DROMORE.

Received too late for last issue.

Miss Kennedy returned to the Queen City on Monday. Many will miss her smiling face

Mr. James Laughton left this week to spend a term at the O. S. C. I. We wish him success.

After spending some weeks with their uncle, Mr. Jno. Wilson, the Misses Wilson left for their home in Collingwood.

A sleighing party from the village spent a very pleasant evening at the home of Mr. Sinclair, Yeovil.

Owing to the extensive business in the village store, we note two more speedy clerks; D. Ainlay of Mount Forest, and D. Ferguson of Swinton Park.

Mr. John A. Wilson has gone to take a course in Guelph Business College. We see J. A. is keeping posted in this work, in which he took a complete course last winter.

Were You with the load that went to Durham on Friday night. You! You!

Owing to last weeks thaw, the roads were not in excellence, but this week ere reported to be grand.

We are pleased to report that Mrs. Wm. Lester is recovering.

Mr. John Renton was laid up a few days this week, but is better.

P. looks kind of glum this week. Guess Sunday's drive tells the tale.

Miss J. Kennell, shortly from the City, visited her aunt, Mrs. Robt. Renwick last week.

Mr. Geo. Lothian, we see, has a new tongue for his cutter, and drives a splashy team, but sometimes we see him with one pony. We judge the one is more handy on these sideling roads.

CORNER CONCERNS.

Mr. John Grasby's usual robust health took a sudden change last Tuesday night and for a few hours his family were much alarmed, but he is all right again, minus a few quarts of English blood.

Mr. Thos. Grasby, who has been nursing the stump of a thumb which had been masticated by a vicious horse while engaged in delivering milk in Toronto, returned to his charge again last week.

Mr. S. Lawrence let the job of building a lean to his barn and remodeling his stabling last week. Mr. Geo. Moore, of your town, is the contractor.

Mrs. Hamilton, of Michigan, is at present on a visit to her aunt, Mrs. Martha Lawrence. Last week she visited Toronto friends.

A sleigh load of our young folks drove over to Varney on Friday evening, where the event of the season (for that village) took place—the parlor social at Mr. Clark's. They were all delighted with the evening's enjoyment.

Mr. Dixon, the School Teacher, is again in his usual health and pushing business.

Mrs. J. Henry, of Shallow Lake, is visiting her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McMeeken.

While returning home through our neighborhood last Sunday night Mr. Dan. McAuliff's team got too frisky, kicked over the tongue and ran away. Dan. keeps spirited horses, well cared for and never allowed to do their best except on occasions of this kind. Four occupants of the cutter escaped unhurt but the rig was not so fortunate.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, of Stayner, who have been visiting the latter's home at Boothville, accompanied by some of their friends, drove over to Mr. Samuel Lawrence's last Tuesday night where they were joined by some of the neighbors and whiled away a few pleasant hours in song and dance.

Miss Annie Middleton, of Berkeley, is visiting her sister Mrs. A. Crutchley at present.

Mr. Jas. Eden added another barn building contract to his list, John Lawrence, of Bentinck, is replacing the one destroyed by fire last summer.

Those present from this part at the S. S. Convention in Durham last week were Messrs. Wm. Allan, John Allan and J. W. Blythe. The former deserves special mention, not only because he takes unusual interest in the work, but he turned out on the first day appointed when the inclemency of the weather kept all others away. We are sorry we do not know the names of all present, as we always like to give a correct account of all religious work, giving each one credit for their share whether they are our personal friends or not.

HOLSTEIN.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fleming, who have been on an extended visit with friends here and at Warton, left for their home in Summerby, N. W. T. last Thursday. They purpose spending a few days with Mrs. P.'s sister, Mrs. Denny, of Norval, on the way.

Miss Mary Main left Saturday morning for a few days' visit with Norval friends.

Mrs. Thos. Brown accompanied by her sister, Mrs. P. F. Thair, are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mickleboro, of St. Thomas.

Dr. Jamieson and Mr. D. McNichol the Conservative and Independent candidates respectively held a joint meeting in the Agriculture Hall here last Wednesday evening. The Dr. was the first speaker and dealt with the political questions of the day in such a manner as to leave a very favorable impression of him as a candidate. He has many warm supporters here and will no doubt poll a better vote than in the previous election. Mr. McNichol defended the questionable votes cast by him during his term of office. There being no opposition speakers the meeting passed off quietly.

The "Gleaners" under the auspices of the Grand Council of the R. T. of T. returned and gave two entertainments last week. It is needless to say they were greeted with a full
