BUNESSAN.

Mr. Lachlan McMillan who has been for the last 5 years employed near Bradford is taking a month's well earned rest. His invention is nearing completion: then Glenelg can proudly claim being the birthplace of a full-grown inventor.

Misses Annie McCormick and Letta M.
McNamara, of Walkerton, wheeled on their bicycles to Bunessan one afternoon last week. The prejudice against the use of the bicycle by the ladies is fast dying out except by obtuse people in remote districts or where the progressive spirit of the 19th century has not yet made its way.

Mr. Ronald Black, a guard in Toronto Asylum is home for a week's holidays from his close and exacting work. He is as fat and ruddy as in days of yore. The ball given in his honor at Bachelors' Hall was the event of the season. With half a dozen more fellows like Ronald this would be a jollier place.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Tucker, of Ebenezer, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Binnie last Sunday.

Mr. Robert Beaton and his mother from Manitowlin Island are down visiting friends around Glenelg Centre. It is now 14 years since Mrs. Beaton left here but the years do not seem to age one so much in the Manitowlin as on the mainland.

Mr. John H. Beaton made the purchase of a gay little Indian pony from Mr. Robert Beaton. This is no freak of nature like the last one.

Mr. John A. McLellan attended church at Glenelg Centre a week ago last Sunday.
He arrived home from Cleveland on Saturday and on the following Wednesday was married in Toronto to Miss Alice McLellan, one of Oshawa's brightest and best girls. We all wish John A. and his happy bride all the pleasure and happiness that is good for them.

Mr. Archie McLellan accompanied his brother to Toronto and saw him through the trying ordeal as a good brother should.
Since he came back there is more seriousness noted in his manner and has a skillful way of parrying questions that some people ask him about that big kitchen or dwelling house. Archie is a good fellow and we would be sorry to lose him from the ranks of the bachelors by his becoming a benedict.

Mr. John Beaton and his sister Annie of Berkeley paid numerous friends and relatives here a flying visit this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Ford, of Acton, are up to gamble to spend a pleasant couple of weeks at the girlhood home of Mrs. Ford.

Last week Mr. and Mrs. John McGil-lray, of Corinth, called on Glenelg Centre friends on their way home from a visit to their daughter Mrs. Henry Patterson near townline of Artesia.

Miss Lizzie Grashby, of Scarborough Tp., spent a very pleasant week at the home of her brother Mr. John Grashby of this place.

Miss Hazel McGregor and Miss Alma Hughes, of Durham, attended divine service at Glenelg Centre last Sunday. Many of our youths do not know even the text of last Sunday's discourse. There's never a result without a cause. We were young once we cannot blame them.
