EDGE HILL PIE SOCIAL.

It was a social, a real pig-social, a long to be remembered social, the one at Edge Hill on Wednesday evening last.

The Grange Hall was crowded to its utmost capacity, and all present had just what they expected, a first class enjoyable time. About 8 o'clock Mr John A. Graham was appointed chairman, and mounting the high platform he touched the button with a nice little speech, for which the popular pedagogue is becoming noted.

The program consisted of a number of musical selections by Mr. G. W. Jones, who played some very pretty selections on the mouth organ, rendering his own accompaniment on the guitar. Later on, the Gramophone was brought into requisition, and a varied musical and literary program was rendered to the delight of the audience. The selections consisted of music by the best bands and vocalists in New York and elsewhere together with declamations from fakirs, "barnyard signs in the morning," "Casey putting the Baby to Sleep," "How Different People laugh" and other equally laughable productions. Mr. James Staples and the two Durham Editors gave short addresses, and a Mr. Scott gave a Dutch Recital. About ten o'clock the scene was changed, when Mr. John Moffat was called upon to auction off the pies, which he did in a remarkably short time, at prices ranging from fifteen to forty-five cents each. In one case however, the competition was so keen that eighty cents was paid and the pie was cheap at that. We don't know the name of the young lady whose toothsome pastry brought the highest price, but perhaps its just as well for her dad that we don't know. Judging from the satisfied look, we are safe in saying that all the pies were first class. We know of two at least that were, and Mr. Jones can swear to the excellence of the four or five he helped to demolish. The meeting closed before midnight.

VARNEY.

Wonder what takes W. and E. to Durham. Must be canvassing for some of the candidates.

A couple more of the boys go west pretty often. Must be some attraction.

Wm. Pettigrew and Peter McIlvride left Wednesday, the former for Lumsden, Assa, and the latter for Brandon Man. We wish them success.

Mr. James Moore is spending a few holidays at the old homestead.

The Misses Woolahan of Durham were the guests of the Misses Allan one day last week.

Mr. Thos. Petty was visiting Bentinck friends one day last week.

Wm. Eidt is busy moving down to his farm in Normanby, and John Yaunt is moving onto the Wm. Cameron farm, which is being vacated by Mr. Eidt.

Mr. Wm Bryan had the misfortune last week to dislocate one of his legs, which will lay him up for some time.

James Finnigan is going around with a smile on these days. A little boy came there on Sunday morning, and Jim says he is going to keep him. All are well.

Robert Pettigrew has been purchasing another horse.

A couple of sleigh loads from here drove up to Ebenezer on Sunday evening, to attend the revival meetings.

Messrs. W. and F. Carson left on Wednesday morning for Brandon.

Mr. Pete McEwen was calling on some of the old neighbors one day last week.

ALLAN PARK.

The Pie Social held in the School house on Friday evening, the 18th inst., was a marvellous success. The programme consisted of some excellent speeches, songs and musical selections, etc., etc. The pies were auctioned off in the most business like manner by Mr. Robt. Brigham. From the way he handled himself one would think him an experienced auctioneer. The proceeds amounted to nearly $20 will be applied to the School picnic funds. The boys say the pies were A. 1. sure and they ought to know.

At a political meeting held here a short time ago Mr. Marshall speaking in the interest of Mr. McNichol, M. P. P. recited a few lines in reference to the Government about a foreign congregation being unable to publish their own prayer books. They gave the contract to a medicine company and allowed them the privilege of placing a few advertisements in the book. To the utter amazement of the congregation the choir arose and sang from the new books:

"Hark the herald angles sing Beecher's pills are just the thing; Peace on earth and mercy mild. Two for man and one for child."

Thinking of making it more becoming for political use we have translated it into the following:

While Hardy's Government forms a ring, Dave McNichol's just the thing; Represents the Patrons, rank and file Voted Grit every once in a while; Joyful all ye Tories rise, Turn your back on Hardy's cries; Universal nature say, Jamieson is our man to-day.

FLESHERTON.

Mr. I. B. Lucas held a political meeting here on Saturday, when the Town Hall was packed to the doors. Addresses were given by Dr. Christoe, M. Richardson, and the candidate, Mr. I. B. Lucas. Thos. Kells Esq occupied the chair, and music was furnished by the Vandeleur string band.

A meeting of the farmers of this vicinity was held in the Town Hall here on Saturday last, to discuss a cheese factory project in this place. There was a large attendance, but little progress was made, as definite arrangements could not be arrived at.

Services were held in the Methodist and Presbyterian churches, morning afternoon and evening, on Sabbath last, Mr. Browning preaching in the former, and Mr. Lowes in the latter. The special services are continued in both churches this week. Dr. Christoe occupied the Baptist pulpit again on Sabbath morning.

Mr. C. W. Rutledge, Markdale Standard editor, was in town, and gave the Chronicle scribe a pleasant hour, on Thursday last.

Mr. Robert Davies, of Acheson, Kansas, who was a respected citizen of this place fifteen years ago, is visiting old friends and relatives in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. VanDusen visited their daughter Mrs. W. J. Douglass in Collingwood last week, and Mrs. Douglass is visiting at the parental home this week.

Mrs. D. McTavish visited with her sister, Mrs. White, at Markdale last week.

Mrs. W. W. Trimble is attending the millinery openings at Toronto this week.

Mrs. (Dr.) Spronie and daughter Lillian of Markdale are visiting the former's mother, Mrs. W. K. Flesher this week.

Mr. J. W. Henderson of Toronto was in town on Thursday and Friday last.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Boyd are attending the marriage of the former's sister at Conn, this week.

Thin Blood

Where the blood loses its intense red—grows thin and watery, as in anemia, there is a constant feeling of exhaustion, a lack of energy—vitality and the spirits depressed.

Scott's Emulsion

of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda is peculiarly adapted to correct this condition. The cod-liver oil, emulsified to an exquisite fineness, enters the blood direct and feeds its every corpuscle, restoring the natural color and giving vitality to the whole system. The hypophosphites reach the brain and nerve centres and add their strengthening and beneficial effect. If the roses have left your cheeks, if you are growing thin and exhausted from overwork, or if age is beginning to tell, use SCOTT'S Emulsion. Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion. All druggists 50c and $1.00. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, Toronto.
