BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES CONVEYANCERS, Etc., Etc. Money to Loan at Lowest Rates on Easy Terms,

OWEN SOUND, MARKDALE & DURHAM. NOTE-A Member of the Firm will be in attendance at the Durham Office (Calder's Slock, entrance Next to Holt's)

MONDAYS & COURT DAYS.

W. S DAVIDSON,

DARRISTER, NOTARY, CON- hind in this respect, D VEYANCER, Etc., Etc.,

Money to Loan at reasonable rates and on *terms to suit borrower. *OFFICE-McIntyre Block, (Over the Bank)

DURHAM, Nov'r 24th, 1898.

against Andrew White Conservative, | would seem that these institutions are a of North Renfrew was dismissed, no curse to the race rather than a benefit." evidence being proved. The petition against Holmes, Liberal of Haldimand was similarly disposed of for the same reason.

was elected in Lennox Bye Election, and that the lame, the halt, the blind, and against Dr. Meacham by a majority of 75, or 32 more than he had at the general election in March last. second protest is talked about on acof alleged "crooked work."

The Coroners jury in the Murray tragegy at Beaverton returned a verdict that Wm. Murray came to his death at the hands of one Edward Elliott.

"If I consider it will serve the in- ation was born in the township of terests of this Division I will place Vaughan near the village of Klein the nomination at Feversham though burg on December 15th, 1839. He all the editors of this county should moved with his father, the late unitedly pour out an avalanche of Archibald McDonald and family to their mighty brains," says John the township of Glenelg on the 14th here. Irwin, of Red Wing in the Thornbury | February, in the year 1851 and set-Standard. This profound announce- tled on lot 41, N. D. R., two miles ment shows John's exalted opinion west of Priceville, Mr. McDonald of his own wisdom, but for a public was twice married, first to a Miss man, seeking for public honors, to so | Christina McEachern, of Lochaber, insult the press of the County shows, P. Q., from which he had a family of to say the least, a very great lack of one daughter, now Mrs. Neil Camejudgment. If one editor's criticism ron, of Boothville. His second wife doesn't suit you John, fight him, but being Miss Maggie McKechnie, don't throw out an open challange youngest daughter of the late Alex, to to the whole lot. It's not wise.

POINTERS ON THE POORHOUSE.

paper we are not prepared to discuss He lived in the township of Egrethe pros and cons in connection with mont on lot 19, con. 21 for a numthe House of Refuge question so ber of years. Form thence he moved soon to be submitted for the electorate to vote upon, but feeling that eer. His sickness was of short durathe public should be informed on the tion being inflammation of the lungs. ferent sources.

GRAND JURY'S PRESENTMENT.

From the Grand Jury's presentment, at the last assize, made by Mr. Thomas Gilray, chairman, we quote establishment of a House of Refuge :

Referring to your Lordship's timely and offective remarks with reference to the neressity of erecting a Poor House in this sounty, we may say that we heartily agree with your opinion that a county so large and wealthy as ours, should no louger be with out one. We are pleased to notice that the county council are moving in the matter in the right direction, and we strongly com lasting happiness in the regions benend to the good sense and human feelings | youd. The funeral on Monday the of all ratepayers the desirability of their ecording their votes in January next, in avor of erecting such a building, and in ing a last tribute of respect to him he event of the vote being favorable we who was beloved by all who formed rust that the council will lose no time in his acquaintance and by his removal roviding this much needed institution. THE JUDGE'S REPLY.

His Lordship made a feeling and approriate reply. He was happy to be informed hat steps were being taken to ascertain tor, preached an effective sermon at ublic sentiment with regard to the erection | the house and again in the Church it fa House of Refu .e. In no question was e more deeply interested than in that of parity, and he assured the jurors that their text Revelations 14 chapter and 13 resentment would be forwarded to the verse: I heard a voice from heaven. roper authorities. In scathing terms he sferred to the poor ventilation and general iserable accommodation of the court room e thanked the jury for their kind refer- the earthly pilgrimage of a loving ace to himself. Like many others he was husband, a tender father and a bestting older, and it was improbable that loved brother would have many more opportunities of siting the County of Grey. After conatulating the jary on the manner in which ey had performed their duties, His Lord-

I lady with no crime but her poverty was nt to jail for six months. Mrs. Randle s no friends in these parts, and had been ne but to send her back when her time pires. She was driven down from jail on lice Magistrate Spencer very consideratonday in a hack, being unable to walk. spared her the trouble of climbing the a few days ago. irs to the courtroom by hearing her case the door, as he was on his way up. The lady pleaded not to be sent back to jail, there was no other alternative. To our writer Mrs, Randle said she was nearly a Miss Bella McKinnon, of the South hundred years old and that she had daughters in the States who would care for her if she could find them. She is a sufferer from brothers in the N. W. T. in the County Council, which effort we trust will be made at the next session, to remedy of Refuge will be established where the un prisonment. Bruce County has erected a byterian Church, Priceville. fine house of retuge, which will be opened shortly, and this county should not be be-THE MAIL AND EMPIRE.

"Iconoclast", a Doctor of Walkerton, of his recovery. writing in The Flaneur column of The Mail and Empire asks:-"Are our hospitals, housture, by the elimination of the unfit, seeks to improve the stock. This elimination is accomplished by the weaklings yielding to intemperance, dissipation, disease, and filth, to which forces they succumb in the ordinary course of events, and thus improve it, Now, however, we snatch this class out from The Liberals, being short of evi- supposedly cured or parts removed, and the individual is turned loose, to beget other dence have decided to abandon the weaklings, who occupy the room of, or are a protest against Mr. Marter, of North munity. Compare this with the conditions instrumental selections readings, etc, Toronto, What a pity they couldn't which have prevailed for so many centuries. The feature of the evening being the get the superannuated, Rev. Mr. in the Scottish Highlands, where the climate Dewar, in his place. He might maturity, and see what a race has been propurify their politics, The petition duced. From a utilitarian standpoint it to $13.15.

THE FLANEUR REPLY.

the poor have no right to cumber the earth with their obtrusive presence. If this be not the logical outcome of the argument of "Iconoclast" I should like to know what it is. At the same time, mind you, there is an undercurrent of unpalatable truth in what | turning on Saturday evening. he says."

TOP CLIFF.

Died as his residence South Durham Road, Gleneig, on Saturday morning at 12:45, the 12th inst., Mr. Chas. McDonald in his 59 year. The subject which is under our consider-McKechnie, who survives him with has 250 acres. a young family of three sons and one daughter, the eldest son being 17 years of age. Mr. McDonald's first As intimated in last issue of this wife died on the 5th of March, 1877. to the place where he ended his carian could not stay the heavy hand of given that although they mourn they | moccasins. do not mourn as those without hope for our beloved friend had testified 14th inst. was largely attended, paythe first link was broken in a family of six brothers and four sisters. The Rey, Mr. Matheson, deceased's pasbeing well filled. He took for his etc. The remains were laid to rest beside his first wife. Thus ended

One of Mr. Alex. McEachern's

Mr. Arch. McCuaig is busy fixing jail for several terms, and it just his stables in the basement of his large barn.

Mr. Chas. McMillan finished the that disease. It is a crying evil that such a Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Shortreed reperson as this, who, as we said before, has been guilty of no crime, should be made to spend the last days of her life with the their honeymoon visiting friends in criminals and vagabound classes. It is to Galt and other places, We extend be hoped that the next effort that is made to them our hearty good wishes, etc.

The Rev. Mr. Darroch will preach this evil will be successful and that a House a union thanksgiving sermon on Thursday next, the 24th inst. at 2:30 fortunate poor may be properly cared for o'clock in the afternoon in the Preswithout the stigma which attaches to im-

Mr. Neil McDonald who has been ailing for some time past is not any better. There are very little hopes

Mr John McInnis who drove Mr. es of refuge, asylums, and kindred institu- Simpson's hearse for the last 3 years tions a benefit to the race? He says "Na- resigned and Mr. Don. Campbell, of the North Line, takes his place.

HOLSTEIN.

A parlor concert under the direcunder the relentless wheel, rush them off to tion of the Ladies' Aid of the Methosome public institution, have the disease dist Church was held in the parsonage on Wednesday evening of last week, A choice programme was tax upon, the healthy portion of the com- given which consisted of vocal and Miss Dotty, of London, was in the village on Monday evening and call-"The change proposed would directly ed at the School and treated the traverse all the accepted views of mortality, children of both rooms to an exhibireligion, and philauthropy. It means—it it means—it it means anything—that it a man is poor, let him die; it a man or woman is getting old was a business trip the object being him die; it a man or woman is getting old was a business trip the object being or feeble let them die; in fact that the world to secure a class of young ladies in Mr. Bowen Aylesworth, Liberal, is only inteded for the healthy and wealthy, physical culture. We sincerely hope she may succeed,

> Miss Minnie Brown who has been away on a three month's visit with friends in Brantford and London re-

Mr. J. M. Jackson, of Elora organ factory, was the guest of Mr. R. Burrows over Sunday

The Rev. J M. Miller and family who have been visiting Aliston friends for the past couple of weeks returned on Friday.

Mr. James Cameron finding that the jewellery business did not pay in Holstein sold out his stock and has gone to Toronto where he has secured a situation with Kent Bros. of that city. The wonder is that some one don't try to run a newspaper

Miss G. Pemeroy, of Southampton, up. who has been the guest of Rev. J. W. Magwood for the past few weeks returned to her home on Monday evening. What will that Durham boy do now?

ed T. R. Tribe's farm for the sum of $3150. Bob is bound to farm on a larger scale than formerly as he now

Mrs. John Orchard who was threatened with paralysis during the last part of last week is somewhat better at time of writing the symptoms having almost entirely passed away.

Globe Loan and Savings Co., cor. of Victoria and Lombard Sts., Toronto.

E. W. Day, Manager Globe Loan & Savquestion, we give opinions from dif- Dr. Hutton, his attending physician, ings Co. says:-"I consider Dr. Chase's save his life, but friends nor physicion could not stay the heavy hand of death when the allotted time is end- Reports from Quebec tell of huned. Death has no regard to the cries dreds of deer being wantonly killed, of the orphan or the tears of the and allowed to remain and rot in the the following which refers to the beloved wife or the weeping of be- bush. Four hundred are reported loved brothers and sisters. The from one district. The Indians are friends of the subject of our sketch particularly destructive taking only have one and the only consolation the skins which they prepare for his full assurance of enjoying everand Loss of Flesh Farm Stock, Implements, Office Furni-

Scott's Emulsion has been the standard remedy for nearly a quarter of a century. Physicians readily admit that they obtain results from it that they cannot get from any other flesh-forming food.

There are many other preparations on the market that pretend to do what does, but they fail to perform it.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

makes this preparation an patient almost immediately commences to put on Both the above sales will be for Cash and upon the terms and conditions to be made known at the which surprises them.

Be surposed sets COTT'S Emulsion. See that the

goc. and $1,00, all drugstes. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemieus, Toronto.

H. PARKER'S 1856.

THE PLACE TO BUY YOUR

HOLIDAY GOODS.

1898.

XMAS & NEW YEARS NOVELTIES in all the Leading Goods at Bottom Prices, such as: - Fancy Toile: Cases, Japanese Toilet Sets, Leather Travelling Sets, Shaving Sets, Celluloid Collar and Cuff Boxes, Work Boxes, Leather Toilet Cases, Glove Boxes, Ladie's Leather Hdkf. Wallets-silk lined, Ladie's Leather Hdkf. and Glove Boxes-silk lined Photo. Albums in Leather, Plush and Celluloid, Autograph Albums do., Fancy Purses and Wallets, Toy Books, Authors, Silver mounted Brier Pipes, All kinds of Pipes, Cigar Cases, Cigarett Cases, Etc.

Choice Perfumes-All the Latest Odors.

Illustrated Catalogue of the N. Y. Jeweller to choose from. Games-Playing Cards. Checker Boards, Bagatelle, Crockinole, Dominos, Parcheesi. Violins from $1.50 to $25.00, Violin Bews, Strings. &c. Concertinas, Accordions, Fifes, Jews Harps. See our Large Stock of Mouth Organs.

Bibles, Prayer Books and Hymnals-Nice Stock to choose from. Choice Xmas Groceries. - New Fruits, New Peels Figs, Dates, Prunes, Almonds, Walnuts, Peanuts and all kinds of Confectionery.

WE ALWAYS LEAD. NEVER UNDERSOLD. H. PARKER, - - Druggist &c., Durham.

Eggs, Butter, Cheese, Poultry and Pork, Apples, Potatoes and Grain to

CAMPBELL, DAVIDSON & Co.,

Buyers and Exporters,

88 FRONT STREET EAST.

WE PAY HIGHEST MARKET PRICES. SEND FOR OUR PRICE LIST.

YOU TRY IT.

If Shiloh's Cough and Consumption Cure, which is sold for the small price of 25 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00, does not cure take the bottle back and we will refund your money. Sold for over fifty years on this guarantee. Price 25 cts and 50 cts.

The Railway cut rate war seems to be nearing a settlement, after which the rates are likely to jump

A disastrous smash-up of an express and freight train near Trenton, was reported in last Wednesday's Daily papers, Twelve men were Mr. R. E. Mickleboro has purchas. killed and several wounded, An investigation will follow. An open switch is said to have led to the Market Report.

DURHAM, Nov. 23rd,	1898
Fall Wheat	68	to	70
Spring Wheat	65	to	68
Oats	25	to	25
Peas	57	to	57
Barley	35	to	40
Hay	5 00	to 6	00
Butter	13	to	14
Eggs per doz	13	to	14
Applesper bag	50	to	75
Potatoesper bag	65	to	75
Flour per cwt	1 25	to 1	10.5
Chop per cwt Dressed Hogs per cwt	1 80	to 2	00
Hides per lb	7	to	7
Sheepskins	40	to	60
Turkeys per lb	6	to	3
Ducks per pair	5	to to	50
Chickens per pair	25		30
Wool		te	16

EXECUTOR'S SALE

ture and Chattels of the late David Jackson, Jr.

PURSUANT TO INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE Toronto General Trust Company, Executors of the last Will and Testament of David Jackson, deceased, there will be offered for Sale by Public Auction by JAMES CARSON, Auctioneer, on the premises, Lot Twenty-two in the First Concession west of the Garafraxa Road in the Township of Bentinck, adjoining the Town of Durham, on Tuesday the 29th of November, 1898,

At 12 o'clock noon, certain Farm Stock, Implements and Chattels of the said deceased including among other things the following:-2 Waggons, 1 Seed Drill, 2 Bob-Sleighs, 1 Land Roller, 1 Seed Drill, 2 Mowers, 1 Horse Rake, 2 Ploughs, 2 Hay Rakes, 2 Sets Harrows, 1 Patent Lever Tread Power, 1 Ensilage Cutter, Several Sets of Harness, Horses, Fowls, about 35 bags of Petatoes, various Farm Implements, atulating the jary on the manner in which sy had performed their duties. His Lord-ip dismissed them,

O. S. ADVERTISER.

A strong plea for a poorhouse was prented at the Police Court on Monday morn-nted at Book-Cases, Desks. Chairs, Lounge, Volumes of Canadian and Ontario Statutes, ideal one and checks the Stove and Stovepipes, Letter Press, Stationery Case for Forms, Inkstands, Combination Safe, &c.

> Dated at Toronto this 11th day of } November, A. D. 1898. THE TORONTO GENERAL TRUST CO'Y, EDGAR, MALONE & EDGAR, 59 Yonge Street, Toronto, Socierrons.

TORONTO

An Immense Shipment of X-Cut Saws and Axes just opened out. Call at once and secure what you consider the Best, as we lead in quality and price.

Some New Designs in Granite and Enamelware just to hand.

We have a Superior Stock of Robes, Horse Blankets, Buggy Rugs, Curry Combs, Brushes and Surcingles.

Our Buttercup Churn is ahead of all other churns.

Another Shipment of Stove and Table Cilcloth Mats just arrived.

Our assortment of Lamps and Stable Lanterns is something extra.

Another Coal Stove for sale CHEAP.

5 gals. of the best Canadian Coal Oil for 80c.

MISS CULBERTSON

S AGAIN PREPARED TO FUR-NISH the Ladies of Durham and vicinity with the LATEST STYLES IN FALL MILLINERY. Call and inspect the very large New Stock. Executors and Trustees of the last Will As we are under no expense for hired help and Testament of David Jackson, Jr., our customers get the benefit. our customers get the benefit. S. CULBERTSON.

Shop over S. Scott's Store, Lower Town.

Echo of the Pa

Well, sir," said Farrier, aft thy pause. "I've taken y the premises, what do you my house ?" His tones be keenest anxiety, for was no tler his prospective father-in-"I like the house," replied to usn, pompously, as he sat heav a big armchair, "how does by on, eh?" Is the practice in

His inquiry, as Farrier well ras a command, and he replied "I can honestly say, sir, that surpassed my expectation. So veryone seems to overwhelm m idness, mainly, I fell sure, ur interest in me." Mr. Butler solemnly incline

"Yes, yes; I may say I have d est for you, because I felt fr eginning that you were a go prigh t man. You might know that, before I permitte sughter to even be introduced made every inquiry concerning haracter. Fortunately all wa expected, and I am glad to g consent to your engagement w ughter and to welcome you Could the worthy banker a of the church have had t dimple of his future son-in-law would have somewhat alter minion concerning him, for an esire to shout or to laugh w sting the younger man, whose vere at high tension.

"I trust in the future to con merit your encomiums, sir," gravely remarked, and then the view so long dreaded, was at Thank God, he's gone!" he e d, wiping his forehead and t simself into a chair; "it only how careful one has to be. I who he wrote to for my ch Well, it's no good looking at for now it's dead and buried, on the high road to fortune. could push on the marriag rid of the haunting fear th me that some ghosts from the throw their shadows across demure of aspect, and 50 year glided in. She suited the doc but in his heart he loathed t f her, for he felt sure she s "Would you mind, my going

The door opened, and his hou

n hour, sir?" she asked. "Certainly, Mrs. Capon, In a few minutes the slar the door told him that, save surgery boy, he was alone. coon was foggy, and, thankfu an hour to himself, he bask warmth of the fire. Suddenly the surgery bell with a subdued grumble he he door. A woman, dresse Black, stood waiting in t is she entered, he caught sig ace, and muttered an oath. Muriel! Why do you cor asked in sharp, agonize Let me sit down, for I she gasped, and reeled ustion against the closed Half-carrying and half-dra be doctor succeeded in ge If-unconscious burden into sulting room, and gently la Finally, after which seemed an eternity, Don't look at me so fiercel breaks my heart." The man, sitting on the e ole, sullenly swung his legs and forward, while his hear against his ribs. "When you left London enerous to me, I'll own, be as gone well with me since business went to rack and many a time I've starved w last I could bear it no have come to ask you to he dore. I know I've done wro ing, Jack, but no one knows and I am unknown in this way place. Say you"ll help dow cheerfully in the pas er forged the chain that tined now to ruin and to de it dragging now at his hee By all means, I'll help y don't come here again th the past forever, and be married." He went n door, opened it and clos he woman feebly nodded. "If anything of this we , I should be utterly r Utterly absorbed in this low, Farrier failed altoge ce the increasing pallor

"Let me see, would thir quavering whistle fr ent the blood madly to hi thew that in another nces would be knocking 'Come, Muriel! here com ors of mine-and you mus to this cupboard-th and I'll let you out ore open the door, th the deep old-fash