CATARRH SUBJECTS

This dread malady lurks behind the most insidious head colds, and when the seeds of disease are sown steals away the beauty bloom and makes life pleasures a drudgery.

DR. AGNEW'S CATARRHAL POWDER will cure the incipient cold and the most stubborn and chronic Catarrh cases. It puts back the beauty pink and sheds sunshine in its trail.

"My wife and I were both troubled with distressing Catarrh, but we have enjoyed freedom from its distresses since the first application of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder—it acts instantaneously—gives grateful relief in 10 minutes, and we believe there is no case too deeply seated to baffle it in a cure."—Rev. D. Bonnor, Buffalo, N.Y.—38

Miss Esther Wilkinson, of Varney, who has been at Rockwood Hospital and Asylum has been successful in graduating with honors as a professional nurse, after two years. Previous to going she spent six years with Mrs. Cap. Zealand at Hamilton.

CORRECTION.—In our issue of July 28th a minute of the Town Council read as follows:—"That the offer of John Kelly for a client in Toronto be accepted for $15,840 Debiture of the Town of Durham. Amount received $16,225, etc." This should read "$18,225 and accrued interest." We cheerfully make the correction of what is evidently a typographical error.

The Durham Marble Works, hitherto owned by Mr. Wm. McCalmon is enlarging its trade and usefulness by the addition of a partner in the person of Mr. George Watson, a practical workman who has spent a number of years at the business. For some time past he was in the employ of the Flesherston Marble Works, attending to the practical work in the Thornbury branch. Under the present management with Mr. McCalmon as an experienced salesman and Mr. Watson a practical workman, together with a large territory such as we have around Durham, there seems no reason why these gentlemen should not succeed.

A band of Gypsies camped last week at LeGard's Corners a mile out from the village and on Saturday night had a tumultuous time in one of the tents. One of the husbands had been indulging rather freely in stimulants and on his return home began to consign to the fire some of his wife's merchandise, lace and other articles and breaking up tent furniture generally. This the good wife resented and the uproar began in earnest. After some time his lordship was quieted and fell asleep when his good lady took advantage of his drowsiness and rifled his trousers' pocket of $1100.00. She then hitched a horse to a buggy and in the night left for parts unknown. The amount reported stolen might be doubted but during the day one of our citizens saw in the hands of the wily horse trader $1500.00 in bills.—Flesherston Cor.

MISSING.—Information is wanted as to the whereabouts of Saddle McKendrick, who mysteriously disappeared from her home in Owen Sound on August 11th. She was learning dressmaking, came to dinner, left for shop and is since missing. Age 15, height about 5 feet, weight about 103 lbs., brown hair, pale complexion, grey eyes, nose long, features prominent, four artificial teeth in upper row turned a little to the right, quite noticeably, brown oval birth-mark on back of neck. Dressed in brown tweed skirt, gray and white figured print shirt waist, yellow leather belt, brown sailor hat, brown velvet band, hair in one braid tied with two brown ribbons, white collar, bow tie, high black laced boots, sharp toe, No. 2, and black stockings. Any information of her whereabouts will be gratefully received by her parents. Address or wire information to the undersigned. JNO. MCAULEY, Chief of Police, Owen Sound.

The itinerant pedlar is of no earthly use to a town. He gives nothing to churches or public expenses. He has nothing in common with the people in a town. He can swindle, and he often does, getting into the next town or country before his victims fully realize how badly they have been taken in. The home merchant has a reputation to sustain. He bears his share of the expenses of the town. When a subscription issues he is the first to be approached. He builds a house and makes other improvements that enhance the value of our property. He helps pay for the churches in which we worship, and the schools to which we send our children. He cannot afford to misrepresent his goods or swindle his customers. Self-interest prevents this. It is not difficult to decide which of the two classes of merchants should receive the patronage of the people.—[The Storekeeper.

MR. JOHN R. TUCKER, who has been living in the neighborhood of Portage La Prairie for the last nine years, made his first visit home, arriving here on Friday evening last. Owing to the illness of his father and the discouraging account in a letter he received on Tuesday night last week, he decided to take a few days and see the poor old man, while yet conscientiously, should the worst come. Accordingly, on Wednesday morning he started for Durham, though the harvest was coming in fast and his presence at home much needed. The crops he reports "extra good on the plains," and "good throughout the province generally." About the 17th of July they had a frost, but no great damage was caused thereby. Mr. Tucker is looking well, doing well, and altogether in love with Manitoba, as a farming country. He was not backward in telling us too how he appreciated the Chronicle, and particularly the newsy budget supplied by our Corner correspondent. We value his appreciation and trust he may long continue as a paying subscriber. He's paid away ahead now.

The Rural Schools opened for the Fall Term on Monday last, and the teachers once more resumed duties in their respective sections. Schools in cities, towns and incorporated villages have a fortnight more of a breathing spell, but why there should be such a distinction is somewhat of a conundrum. We do not find fault with the time allotted to town schools for vacation, but we always had the opinion that in rural districts the holidays should be the same. As a matter of fact in farming communities, the useful members of the household always find employment at this season, while in towns they waste their time in listless idleness, having nothing in particular to do. An effort in some sections to further reduce the vacation to three or four weeks has, we understand, been pronounced illegal, but why a mutual agreement between Teachers and Trustees on this point could not be arranged for is a matter we do not understand, so long as the teacher gets pay for the extra time. However, we believe the practice would work disastrously and even with full time less work would be accomplished.

VOTERS' LIST, 1898, MUNICIPALITY OF THE Town of Durham, COUNTY OF GREY.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that I have transmitted or delivered to the persons mentioned in Sections 5 and 6 of the Voters' List Act, the copies required by said sections to be so transmitted or delivered of the List, made pursuant to said Act, of all persons appearing by the last revised Assessment Roll of the said Municipality to be entitled to vote in the said Municipality at elections for members of the Legislative Assembly and at Municipal elections, and that said list was first posted up at my office at Durham on the 6th day of August, 1898, and remain there for inspection. Electors are called upon to examine the said list, and if any omissions or other errors are found therein to take immediate proceedings to have the said errors corrected, according to law.

Dated this 9th day of August, 1898. GEORGE RUSSELL, Clerk of DURHAM.

JAS. ALLAN, Tailor, has reopened his shop to the New McIntyre over the Standard Bank. See ad't.

Mr. Charter Smith, has his foundry and machine shop in running order and ready to attend to all repairs. Threshers' wants in repair new work.

The "Boulden Property" was purchased by Mr. A. S. Hunter and graded it to Mr. John Firth of house and lot up town opposite D. Jackson's residence.

Rev. Mr. Stewart is having a house erected in front of his lot on Parafra St. The erection of a block there would be more satisfactory—and a more cheering announcement.

This issue contains an important notice of a judicial sale of Norman property, Gadd vs. Gadd et al. at the Middaugh House on Wednesday, Sept. 28th, the last day of Agricultural Fair.

The contract for the brick work and plastering of Sweeney's new store has been let to Mr. Hugh McDonald. The cellar excavated and building operations will commence in a few days.

TOMMY SWALLOW, our town tailor, artistically painted and gilded a pole placed in front of his parlor in the Middaugh House block this week. It's a beauty. Work was done by Mr. C. Firth.

BOB EDWARDS, of Traverston, has been here, if not already, one of the best farms in Glenelg, though seven years ago it was regarded as a rough stony place. Bob is a farmer, but even so, it puzzles us to imagine how he has been able to wade such a revolution.

Mr. and Mrs. George Arrowsmith and Miss Arrowsmith were luncheoners a few days ago in bagging a whole basket of fish, numbering about six dozen beauties. The catch was made in the Sauguenay Larkdale. We mustn't say they wade the stream to get them.

The sidewalks are this week being pushed ahead in Upper Town, starting at the northern limit and coming south. When finished the appearance of the place will be greatly improved. The space in front of Jackson's will require nothing but finishing, the bed being thoroughly laid previously.

The Baptist Garden Party held at B. F. Warner's grounds on Saturday evening was fairly well attended and judging from the proceeds about $33.00, the tents and refreshments were well patronized. The evening was a little too cool for comfort, and the Baptists think also that as a hot night would increase the sale of the icecream, and increase the profits.

On Thursday forenoon last, Mr. John Truth, of Belleville, one of the subscribers on the granolithic sidewalk, had the misfortune to step into the open window gratings in front of N. G. & J. McKechnie's store and received injuries that were at first thought serious. We are pleased, however, to learn that he is improving nicely and will be able to resume work again shortly.

Lost—Between Durham and Pritchard on Monday afternoon last, a green gentleman and his wife, who turned to the right at the second intersection, and "kept in de middle of de road" till they found themselves near Holstein where they decided to change their ways, and with a lot of two knots an hour. They were two roads leading out of Durham and require sign boards for the guidance of strangers.
