

Another Question.—"He has a bright future ahead of him." "But do you really think he'll ever catch up with Miss Gushington?" "I too, Herr Slewski, should like to become a great violinist. What is the first thing to do?" "Herr Slewski—" "Learn to play." "Love One Another." "Fannie has such a sweet new Easter bonnet." "Yes, Fannie has charming talent for making things over."

Innovation.—"Ah! me dear, of course you did not have your sewing circle today, when it was so stormy?" "Oh, yes, Edwin, dearest. We had it by telephone."

"Poverty," said Uncle Eben, "make riches in one respect. Whether it's any disgrace or not depends a heap on how you happen to get it."

Time 2:30 A.M.—Admirer—"Has your father any objection to my paying you visits, Miss Maud?" "Miss Maud—" "Oh, no—but—I think that he'd rather you paid them in instalments."

"I don't think the members of your church would be willing to sell all they have and give to the poor." "Hardly, they might be persuaded to sell all they have and invest the proceeds in something else."

Magistrate, who has lately taken to half a wig—"I think I've seen you here before on a similar charge." "Disorderly Prisoner—" "No, yer washup, the last 'beak' I was up afore was a bald-headed old cove."

"Will I have to be identified when I come here next time?" inquired Mr. Bagway. "No, sir," replied the bank cashier. "Not unless you swear off in the meantime. I should know that one again among a million."

"Oh, oh!" moaned Mrs. Weeks, who was suffering from a decayed molar, "why aren't people born without teeth, like I like to know?" "Why, my dear, I claimed the husband, 'do you happen to know any one that wasn't?'"

Mike—"How old are you, Pat?" "Pat—" "Thirty-sivin next mont'." Mike—"Yes must be older than that. When ere yez born?" "Pat—" "In 1861." Mike—"I have yez now. Sure, yez told me the same date tin years ago!"

Harold has a pair of twin aunts who look and dress so exactly alike that it is difficult to tell which is Miss Mary and which Miss Martha. One day a lady said to Harold: "I don't know how you can tell your two aunts apart." "Oh, that's easy enough," replied Harold, "for Auntie Mary looks a great deal more alike than Auntie Martha."

THE FASHIONABLE SHADE.
A very important question in the mind of the average woman just at present is the new spring shade. Will she be becoming or otherwise? To the woman who is fashion's slave, the answer to this question is a vital one; the woman sensible enough to get near as possible to the fashionable and yet have it becoming it is a matter of so much importance, while to the woman who wears the color which suits her best, irrespective of the reigning mode, it is a matter of indifference.

As the majority of women do adhere to the fashion of the moment, it is plain to be able to relieve their minds of the strain of uncertainty. Up to the present moment it has been difficult to state with any degree of certainty just what color would be the proper thing this spring, but it is believed that first in preference stands blue.

Mount Forest.—A most daring assault was made on one of our well-known citizens here recently. The victim is Mr. James Paddon, and the attack was a very determined and vicious one. By the timely aid of a staunch and true friend, however, he managed to elude the clutches of his assailant, but not before he had sustained serious injuries that caused him great suffering. Mr. Paddon's assailant was that bane of the age Kidney Disease, and the friend that rendered such valuable help is Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Mr. Paddon suffered for a long time with severe backache and pain in his stomach and kidneys. There were other symptoms of Kidney Disease present, and knowing what the end would be, unless the complaint were promptly checked, he began to use Dodd's Kidney Pills.

He used two boxes in all and they cured him completely. He is now enjoying as good health as he ever did, thanks to Dodd's Kidney Pills alone.

There are no "Dull Times" for disease and death. They are always busy. They never wait for victims. But Providence has given man a way of avoiding the most deadly forms of disease—Kidney troubles—and of resisting the attacks of death successfully. Dodd's Kidney Pills positively cure all types of Kidney Disease. This has been proven thousands of times, and is now universally admitted. Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Dropsy, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Female Diseases, etc., speedily cured to them.

Dodd's Kidney Pills are sold by all druggists at fifty cents a box, six boxes $2.50, or will be sent, on receipt of price, by The Dods Medicine Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Dutiful Daughter—Pa, may I marry Mr. Clinks?
Pa—What Clinks? That young ten-week clerk who has—
Daughter—No, pa, I mean Mr. Clinks, the only son of Banker Clinks.
Pa—Mersey, yes! Marry him at once. Don't let him escape.

Is Your Wife Ill-Tempered?
Examine her feet, and if she has corns try her Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. Home will then become Eden. Much of the misery of married life is due to corns. Putnam's Extractor is sure, painless, and prompt.

THE GOOD OLD TIMES.
Wife (looking up from a book)—What do you think of this? In the time of the Ptolemies a wife was always in full control of her husband's property.
Husband—Y-e-s; but in those days the fashions never changed.

QUICK-FIRING GUNS.

An Instance of the Power of Modern Cannon.
About the only idea one gets of the power of modern field guns in actual operation is from the "various barbarous wars" waged by Great Britain. When Colin Keppel, with his three gunboats, passed the Mahdist mud forts of Metemneh last year, there was little cannonading done. On the return Commander Keppel determined to lead his little squadron himself. The Derivishes fired on him vigorously and he took the time to have a little romp with them since they were so inclined.

The consequences was that the second and third gunboats had no share in the fun at all, for a rather queer reason. Keppel's shells in a very few rounds so smashed up the embrasures of the Derivish forts that they could not see the leading gunboat for the clouds of dust, or stand to their weapons under the iron hail.

The forts were built of mud, and it was well dried in the hot sun of Egypt. The consequence was that the second and third gunboats could not effectively fire by reason of the insubstantiality of anything on which they would have laid their guns. They did splash a few shells into the thick of the mud, but probably did little execution with them.

SOME BIG PENSIONS.

England is relieved of the payment of $15,000 a year in pensions by the recent deaths of Sir Henry Havelock-Allan and of Viscount Combermere, third in succession to the first viscount, who was Sir Stapleton Cotton, and received the pension for services in the Peninsular war. When the Duke of Wellington dies a yearly pension of $100,000 will end, while $65,000 a year will be saved to the nation at the death of the present holders of these titles: Viscount Hardinge (for services in India), Baron Seaton (Colborne, for Waterloo), Baron Keane and Viscount Gough (for services in India), Baron Raglan (for Waterloo and the Crimea), and Baron Napier of Magdala (for Abyssinia). Pensions of $3,000 to the heirs of the Duke of Schomberg, William III's General, of $10,000 to the successors of Lord Rodney, and $25,000 to all to whom the title of Earl Nelson shall descend will continue to be paid indefinitely. When Viscount Wolsley and the late Lord Alcester (Sir Frederick B. Seymour) received sums for their military services in 1835 it was understood that the system of long-continuing pensions would be ended.

An island, it is announced in Paris, has suddenly appeared on the northwest coast of Borneo, opposite the town of Labahn. It measures 200 yards in length by 50 in width, and it has gone on increasing since its first appearance.

Having refused to defend himself or employ a lawyer, the Court assigned one to take charge of the defence.
