THE CHRONICLE. DURHAM, Aug. 10th, 1899.

FLESHERTON.

Sacramental services were held in the Baptist and Methodist churches on Sabbath morning last, their respective pastors, Reys. Darroch and Ward officiating.

The Union Sabbath School at the Station held their annual picnic in the adjoining woods on Thursday Afternoon last. There was a good turnout and the event passed off with a marked degree of pleasure and success.

Mrs. A. M. Lindsay, of Shelburne, formerly a resident of this place, was here visiting friends and on Saturday afternoon last received a terrible shock when her little son, three months old, died suddenly with convulsions. Mr. Lindsay arrived here that night and the little corpse was taken home on Sunday.

Mrs. McKee, Sr. a respected old lady here has given up house keeping and is, we understand, going to make her home with members of her family hereabout.

Mrs. Fawcett, Sr. who recently left here to reside at Heathcote, was one of the oldest members of the Woman's Missionary Auxiliary here and the members of that society have presented her with a beautifully bound copy of the Methodist hymn book as a token of esteem for their aged sister.

Mr. W. Trimble's driving mare, affected with inflammation died on Saturday.

Rev. L. W. Thom spent Thursday last on church business at Ventry.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bellamy have been spending a few days with friends at Singhampton.

Mrs. (Dr.) Reid of Shelburne visited from Saturday till Tuesday with her sister, Mrs. W. Trimble.

Mr. Ross Snowdon, of Guelph, is visiting at his uncle's, Mr. Alex. Stewart's, back line.

Mr. Wes. Latimer, druggist, Toronto, was in town calling on old friends last week.

Mr. and Mrs. McTavish, Mr. T. Sheppard and the Misses Joy Sundayed with friends at Durham and Mr. Forest.

Mr. C. Neil of Faversham and Mr. M. Karstedt of Elawood spent Sunday in town, the former with his daughter and the latter with his brother and sister.

Mrs. W. W. Trimble and little daughter Ruby left on Tuesday to visit the former's sister Mrs. (Rev) Edmunds at Monkton and mother at Detroit.

Mr. M. Richardson spent Sunday with his son, Dr. Richardson, and daughters in Toronto, and will take in the Masonic excursion to New York before returning.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Strain, of Great Falls, who are visiting here, are taking in the Masonic excursion to New York this week.

Mr. Wm. Strain of this place received a telegram on Friday last informing him that the Montana regiment which has been in service in the Philippines and to which his son belongs will leave Manila for San Francisco this week. The voyage will last about thirty days.

Mr. H. Chard, of Toronto, is visiting his brother in this vicinity.

Mrs. J. W. Bates of Brockville, was in town on Friday last calling on old friends.

Mrs. W. J. Douglas, of Collingwood, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Van Dusen, this week.

Mr. Chas. Pedlar, of Orillia, was in town last week visiting old friends.

Mr. Will Stewart, of Fort William, is visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Stewart, of the West back line. Mr. Stewart is employed on the

C. P. R. and has had some experience with the Doukhobor and Gallician immigrants. The former he thinks are not a bad class of people, but he has no use for the latter tribe who are pouring into our Western country.

Mr. Thos. Leitch returned home last week after eight months visit with members of his family at Springfield, Collingwood and Manitowaning.

Miss Asselstine, Student in Alma Ladies College, St. Thomas, is the guest of Miss Sarah Strain.

Misses Maud and Rita Irwin of Durham have been spending a few days with their young friends here.

Mrs. S. Logan returned to the Queen City after a short visit with friends here.

Mr. James Danbook, of Newbridge, spent Sunday at the residence of Mr. A. Doupe. Some of the boys are wondering why he comes so far so often.

Mrs. W. J. Sharp is still unable to speak above a whisper. The women say "It is a terrible calamity."

Mr. H. Ham, G. T. R. agent here for the past six years has received notice that he will be removed to Milverton in the near future. Mr. H. is a good citizen and will be greatly missed not only as a public official but as a member of the Methodist Church here; however he will be followed by the best wishes of the community.

The Quarterly services of the Holstein circuit were held last Sabbath. The services were well attended throughout. The business meeting Monday afternoon, was entirely satisfactory.

VARNEY.

Mr. Zenas Clark has started out with his new threshing outfit, and is doing first class work.

Some of our boys have a habit of going south very frequently. They may get caught.

Varney is still to the front. An other new building, Adam Little is erecting a new shop. Wilfrid Laurier was not present to lay the corner stone.

The spring crops are looking well all over the country, and the farmers have a smile on that you can feel with your feet. Not much wonder after the hard times.

Mr. Wm. Eden, of Arthur, and Mr. Rudd, of Luther, visited at Mr. R. J. Eden's a few days last week.

Mrs. Hutton, of Guelph, is the guest of Mrs. Wm. Grant.

The lecture in the Church last Thursday night was a grand success. Mr. John Morice is engaged with Mr. Clark for the season's threshing.

Mr. R. Barber has built a fine barn which is a credit to the Eden Bros.

Mr. Wilfrid Watson has returned from Detroit looking hale and hearty.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mountain visited friends in Artemesia and Proton last week.

Mr. T. Allan is round again after his recent sickness.

Mr. Ed. Fee is used up with sciatica from which we hope he will soon recover.

Little Minnie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Blyth is recovering from a fracture of the leg she received some time ago.

Mrs. John Aldred is improving after the operation she underwent a couple of weeks ago.

Mr. T. Petty's house is almost completed and is quite creditable to the contractors. It is almost frost and fire proof.

I had a dream the other night When everything was still and bright; It seemed to me I saw friend Pete And long Jim Mack with faces sweet Both standing on the Varney Hill. And looking with a right good will Across the spacious plain below. Discussing the best way to go To see their dear one fair and gay And linger till the break of day.

Pete towards the south was bound to go While Jim to Durham turned his toe To see a man 'bout a cow. The truth of which I cannot vow. Just then the rooster gave a crow. The rooster, perched upon a beam, It woke your scribe who scratched his head And found the whole thing was a dream.

REMARKABLE RESCUE.

Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement, that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well; now does her own housework, and is as well as every she was.—Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at local Drug Stores. Only 50 cents and $1.00, every bottle Guaranteed.

VICKERS.

Mrs. Fraser returned from Hamilton on Friday accompanied by her daughter Mrs. Thos. Turnbull who is in very poor health at present.

Mr. Robt. Smith can now be called Pa, since the new arrival.

Mr. John Coutts has been somewhat under the weather of late with a stomach trouble.

Mrs. Jos. Corbett left last week on a visit to her daughter Mrs. Armstrong of Gravenhurst.

Now, here is a book! exclaimed the seedy man, as he dashed into the banker's private office. "Don't want no books!" grunted the banker. "But this is one you can't help being interested in. Haven't time to read books, and—But I am sure you will take this book, persisted the seedy man. Look here, sir, do you intend to leave this room, or do you intend to—Don't need to call the janitor, I'll go. This is your book, though. My book? Yes, your pocketbook. I found it in the hall. Then he vanished.

AND THEN. Young Bride—I didn't accept Tom the first time he proposed. Miss Ryval, slightly envious—I know you didn't. Young Bride—How do you know? Miss Ryval—You weren't there.
