BEAN & CO.

A cow that can live without cost to her owner
 And forage her way through thick and through thin,
 Is a grand acquisition to have in the city
 And an object that's sought by the wisest of men.

Down by the glens and the glades and the "Woodlands"
 They seek and they forage for something to eat.
 But seldom cream sodas they think of devouring
 From the rear of a buggy that glides through the street.

Yet a woman from Priceville the day'll long remember
 When a black and white bovine set out on her track,
 And while she stood greeting a kind friendly neighbor,
 That new box of biscuits the cow caused to smack.

Nor did she leave one to take home to the children,
 Not even a crumb did she leave in the box
 But the "crame" that Josh had for his porridge next morning
 Was thick as a "board" sir and sleek as a fox.

And up to this moment Josh knows not the reason
 The crame on that day was so yellow and thick,
 But the lady from Priceville who lost her cream sodas
 Or Gilbert McKechnie will tell him the trick.

TRAVERTON.

Mrs. A. Cook left last Thursday on a month's visit to her daughter, Mrs. Ed. Embury of Toronto.
 Mr. John Goodfellow, of Elmwood, is to be over this week to ship lumber and settle his deceased brother's accounts.

Mrs. A. Goodfellow and family have removed from the mill property and are now under the hospitable roof of Mrs. J. Delaney. Mr. J. Beemer, the new proprietor, is to arrive this week.

Forests and orchards, and even individual shade trees, are literally crawling with the tent caterpillar pest. Even the roads are black with them. What will they tackle next?

In his recent visit to No. 5. School, Inspector Campbell gave our popular teacher, A. W. Park, one of the most commendable of reports. A. W. is a progressive youth and is doing splendid work.

Mr. George Cushnie, the most prominent personage in a colony of Canadians, who left here for Kansas thirty years ago, is over on a visit to old neighbors and friends. He has been highly successful there, his income being $1000 a year.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McClocklin paid Flesherton friends a visit on Saturday.

Mr. J. Allan and Miss Aggie Hunter, two of Egremont's bright ones, spent a couple of days with the Hastie family.

Some of our bachelors are rather hot headed at present. We purpose getting them under the matrimonial yoke as soon as possible. That'll cool 'em.

It pays to advertise in THE CHRONICLE. Our Smithy has received a score of applications from fair ones anxious to run his cosy cot. But the one that impressed him most was a Toronto damsel—name unknown. He desires her to forward her photo and address, and then, well—we expect to soon after munch a big chunk of wedding cake.

VARNEY.

Rev. Chas. Leeson and wife are visiting at the old homestead. Everybody is pleased to see Charlie as he is an old Normanby boy. He will preach in the church here on Sunday morning next.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Yaunt were visiting Normanby friends one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Eit were visiting Varney friends for a few days last week.

The farmers have quite a smile after that fine rain on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Little of Thornbury are visiting at the latter's parents this last few days. R. still hangs onto the black mare. She is a dandy.

Mr. Clark and his two sons wheeled to Owen Sound one day last week to take in the sights at the County Capital.

Look out for the school picnic, to be held in Reiley's bush on Saturday the 18th. A good program has been prepared for the occasion and everybody is welcome.

Mrs. S. Stewart was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Adam Little one day last week.

One of those happy events took place at the home of Mr. Henry Petty when his second daughter, Annie, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Albert Marshall, Rev. Mr. Kitching tying the knot. Miss Mary Marshall assisted the bride

Geo. Petty kept Albert in his place.

Miss Gordon was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Eden for a few days last week.

Tom McAlister swapped horses recently. Very unusual thing for Tommy to do, but we believe he got the best of it this time.

There is some tall blowing in Varney about who has got the best cow, but the man who is saying nothing can beat the whole of them.

LAKE VIEW.

After a long rest we will once again put our pen to paper to show that we are still living.

Miss Sarah Dunnett is home from Toronto on a visit to her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. H. Dunnett.

Mr. G. W. Wilson, our miller, has finished all the stock in the yard and is now busy building a shed for his new threshing machine that he will be bringing home before the golden shade comes on our grain.

Mr. David Hamilton is intending to do a lot of fixing up around the Lake this summer, in the interest of picnickers and fishers.

There was a picnic held at the Lake on Wednesday last from Edge Hill. This is the third this summer, the first being held on the 24th of May, and was got up by the people of this vicinity. The third, from Proton, was held last Saturday. All were a huge success.

Mr. James Allan of Glenelg was a guest at Mr. Wm. McFadden's on Sunday.

Mr. James Boaks has joined the red coats of the 31st Batt. Jim would make a good soldier if he had an old shot gun, and a stone in each hand.

Mr. John Moore has treated himself to a new covered buggy.

"Absence makes the heart grow fonder." J. W's heart will grow fonder when he hears Miss A. is coming home again.

We wonder if Joe Lawrence is going to get married, or is he going to keep batch all his life.

Tells how Dr. Chase Saved her Boy.

His Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine a Precious Boon.

MRS. A. T. STEWART, Folgar, Ont., says: "From the 7th of January to the 30th, we were up night and day with our two little boys, employing doctors and trying every kind of patent medicine we ever heard of. At this time we did not know of Dr. Chase's Linseed and Turpentine until after the 30th, when our youngest darling died in spite of all we could do. Sometime in February the doctor told us our other boy couldn't live till spring. We were about discouraged, when I got my eye on an advertisement of Dr. Chase's Syrup.

"I tried at once to get some, but none of the dealers here had it. A neighbor who was in Kingston managed to purchase two bottles which he brought straight to us, and I believe it was the means of saving our only boy.

"One teaspoonful of the Syrup stopped the cough so he could sleep till morning. Our boy is perfectly well now, and I would not be without Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine in the house."

PRICE 25c., AT ALL DEALERS, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto, Ont.
