POMONA.

The 2nd annual pie social held in the Tp. Hall on Thursday evening, the 27th ult., under the auspices of the ladies of the Altar Society of St. John's Church was a decided success. The night was clear but cold, and there were as many pleasure seekers present as could be comfortably accommodated in the capacious hall. During the evening up to the time the sale commenced the assemblage was kept in good humor by a variety of selections by a graphophone brought there and operated by the Rev. Father Hauck. When it was thought the pies were all in, the Pastor after a few introductory remarks called upon Reeve Staples to do the selling. He cheerfully responded and performed the duties devolving upon him to the satisfaction of all present. Miss Lizzie Neil took the position of clerk and was kept busy taking down the names and making change. The bidding at first was a little tame but soon became quite spirited and prices ranged from 25 to 95 cents each. We did not learn the exact number of pies sold nor could we enumerate the varieties but there were decoration enough to fill an old fashioned Scotchman's creel. A noticeable feature during the sale was the way in which some of the boys tried to secure their lover's pies, and do not know whether we are safe or not in saying that Pat and Thomas were among the lucky ones. The sale over and the pies shared with the fair ones, dancing was indulged in for a time, when all wended their way home apparently well pleased with the evening's enjoyments. The proceeds of the evening amounted to $12.52 and is, we are informed, to be applied towards the purchase of a new Church organ.

We had a juvenile runaway last week, Andy Maher, a boy about 11 years, gave his parents a bad scare. He had been at school and says a companion told him it would be a fine thing to runaway; so acting on the suggestion he made off to Durham on foot, about 9 miles. From there he took train for Mt. Forest but the Conductor finding he had no ticket asked him his name and told him he would have to stay off at Holstein, which he did sleeping in a stable all night. The next morning having lost his ambition to go West and become a cow-boy he turned his face homeward hungry and footsore. In the meantime his mother getting wind of the direction her erring son had taken drove to Durham in search of him as his father was away at work, but each taking a different route the boy arrived home ahead of his mother and secreted himself in the cellar until morning for fear of chastisement having been without food except apples and turnips for well nigh two days and nights. He now sees the difference between a comfortable home and the way he fared while away and promises to be a better boy.

The Scotchtown coon hunter is as welcome at his neighbors across the way as a flower in May or a nugget from Klondike. But Archy would like some one to repair the broken sofa. Take your time my boy for as sure as you saw the music teacher home he'll call again.

On Thursday of last week Mr. M. McGrath made his last cream gathering trip of the season. Michael seems to give general satisfaction and many were the wishes that he might be spared to take the same route another season.

Mr. Geo. McRae was in Owen Sound this week as juror.

Coons seem to be quite plentiful of late. 3 paid Mr. J. P. Sullivan's orchard a visit to pick up any remaining apples, but lost their hides instead. John has a fine farm and the prospects are a cosy home in the near future. Coon and deer (dear) hunting during the same moon must surely be exhilarating sport.

Mr. M. Campbell returned home on Saturday of last week from a very enjoyable visit to Pittsburg, Penn., where he has three sons employed. The old gentleman is a good conversationalist and speaks in glowing terms of what he saw while a sojourner under the Stars and Stripes, but those joke loving teasers have when so minded Mr. C. at a disadvantage on account of his having missed getting off the train at his home station (Markdale) and then to go on to Berkeley and to return by next train.

A Miss Sullivan, of Dornoch, will be the educator of the young in Sep. S. S. No. 7 for '99 as the trustees have engaged her. Miss N. McAssey, the present teacher, is closing up her 2nd year in said school and as far as we have heard has given entire satisfaction and is well liked by both parents and pupils. She intends to further educate herself during the coming year with the object in view of getting a 2nd class certificate.

Mr. Angus McDonald who recently returned from Sudbury on account of his mother's failing health, was absent nigh 2 years and was mostly employed around the Canadian Copper Co's Silver Cliff mine. He brought home a number of specimens of nickle ore and gold bearing quality and kindly shared with us.

HOLSTEIN.

Mr. Geo. Sharp of Dundalk, paid a flying visit to his brother W. J. on Friday of last week.

Miss Maggie Smith who has been in Toronto for the past few months returned home on Tuesday. She is seriously ill and is at present confined to bed. We hope to hear of her speedy recovery.

Rev. J. W. Magwood was away last week conducting meetings in the interest of the Bible Society. He returned Saturday.

Miss M. Stewart, of Quebec, was the guest of Miss Jennie McKenzie during a few days last week. Miss Stewart's visit serves to link the past with the present as her father was at one time during the fifties the teacher of S. S. No. 2, Egremont, at that time No. 4.

Mr. W. Pettigrew has gone to the Peninsula for a deer hunt. He no doubt deserves venison. Hope he will succeed.

The Egremont Creamery Co. ceased to operate on the 28th of October. The season's make was the largest in the history of the factory. The output this year being 131355 lbs.

Messrs R. M. and S. J. Tribe left Thursday morning for Calgary where their purpose residing in future. They are energetic and enthusiastic young men and are bound to succeed. We wish them prosperity.

Mr. Geo. Calder is having his new residence on Centre street veneered this week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Ham spent a few days last week in Pickering.

This is the manner in which a young lady describes her first kiss. She says she felt as if something were running down her nerves on feet of diamonds escorted by several little Cupids in chariots drawn by angels shaded by honeysuckles and canopied by melted rainbows. "Oh course it was a girl from 'away back' who said it.

Mr. D. Paul has returned from his summer's trip in Dakota and North West.

Mrs. W. D. Mitchell, of Allanford, who has been visiting her parents here for the past two weeks returned to her home on Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Magwood left on Saturday to attend the funeral of Mr. Wm. Clever of Galt, who died suddenly on Friday evening.

EDGE HILL.

The Union Sabbath School, held at the Grango Hall during the summer was in many respects superior to that of previous years. The Superintendent, Mr. Thomas Banks, is very earnest and devoted to the work, and he is ably assisted by his wife, Mrs. Wm. Edge, Mrs. D. Greenwood, Mrs. James Staples and Messrs. Daniel and William Edge.

They closed the school the last Sunday in October and on the evening of Tuesday November 1st the teachers, pupils and parents held a social for the children, who received prizes for their work during the season. The ladies prepared choice eatables of which all partook heartily. After tea was over Mr. John Graham was called to the chair and given a long program of the evening's entertainment.

Among the young reciters might be mentioned the names of Masters John McCracken, Arthur Greenwood, Arthur Weir, James Edge, Sammie Edge and Misses Ethel Weir, Annie Staples, Ada Staples, Valerie Edge, Amy Edge, Nellie Greenwood, Lillie Ritchie.

Miss Kate McFayden played nicely as usual on her accordion, and Geo. Staples is daily improving as a player of the mouth organ.

The singing was done by the Misses Bessie, Amy and Sarah Edge, and Miss Annie Staples.

All enjoyed themselves well, and the children are delighted with their prizes. Mr. Thomas Banks was taken by surprise when a large volume containing the Life and Sermons of John Wesley was presented to him by the teachers who assist him from Sabbath to Sabbath, showing that the best of good feeling prevails among them.

Behold how good a thing it is, And how becoming well, To see all those who brethren be In unity to dwell.

The meeting then closed and all went home happy from seeing so many others happy.

MULL CORNER.

We are having fine weather after the Weddings.

Mr. Peter Dalglish left last week for the Soo.

Miss Bella McLean after a month's visit to the parental home left last week for the Queen City.

A very pretty wedding took place on the 26th at the home of Mr. Alex. McCormick where his daughter, Miss Eliza, was married to Mr. Duncan McQuarrie by the Rev. Mr. Little. After the ceremony the guests sat down to a sumptuous dinner after which the evening was pleasantly spent in games, also a few Gaelic songs from some of the old pioneers, the guests dispersed after wishing the young couple a long and prosperous life.

Mr. Malcolm McLean has been laid up with a very sore hand for a couple of weeks, but we are glad to see him able to be around again.

Mr. Galbraith has purchased a tip top driver. Look out for another wedding soon.

Mr. and Mrs. James McDonald and family spent a few days visiting friends in Proton.

Mr. Alex. Fletcher accompanied by his sister, Miss Cassie, paid a flying visit to Owen Sound.

We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong and family to our midst.

The Killing of Juan Aparicio.

Was one of the most tragic and far-reaching political assassinations in the history of the Latin-American republics. The marvellous story of intrigue, revolution and the murder of people individually and collectively in Guatemala, grouped under this lively in the of the principle stories of Saturday Night's Christmas. It is profusely illustrated by photographs of the various trated by photographs of the various people concerned, their homes and families, and sketches of life in water color add to the interest. None of the events are more than a year and a half old. Only one of the men is now alive who had any leading part in the movement; some of the recent "removals" took place not more than a couple of months ago.

Saturday Night's Christmas will contain about 70 pages of most interesting reading matter written by distinguished authors of England, Canada and the United States. One of the most humorous and attractive features is "Two Weeks Before the Mast," by Charles Lewis Shaw, author of "Random Reminiscences of a Nile Voyageur," which also appeared in Saturday Night. Its pictorial supplement "The Mystery of the Moon," is without doubt the most beautiful and artistic colored picture ever given with any newspaper or magazine in the Old World or the New. Another colored plate gives the famous flag signal of Lord Nelson at Trafalgar, expressing the sentiment, "England expects every man to do his duty."

The editor will be ready about the middle of November, and news agents and those desiring to have the Number carefully wrapped in a tube for mailing, should send in their orders to the Toronto News Company or the publishers at once, as the supply is limited owing to the costly nature of the work, and will doubtless be exhausted almost immediately on it being offered to the public.

Grand Trunk Engineer Swears by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Mr. Geo. Cummings, for over 20 years engineer on Grand Trunk running between Toronto and Alandale, says: "The constant duty with my work gave me excessive pains in my back, racking my kidneys. I tried several remedies until I was recommended by my fireman, Mr. Dave Conley, to try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Two boxes have completely cured me and I feel to-day a better man than ever. I recommend them to all my friends."

Pan-Dried.

This applied to oats means barsting the starch cells of the oats and changing starch into sugar. You can't digest starch—you CAN digest sugar. Pan-drying does more than this though—it saves the rich, nutty flavor in the finished product as you get it. Progressive grocers sell "Tillson's" by the pound.
