JOHN LIVINGSTONE, Sr., of Listowel, brother of the celebrated African Explorer, Dr. David Livingstone, died on Wednesday evening of last week at the home of his son in Listowel. He was highly respected a good business man, and an extensive reader and traveller. The deceased was born in 1811, two years before the Dr. and up to the time of the latter's death kept up a regular correspondence with him treasuring as mementoes many letters and relics sent him from Africa.

THE Town Council met on Monday night, but the program wasn't very exciting. The presentation of a motion to appeal the Burnett case brought Councillor Gorsline to his feet in opposition to litigation, and for a time there was considerable amusement particularly when Mr. Gorsline addressed The Council in response to Mayor Calder's request. His error regarding the "Bill of Particulars" being pointed out Mr. Gorsline's ardor was somewhat dampened, nevertheless he was convinced that the council was taking a false step, and voted alone against the motion. Whatever may be said against Mr. Gorsline, he has a mind of his own and the courage to express his convictions, qualities that don't seem to be too common around the council table.

THE Markdale Standard entered its twentieth year last week. In taking a retrospective view of the past nineteen years, the editor informs his readers that only one other paper in the County, the Owen Sound Advertiser, has run continuously through the period without a change of management. Though our esteemed cotem admits that nineteen years ago, he started in as a "decidedly green" newspaper man, it must not be inferred that he is a dry one now. Mr. Rutledge has always possessed the rare faculty of attending to his business, and is one of the few local journalists who has made it a financial success—at least we imagine so from the fact that notwithstanding extensive building operations, he was able to take in the late excursion to the Pacific Coast from which he has just returned. It is not well, however, for the public to know you have been indulging in such luxuries, Bro. Rutledge, as you'll never be able to collect your subscriptions. More power to your facile pen and may you continue to prosper.

PORRIDGE or PUDDING

That is made from that light, wholesome, easy-to-digest

Tillson's Flake Barley

is often undersalted rather than oversalted in the making.

A pinch or two more of salt used even by the best of cooks will add just that needed touch that may decide you to keep on buying Flake Barley of your grocer.

However, 'every woman to her taste'—the pudding or porridge may be just right as you are making it now.

There is still much speculation as to whether the government will appeal to the country before next session. At least two ministers are quoted as having given solemn assurances that there will be no election—and yet there are doubters.

Mr. JAMES REDFORD, of S.S. No. 1, Normanby, has been re-engaged for 1900 at an advance of salary. We congratulate Mr. Redford, and at the same time commend the trustees for their wisdom in retaining his services rather than run the risk that always accompanies a change of teacher.

A SINGULAR freak of nature might be observed last week in the orchard of Mr. Jas. Baird on the second concession of Egremont, where a crab tree heavily laden with ripe fruit sent forth an additional crop of blossoms and promises a second crop of fruit this season should the weather continue fine long enough.

COMPLAINT has been made at this office regarding the negligence of the Glenelg Council in leaving the Lambton Street approach to the town in such a rough condition. It is not a Durhamite, but a genuine Glenelger who did the grumbling. A run over the road has convinced us that he is not far astray.

The Beauty that Attracts Men.

Advice to Consumptives

There are three great remedies that every person with weak lungs, or with consumption itself, should understand. These remedies will cure about every case in its first stages; and many of those more advanced. It is only the most advanced that are hopeless. Even these are wonderfully relieved and life itself greatly prolonged.

What are these remedies? Fresh air, proper food and of Cod-Liver Oil with Hypophosphites. Be afraid of draughts but not of fresh air. Eat nutritious food and drink plenty of milk. Do not forget that Scott's Emulsion is the oldest, the most thoroughly tested and the highest endorsed of all remedies for weak throats, weak lungs and consumption in all its stages.
