Local News.

We have still a few dozen suits of ready-made clothing to sell at cost.—H. W. MOCKLER.

MESSRS. Bean & Co., of the Big 4, upper town have moved this week into their new store in the Calder Block, and invite a call from all their old customers and all new ones who wish to inspect their stock.

A man in a neighboring town who was too stingy to subscribe for his home paper sent his boy to a neighbor to borrow one. As the boy was going he fell and broke his leg.

In our last issue we referred to the danger to which men's lives at the docks are exposed by reason of the darkness. Another source of danger has been brought to our notice, to which the men expose themselves, a danger of which they themselves are the source.

TAX NOTICE.

To-morrow (Friday) is the last day for the payment of the first half of the taxes. The Council has decided that prompt payment must be made.

As much additional accommodation has been added for poultry, it is expected that the exhibit in this class will be very much larger than in previous years.

The new Principal of the Public School, Mr. Clarke, arrived in town a few days ago and so far has made a good impression. We trust he will find Meaford all that he could desire—Monitor.

THE Snow-MacKay advertising Agency, of Boston, is one of the most active, progressive and up-to-date concerns of its kind. Its rapidly increasing business necessitated a removal to larger quarters.

THERE was a quiet wedding on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Laban Gray, O. S. R., Egremont, when their daughter, Mary, was married to Albert McFarlin, of Guelph, formerly of Letter Breen neighborhood.

The Hanover Portland Cement Co. of this place put their first kiln of Portland Cement through the mill a week ago yesterday. It sets well and is apparently as good as any made on this continent.

Tired of running an independent straddle-the-fence paper, Mr. Glenning of the Dundalk Herald has sold out and is now aching to get a party journal and have a crack at somebody.

A Fleishy Consumptive

Did you ever see one? Did you ever hear of one? Most certainly not. Consumption is a disease that invariably causes loss of flesh.

DURHAM

VOLUME 32

LOCAL NEWS.

OUR grain buyers are again on the market and ready for the bags.

MESSRS. N., G. & J. McKechnie shipped about a hundred pigs, of their own raising, from this station on Monday.

THE Millinery Department at Laidlaw's will, this season, be under the management of Miss Maggie Muaro, one of our Durham ladies.

Mr. Chas. McArthur, has moved down town this week, and will henceforth be glad to meet his customers at the new store in the McKechnie Block.

In the poultry show at Hanover last week, we are told that Mr. Ben. Moore, of this town captured all the prizes for Barred Rocks and Leghorns.

On Monday morning last Mr. Fred Peel was hastily summoned to attend the funeral of his wife's mother Mrs. Jondieu, Deseronto. The train having left here he had to drive over to Hanover to make connections.

THE poultry house on the Exhibition Grounds is being enlarged to about three times its former capacity. This will obviate the necessity of keeping birds outside in hot or inclement weather and be an inducement to fowl fanciers to increase their exhibits.

Mr. W. H. BENTON, will have on exhibition at the Fair here next week, a sample of Honey Vinegar, a new production worthy of notice. This gives us an instance of where extremes meet.

PATRONIZE home, is a principle we have always preached but despite our best efforts, Tom Swallow, the little shaver in the barber shop next door, went to Toronto this week to pick out a wife, and has chosen Miss Supernault to whom he was married on Wednesday.

Mr. Thos. Livingston, of Mt. Forest, son of Mr. A. Livingston of Bentinck, entered the band of Benedicts on Wednesday of this week, having married Miss Christine Corbett, daughter of Mr. Joseph Corbett, of the same Township.

THE School Building and Grounds in S. S. No. 9 have under-gone such a transformation during the past year or so, that at the opening of the school this term the Departmental Diploma and a five dollar cheque were given to the section. We are pleased to make a note of this and congratulate the ratpayers and teacher of No. 9 for receiving the first Diploma and we believe the only one in South Grey. We hope to hear of others doing likewise.

THE Annual Meeting of the South Grey Teachers' Institute will be held in Hanover on Thursday and Friday, Oct. 5th and 6th.
