

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS

MRS. THOS. McCANN, Moorsville, Ont., writes: "I was troubled with biliousness, headache, and lost appetite. I could not rest at night, and was very weak, but after using three bottles of B.B.B. my appetite has returned, and I am better than I have been for years. I would not be without Burdock Blood Bitters. It is such a safe and good remedy that I am giving it to my children."

A NURSE'S STORY.

Tells how she was cured of Heart and Nerve Troubles.

The onerous duties that fall to the lot of a nurse, the worry, care, loss of sleep, irregularity of meals soon tell on the nervous system and undermine the health. Mrs. H. L. Menzies, a professional nurse living at the Corner of Wellington and King Streets, Brantford, Ont., states her case as follows: "For the past three years I have suffered from weakness, shortness of breath and palpitation of the heart. The least excitement would make my heart flutter, and at night I even found it difficult to sleep. After I got Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I experienced great relief, and on continuing their use the improvement has been marked until now all the old symptoms are gone and I am completely cured."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills cure anaemia, Nervousness, Weakness, Sleeplessness, Palpitation, Throbbing, Faint Spells, Dizziness or any condition arising from Impoverished Blood, Disordered Nerves or Weak Heart.

LAUGHLETS.

Wagner is not so bad, after all. Why? They say he has never written anything that can be whistled.

She—Wasn't John Calvin a married man? He—He must have been. Didn't he reject the doctrine of free will?

Beth (solicitous that so many feathers are scattered over the hen-yard)—Papa, oughtn't something to be done to keep the hens from wearing out so?

A Readjustment—She—But Fred are you really running behind so much? He—Well, I keep my clothes in the drawer of my desk, and my unpaid bills in the wardrobe.

The Mystery Explained—Husband—But, Nelly, how is it they afford to sell you everything at less than cost? Wife—Why, Dick, of course they can afford it when they sell such quantities.

Conclusion—Sportsman (who has bagged nothing and is bargaining for a hare)—"Seven-and-sixpence? That's rather high, isn't it? Shopkeeper—Ah, but see what a splendid place it's been hit.

Your Majesty, said the cannibal king's chief, there is among the prisoners a native of Scotland. Good! replied the dusky monarch. Serve him sizzling from the broiler. I have often wondered what a hot Scotch tastes like.

Not Their Fault.—Old Party—See here you boys! Don't you know it is wrong to fight that way? The Boys—May be it is, boss; but it's the only way we know. Yer can't expect us kids ter be up in de Markey of Queensberry rules.

For the Orphans.—Cousin Ethel—Cur fair was perfectly lovely; we made $25.75. Aunty—You must have had a large attendance? Cousin Ethel (dubiously)—No, not so very; we took 75 cents at the door, and papa gave us $25 not to repeat it.

Teacher (of juvenile class)—Johnnie, what was the first thing the Puritans did when they landed at Plymouth rock? Johnnie—they fell on their knees. Teacher—That's right. Now Tommy, what was the next thing they did? Tommy—Fell on the aboriginals.

But said the neighbor who likes to argue over politics, you surely don't want a paternal government. Well, replied Farmer Cornstossel, not literally, of course. An' yit I dunno but it ud be a good thing if some folks could be tuck out to the woodshed an' brought to see the error of their ways, jes' the same as if they was small boys.
