A Double Wedding in Detroit.

A unique and pretty ceremony took place Wednesday evening, June 22d, at six o'clock at 328 Calumet Ave., Detroit, when the two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald McLellan were united in marriage; Miss Kathleen McLellan to Mack Joseph Manley, of New York city, and Miss Alma Lauriston McLellan to Thomas Double fold Cashmere (black only) 12½c Lawyer, of Flint, Michigan. The ceremony was performed by Rt. Rev. Bishop Foley, and was witnessed by about 150 friends and relatives. The two young couples stood beneath a large floral bell of Marguerites in the alcove of the parlor, which was garlanded with smilax, asparagus vine and Marguerites.

Miss Allan McLellan was attended by Miss Ella E. Hanstein, of Grosse Point, as Maid of Honor, and who s wore white Batiste over pink. Her bridesmaids were Miss Eva Cole, of Flint and Miss Margaret McDonald, who were attired respectively in white figured organdie and white batiste over blue. Miss Eva Ricci, in organdie over pink, acted as Maid of Honor to Miss Kathleen McLellan, and Miss Alla Paterson, of Flint, and Miss Sarah Whitney, in gowns of white organdie over pink and lavender respectively, were bridesmaids.

The young brides were attired alike in Lansdowne gowns of white brocaded silk with deep flounced trimmings of Spanish lace and pearl, garnitured bodices, white tulle veils fastened with wreaths of lilies of the valley and orange blossoms, and carrying a bouquet of bridal roses.

Will SCOTT'S EMULSION cure consumption? Yes and no. Will it cure every case? No. What cases will it cure then? Those in their earlier stages, especially in young people. We make no exaggerated claims, but we have positive evidence that the early use of

of Cod-liver oil with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda in these cases results in a positive cure to a large number. In advanced cases, however, where a cure is impossible, this well-known remedy should be relied upon to prolong life surprisingly.
