed to get thro' the trying ordeal of distributing the wedding cake, with the assistance of the bridesmaid, and with credit to himself.

The evening was spent by the older people in conversation and by the younger in the usual social games of such festive gatherings.

At a late hour the guests with one accord wished the young people who enter life so propitiously, the most prosperous and happy future. So do we.

Interest in the Shelburne forgery case is still at high water mark. It was reported that Hamilton had made a confession but subsequently it was learned there was no truth in it. Hamilton is game. Whatever other faults the ex-reeve may have, peaching on his pals is not one of them. The adjourned trial will take place in March next.

An American gentleman visited our school one day recently and on returning to our sanctuary he penned the following about one of our school ma'ams:—She is the pride of the town, the star of the west, the mother of invention and a jewel of rare brilliancy. She drew a picture of an iceberg on the blackboard. Is was so natural that the thermometer froze up solid. With rare presence of mind she seized a crayon and drew a fireplace on the opposite wall. The prompt action saved the school but all caught cold from the sudden change.

The Youth's Companion contains the most carefully selected, instructive and interesting miscellany printed in any American periodical. The New Year's number is rich in this department. The principal features of the number are Mr. Gladstone's recollections of Arthur Henry Hallam—a paper of extraordinary interest and charm. The article is illustrated with the fine portraits of Mr. Gladstone and the subject of his sketch. A number of excellent short stories, editorial articles touching on various current topics, and notes on science and affairs fill out this most attractive number of this great family weekly.

OTHER Towns besides Durham need to take a few lessons in Municipal Law. The Walkerton Herald says: "The town cannot congratulate itself on the result of the trial held last week under the transient trader's By-law. This by-law was passed at the last meeting of the council for December being introduced by Mr. Jefferman. It was designed to reach the Learoyd Bros. who have lately opened out in town. As the council has no power to pass by-laws that are retro-active, the only thing that the council has to show for its exploits is a lill of costs amounting to $9.75 not including the solicitor's fee for drawing the by-law. The whole business reflects little credit on those who had any hand in it."

A WITTY BEGGARMAN.—Sir Walter Scott was riding one day with a friend in the neighborhood of Abbotsford. They came to a field gate near which an Irish leggar was standing. The beggarman seeing the two gentlemen approach, hastened to open the gate for them. Sir Walter, desirous of rewarding the poor man's civility, took out his purse, with the intention of giving him sixpence, but finding that he had no smaller coin than a shilling he gave it to him, saying: "Now, remember, you owe me a sixpence." "God bless yer honor," said Pat, "and may yer live till I pay ye."

—All persons indebted to me are requested to call and settle by cash on or before the 15th of January. If not so paid, the accounts will be placed in other hands for collection. Alex. Beggs, Allan Park.

Baby Eczema and Scald Head.

Infants and young children are peculiarly subject to this terrible disorder, and if not promptly arrested it will eventually become chronic. Dr. Chase made a special study of Eczema and diseases of the skin, and can confidently recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment to cure all forms of Eczema. The first application soothes the irritation and gives the little sufferer rest.

C. E. NOTES.

(Provincial Editor's Budget.)

A word of encouragement is more valuable than gold to any society. Do not be afraid to speak it. Do you ask, how? Say you enjoy the meeting or the singing, or the prayers were helpful or that the words spoken, did you good, or that the spirit of the meeting was excellent. Look for the best side of everything and applaud it. Nothing helps so much as a word of real encouragement. It works like a charm. It gives confidence. It binds the Society together with silken bands and strengthens it mightily. It breaks down barriers and lets the sea of love flow in. Carping criticism is like a blight. It destroys all that is best and all that is beautiful. It is an evil spirit and should be carefully watched against and repressed.

In these cold winter days we appreciate warmth. I have been learning a very important lesson from a flower. I was expecting it to bloom but it did not and I waited and waited and waited. Why did it not bloom? It ought to. I discovered one day that it was being treated to cold water and chilled. The treatment was changed and hot water given then it bloomed nicely. So it is in all our societies and churches. We need a warm, kindlier atmosphere to bloom.

The great majority of our Endeavor hosts belong to the church and there they should make their influence felt by their devotion to its work, by their regular attendance upon the Sabbath services and mid-week prayer meeting, by their assistance in the Sunday School, and by their contribution to all the church schemes. Their growth in spiritual knowledge and their christian activity should go together with equal step. They should seek to be examples of zeal and consistency, firmly attached to their own congregation, always in their place and a source of encouragement to the pastor and of strength to their church. How many Christians are of no value whatever because they are unreliable. One never knows where to find them anything new carries them away like sear leaves. Be not like to them.

Persistent Coughs

A cough which seems to hang on in spite of all the remedies which you have applied certainly needs energetic and sensible treatment. For twenty-five years that standard preparation of cod-liver oil, has proved its effectiveness in curing the trying affections of the throat and lungs, and this is the reason why: the cod-liver oil, partially digested, strengthens and vitalizes the whole system; the hypophosphites act as a tonic to the mind and nerves, and the glycerine soothes and heals the irritation. Can you think of any combination so effective as this?

Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion. See that the man and fish are on the wrapper. 50c. and $1.00, all druggists. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, Toronto.
