

FLESHERTON.

Under the presidency of Mrs. W. H. Thurston the Mission Band in the Methodist Church here is in a very prosperous condition having now a membership of 48. Thirteen dollars were raised during the past year for missionary purposes. Palm Branch is a spicy little missionary paper which is taken and a large number of copies distributed during the year. Officers have been elected for the ensuing year as follows:—Pres., Mrs. W. H. Thurston; Vice-Pres., Miss Carrie Rutledge; Cor. Sec., Miss Gladys Ward; Rec. Sec., Miss Amy Kerr; Treas., Miss Ida Gjerdrum; Palm Branch Sec., Miss Mary Hales. Delegate to Branch Meeting in Toronto, Miss Carrie Rutledge.

Rev. H. V. Emory, of Shelburne, Chairman of the Orangeville District, exchanged pulpits with Rev. Jos. Ward and conducted anniversary services in the Methodist church here on Sabbath last. Mr. Emory is a gifted and forceful preacher and his eloquent sermons, appropriate to the occasion, were much enjoyed by large congregations. The old time tea meeting on Monday evening was abandoned and freewill offerings on Sabbath instead amounted to $36.

Communion service was held in the Presbyterian church on Sabbath morning and was largely attended.

The preparatory service of the evening was held in the Presbyterian church.

In the absence of the pastor, Rev. A. J. Darroch, on holidays, Mr. J. McLachlan, B. A., McMaster University student, occupied the Baptist pulpit very acceptably on Sabbath last.

There are already indications that the East Grey Exhibition to be held here on Tuesday and Wednesday next will surpass any of its predecessors. The directors are sparing no pains to make this season's fair a crowning success. There will be one of the society's most pleasing concerts on the evening of the second day. Flesherton has at present strong home talent the cream of which has been secured for that evening and in addition to this Miss Asselstine, elocutionist, Alma College, St. Thomas, is coming to assist.

Principal Slaughter has removed on Spring Street to Mr. Van Dusen's house opposite the Methodist Church, and Mr. W. Clayton, whose dwelling was destroyed by fire last week, has moved into the house vacated by Mr. Slaughter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Ackland, who were married at the home of the bride in Brooklyn, N. Y., on Tuesday of last week on their wedding tour through Ontario to their new home in Winnipeg were the guests of Mr. M. Richardson and family from Saturday till Tuesday. Mrs. Ackland is the third daughter (Minnie) of Mr. John Gordon who for several years conducted a harness business in this place and moved to Brooklyn ten years ago.

Miss Maud Richardson, of Toronto, is on a three weeks' visit at the parental home, Mr. M. Richardson's.

Miss Glassford, of Caledon East, is the guest of Miss Maud Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Powers, of Bowmanville, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carr.

Mr. V. Kester, Standard foreman, Markdale, and Mrs. Kester, spent Sunday with Editor and Mrs. Thurston.

Mr. H. Meredith, of Durham, visited his sister Miss Meredith, teacher, on Saturday.

Rev. L. W. Thom attended the Presbytery at Orangeville Tuesday.

Miss Flossie Richardson has returned to Moulton Ladies' College, Toronto, and Miss Asselstine to Alma, St. Thomas.

Mr. Fred. Strain, who recently returned from a trip to the Old Country is settling down to study and with his sister, Miss Clara, has gone to attend Owen Sound high school.

Miss Addie Carson left last week to take a course in the Northern Business College.

Mrs. T. J. ...

Mr. John White, of Toronto, is visiting his sister, Mrs. W. Barnhouse.

Mrs. W. P. Crossley, Mrs. Jas. Sullivan and Miss Carrie Sullivan visited over Sunday with friends at Meaford.

Mr. Frank Griffiths, barrister, St. Catharines, visited his uncle, Mr. A. Munshaw, Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Harnden, of Brighton, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. R. N. Henderson.
