MRS. T. JACKSON,
 Durham. Clinton, Ont.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson spent a few days of last week with friends in Markdale.
 Miss Eva Booth of Boothville is spending this week in the village.
 We are sorry to report the severe illness of Miss May Dixon, fourth daughter of Mr. L. Dixon, but hope to soon hear of her recovery.
 Mr. Geo. Lothian and sister Miss Bell spent Sunday with Priceville friends.
 Miss Bess Kennel of Swinton Park spent Sunday with her cousins Misses Renwick.

A number of our villagers took in the I. O. F. concert in Durham and report a good time.
 Mr. Walter Lothian, who has purchased a house and smith shop in Orchardville left last week for his new home. We wish Walt success.
 Mr. John A. Wilson has been re-engaged in the Durham Creamery for the coming season. John says he is going to keep batch this summer, but if all reports be true we hardly think such to be the case.
 Mr. Art McKennel is now boarding with Mr. J. M. Findlay. We are sure it will be a deal more convenient. What think you, J?

Mr. Thos. Henderson of Bambara Hall and Mr. Will Isaac of Troglodytes Dwelling, spent Sunday with friends in Bentinck.
 Mr. and Mrs. Peter Reid Jr. have moved to the village. We welcome them.
 Messrs. Dixon of Holstein spent Sunday with Miss Laughton.
 On the arrival of strangers in our village on Wednesday of last week, the villagers were alarmed by the sad news of crape on one of our neighbor's gates, but when particulars were hastily obtained, found that the excitement meant Jamieson in and Morgan out. Never mind brother, our turn will come shortly.
 Mr. Art McKennel has procured for himself a horse, cutter and whip. We wonder if he intends driving to Proton or Mt. Forest, or will he sport the village girl. We rather think to Proton as he spent Sunday there.

Weddings are the order of the season as there has been two or three in our burg in the course of a week.
 Miss Jean Lester left on Saturday for the Queen's City after spending a month with her mother.

VARNEY.
 Revival meetings will commence in the church here on Sunday next. A pie-social will be held in S. S. No. 1 Normanby on Friday night, Admission 10 cents. Alex. Grierson Auctioneer.

Wm. Caldwell of your town is busy hauling ice. He likes the job, but likes somebody to load it for him.
 Detective Pettigrew secured a victim one day last week in the person of a young home boy, who had taken a horse from Sandy McGregor, of Egremont and was offering it for sale. Bob took the boy and horse back to their homes and received $5 as a remuneration.
 Will Halliday and Lulu Dickson were the guests of Will and Lizzie Allan one day last week.
 Tom Petty has been swapping horses and has parted with his pacer.

The ice harvest is now on. E. Sirrs and W. Clark cut some eight hundred blocks this last week and have as many more yet to cut.
 The elections are over and every body is quiet again.
 Mr. and Mrs. Adam Little were visiting Mount Forest friends one day last week.
 A big hoe down was held at Jack Yaunts one night last week. Every body enjoyed themselves, and came home well pleased.
 Miss Ida McCalmon left on Thursday morning for Michigan.

CORNER CONCERNS.
 Mr. James Coleridge is again holding forth in the academy owing to the severe illness of Mr. Dixon's daughter which necessitates his presence at home.
 Prof. and Mrs. Peel visited Mr. S. T. Orchard on Sunday.

Mr. Thos. Lawrence leaves this week in company with his sister Alice for British Columbia, which is the destination of the latter, but Tom will head for the Klondyke after a little. He is an original wit, liked by all who know him and we wish him success. We hope he may strike a gold mine as big as a gravel pit so that the fair one he leaves behind may take consolation in the thought of a golden future.
 Mr. A. Lindsay has purchased a dandy general purpose horse, good for the farm or buggy or would just be the thing for a Hunter, appeared quite annoyed, as those omitted are angry now when they see the way things are turning out. Another of the list has got her heart's desire. Miss Katie Gordon was united in marriage to Mr. David Long last Tuesday. Miss M. A. Gordon and Mr. W. Long were right and left hand supporters and the Rev. Mr. Ferguson of Durham performed the ceremony. We extend the best wishes of the Corner people to the newly made one.

 Another pleasant event is to take place this week, the marriage of Mr. John Ferguson to Miss Hass. A few invited guests will witness the ceremony and enjoy the cheer, so abundant on such events. We wish the young couple a long and happy journey through life.

Mr. Frank Shields, who tilled the Baird farm during the past year has rented a farm near Priceville from Mr. McKechnie and will take possession shortly.
 Mr. Donald McCoskery leaves this week for the West. He is a strapping fellow and will do well. We expect he will soon make a fortune and return with money to Burnett.
 Miss Mary Orchard of your town visited friends round here last week. A couple of sleighloads of young people from Glenelg visited the Sirr family last Wednesday night, and amongst the party was Miss Eather McCoskery who is fast recovering from a Bicycle accident which confined her in doors for some months.

The happy-go-lucky style of caring for hens is now almost a thing of the past and the hen-gratitude shown for the extra care is likely to bring about a new order of things and more humane treatment of these useful birds. Mr. Abraham Crutchley is preparing the material for a mammoth pig pen and henry and Mr. Wm. Mountain is contemplating something similar.
 Messrs Will and Tom Matthews leave this week for the West. The latter will remain in Manitoba while the former will go on to British Columbia. Success boys.
 Mr. Robinson, a farmer living near Mono Mills, last week got up on a straw stack to throw down some fodder. He slipped off the side, struck a harrow leaning against the stack, and one of the teeth caught him, ripping a terrible gash from his abdomen to his breast. Hopes of his recovery are entertained.

The fourth accident and the first fatal one on the new steel arch bridge work at Niagara Falls occurred

Weak Lungs
 If you have coughed and coughed until the lining membrane of your throat and lungs is inflamed,
Scott's Emulsion
 of Cod-liver Oil will soothe, strengthen and probably cure. The cod-liver oil feeds and strengthens the weakened tissues. The glycerine soothes and heals them. The hypophosphites of lime and soda impart tone and vigor. Don't neglect these coughs. One bottle of the Emulsion may do more for you now than ten can do later on. Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion.
