RESULT OF SKIN GRAFTING.

Nothing Went Wrong, and Now the Pati-ent Must Suffer Another Trial—Inter-esting surgical case.

Louis Henschan, of Cincinnati, was severely burned about the back, shoulder and right arm on February 25. He lay for weeks in the City Hospital at the point of death, but gradually his horrible wounds began to heal, with the exception of the multiple wounds which had denuded the arm of almost every particle of skin. The stubborn resistance offered by these wounds against all known remedies finally persuaded the physicians to make a skin graft. As quite a large quantity of suitable enough skin was removed from the brother-in-law's thigh to cover so extensive an area the physicians were at a loss to know where to obtain it.

In this dilemma Henschan's sisters volunteered to supply it, and would have done so had not a brother-in-law stepped forward and made the sacrifice. Under all known aseptic precau-tions enough skin was removed from the brother-in-law's thigh to cover the wound. After this the healing of the wounds went rapidly on, and the patient was discharged from the hospital in less than a month after-ward.

Recently, however, the new skin taken from Henschan's relative has begun to contract, drawing the arm up so that it has become almost im-possible to use. The contraction being so gradual that it was scarcely per-ceptible. But one remedy remains, and that is to remove the shrivelling skin and put other skin in its place. The operation, if consented to by the patient, will be a difficult one and re-quire skillful handling.

NORWAY'S SKATING SOLDIERS.

Well-organized troops for Scout and Pic-nic Duty in Winter.

The Norwegian army has lately or-ganized a highly trained corps of skat-ers. The men are armed with repeat-ing rifles. They wear a specially con-structed skate evolved after numerous experiments with various types. The skate is so shaped as to enable the men to turn with great rapidity. As a matter of fact they perform the "right about" in much quicker time than in-fantry, spinning round as though on a pivot at the word of command.

The corps can be manoeuvred with a rapidity equal to that of the best trained cavalry, and at a recent re-view on one of the fjords—their evolu-tions astonished the military repre-sentatives of other nations who were invited to witness the display.

For patrol and scout duty they are expected to be of the greatest use, as the ice season in Norway is of consid-erable duration.

The men are the pick of a skating nation, and they are commanded by an ex-champion. They are capable of traveling 80 miles a day on the ice, fully equipped.

ARE YOU JEALOUS?

After marriage jealousy should be driven against just as one battles with fever or any other kind of dis-ease. It creates misunderstandings by the hundreds; it chills love, though it is a sign of love, and it makes the unity of thought and feeling that should exist between husband and wife a hollow mockery.

It is the wife's part to cure this taker. Women are so delicately sen-sitive and so wonderfully wise and diplomatic, that without throwing their cards on the table, and thus re-vealing their hand, they can force the game to go any way they will. Jeal-ous husbands are very quick to see when their wives really adore them, and when alone, and the woman who is the victimized wife of a jealous man instead of scornful his weakness, does well to be lenient toward it, and ten-derly remembering that her conduct alone is his cure, or, on the other hand, its aggravation.

There are wives who argue falsely that when their husbands cease to be jealous they also cease to love them with the passionate fervor of the first few years of married life. Never was there a more absurd mistake. Of a truth, only the woman who has not known the pangs of jealousy would so argue.

Jealousy has been known to kill peo-ple. It saps the strength and weak-ens the vitality of the heart. So, though it does invariably imply love, and real hot love, too, it should be quenched by the sufferer and the ob-ject of his or her devotion. Love re-mains; be certain of it, and more truly it is love where the green-eyed mon-ster has been killed.

EVIDENTLY.

I think the man who works at that place across the street is the most faithful and conscientious workman I ever saw. He never takes a holiday, and always labors away till it's too dark to see any longer.

Faithful workman? Great Scott! He's the proprietor of the shop!

THE WORLD DO MOVE.

Mrs. Henry Peck—First we get horse-less carriages, and then wireless tele-graphy. I wonder what next?

Her Husband, meekly—Wifeless matrimony, perhaps.

A NEW VERSION.

One of great men of our time said we can be as great as they, and departing, leave behind us All we cannot take away.

A PERSISTENT SUITOR.

Kitty—I can't imagine anything more disagreeable than a proposal from that man.

Ruth—I can.

Kitty—What, for goodness' sake!

Claire—A half dozen.

Date of General Election.

When is it to be? This question is disturbing the souls of politicians. In view of the material alteration in the commercial policy of the country which would be involved in a change of gov-ernment it is a matter which con-cerns the general public. Meanwhile the aching corns of the populace cry for a remedy and the government give no heed to the demand. Look here! don't suffer this neglect to delay the use of means open to all and which re-moves the most painful and obstinate corns in two days. Painless, sure acting corn cure, Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

A WONDERFUL COUPLE.

A woman, says the Cornfed Philoso-pher, wonders why she ever married that kind of a man, while the man wonders why he ever married the all.

GIRLS CAN'T MARRY.

Norwegian legislators propose that girls who do not know how to knit, sew, wash and cook should be refused permission to marry. Daughters of wealthy men are not to be excepted.

I don't know who dat feller Quick-sands is, but he's got de right idea uv 'fings an' ain't afraid to say so, an' if he wuz here I'd take off me hat to him.

LATEST IN LIFE BELTS.

M. Janet, a Frenchman, of Bauvais, finds that four toy india rubber bal-loons attached to a belt of whippoor make a swimming belt or life buoy. The balloons should only be half full in order to resist the waves better. This life belt can easily be carried in the pocket and inflated at need.

SAPLING LIFTS TONS.

The power of living seed over the inert weight of tons of rocks is very forcibly illustrated by a little sapling which is growing in Erstberg, Ger-many. The tree is slight enough to be bent with the hands, but is raising in its irresistible growth a mass of rock weighing four tons.

WHERE CUSTOM FAILS.

In Paraguay a gentleman is enjoined by the laws of good society to kiss every lady to whom he is introduced. This sounds alluring unless you hap-pen to have met a lady in Paraguay.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury

Mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surface. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physici-ans, as the damage they will do is too fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testi-monials free.

Sold by Druggists, price 50c. per bottle. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

TREES AND LIGHTNING.

According to a recent investigation of lightning strokes in trees which a German has carried out, the beech tree is less often struck by the flash than any other. It is unwise to take shelter from a thunderstorm under any trees, but if it is a case of needs must the beech is the best and the oak or poplar among the worst.

HE DOUBTED IT.

Mrs. Henpeck—You have been very aggravating at times, and we have not always got along very well together; but still, if I had to do it over again, I'd marry you just the same.

Mr. H., under his breath—I'm not so sure about that.
