Lines on the Death of a Loving Brother
who fell asleep in Jesus.

John McArthur, son of D. K. and Annie McArthur, Hopeville.

We mourn o'er the loss of our dear one,
We grieve when we think of the past;
Dear John, no more we behold thee,
Our joys were too sweet to last.

Oh, yes, we miss thee our dear one,
At morn, at eve, and at noon;
Thou wert snatched like the dew in the morning
And hurried away to the tomb.

Like the bud, scarcely burst into beauty
When nipped by the cold frosty breath;
For John, thou wert called on to leave us,
We know thou art gone with the best.

When unto him affliction came,
With patience he did bear the same;
We all with tears did crowd around,
But not a frown in him was found.

Some Christian friends came to him to see,
He asked if they with him would pray;
How precious was in one so young
The love of God, it was so strong.

'Twas half past one at the break of morn,
His spirit took its flight away;
The Angels then did hover round,
Another Angel they had found.

Although from us we miss him dear,
How little time we will live here;
Why should we weep and mourn a friend
That came to such a glorious end?

And now that vacant room is left,
We miss him now in every place;
We miss him now in every place,
We miss him now in every place.

He now lies in that cold cold clay,
We feel his loss more every day;
On earth no more we'll see that face,
Till we meet him at the throne of grace.

But John, we long soon to see thee,
We know when we think of the past;
That Jesus will guard and watch o'er us,
Till we meet in Heaven at last.

We know not the day nor the hour,
When called on to give up our task;
But Oh, let us die as thou didst,
Through Jesus who died on the cross.

May God prepare us all to die,
To meet our dear ones up on high;
A happy meeting then will be,
When we our dear one there will see.

And parents, in Jesus keep trusting,
And think of the hour at last;
When Jesus will stand at the brook,
And give you His hand as you pass.

Cease then! Oh cease all your mourning,
For God, the giver of all,
Has only claimed what he had in us,
And must we not all have a call?

—A FRIEND.

TOP CLIFF.

Threshing is the general order at the present time. The McLean Bros., are on this line for the last couple of weeks, while John Black and his set of men take the lead on the Gravel Road. Horsepowers are almost a thing of the past but nevertheless Jim McDougall and Bob Fisher will get their share while threshing lasts. Grain turns out well with the exception of fall wheat which in general is only a half crop.

A severe accident happened to Mrs. Patrick Sullivan of this place on Saturday last. While she was in the barn doing something, she fell on to the barn floor, breaking her arm between the wrist and the elbow. The broken limb was set by Dr. Hutton, but in the meantime she suffers severe pain, and will for a few days. We sympathize with Mrs. Sullivan in her troubles and hope that in a few days she will have the use of her arm as well as ever.

Mr. Hugh McDonald, who had a severe attack of inflammation of the bowels lately is able to be about again. He was treated by Dr. Boyle. This is the second attack Mr. McDonald had of inflammation this summer.

Miss McLeod, of Michigan, visited at her uncle's Mr. A. McQuaig of this place, for a few days last week.

Miss Jane McPhail is laid aside for the last few weeks with a sprained wrist.

We wonder who owned the dogs who suffered the severe penalty of being shot on Saturday last near our residence. The dogs were cornering up sheep when they received the fatal shot; one a spaniel and the other a collie.

Another young daughter at Mr. Jim McDougall's on Friday of last week.

Mr. Donald McMillan, Ex-Councillor, attended the Exhibition at Toronto.

Misses Maggie McLean and Kate McDonald left for Toronto last Friday morning to remain there for some time.

Dr. Hugh McNeil, of Chicago, erected a fine monument to the memory of his father, the late Alex. McNeil. The Dr., during his stay here, was at his cousins' the Messrs. McLean of Proton.

Gaelic Communion in the Presbyterian Church, Priceville, on the 1st Sunday of October.

Mr. Neil McMillan, of Swinton Park was the guest of Mr. N. McCannel a few days ago.

John McKinnon will be moving to his new brick residence this week he speaks in high praises of the workmanship done by the contractors Watson, of Priceville, mason, and Watson of Fairwell, carpenter, and of the material, brick from Proton brickyard, and furnishings from Messrs. McKechnie of Durham.

Mrs. Baset, of the Soo, daughter of the late Wm. Williams, visited at her uncle's, Robert Fisher for a week and she is now with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Williams, of Edgehill.

Mr. Bradley, organizer A.O.U.W., is expected to visit Priceville Lodge soon. We hope a good attendance will be present on the occasion. Bro. Bradley will remain for a few days in the interest of the Lodge and we have no doubt but what good progress will be the result of his visit.

We had heavy frost on 14th and 15th, inst., and the woods are indicating signs of approaching winter already.

Hanover Exhibition.

The Hanover Fair was held on Thursday and Friday last. The weather couldn't of been better, and everything was favorable for a good show. Being our first visit to the Exhibition there we can make no comparison with those of former years, but some of the old timers say it was behind both in attendance and exhibits. There seemed to be a good crowd on the grounds, however, and some of the departments were well up, particularly the poultry and sheep. There were some good exhibits in grains and roots, but the fancy work department was considered low former years, the chief cause assigned being the danger of having goods damaged from dust owing to the hall not being properly fitted up. One thing we must say that a more orderly gathering we have seldom witnessed, nothing having occurred to mar the harmony of the day except a little "tiff" that occurred over the Bicycle races, which were keenly contested by Wendorf of Hanover and Silver of Walkerton. The boys themselves seemed happy and agreeable though their friends were a little hot for a time. Silver gained the first race but had to take second place in 2nd and 3rd heats. The Horse races seemed to be the drawing card. In the Open Trot, the first prize was taken by Tiny Clock second by Black Thorn, and the third by Brown Richmond, the best time being 2 min. 21 1/2 sec. The 2-40 race was won by Billy Morgan, Sea Pearl and Billy A. taking second and third money respectively. Up to the time of going to press we are unable to get the prize list.

STORY OF A SLAVE.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich. tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by Local Druggists.

Delicate Children

They do not complain of anything in particular. They eat enough, but keep thin and pale. They appear fairly well, but have no strength. You cannot say they are really sick, and so you call them delicate.

What can be done for them? Our answer is the same that the best physicians have been giving for a quarter of a century. Give them Scott's Emulsion of Cod-Liver Oil with Hypophosphites. It has most remarkable nourishing power. It gives color to the blood. It brings strength to the muscles. It adds power to the nerves. It means robust health and vigor. Even delicate infants rapidly gain in flesh if given a small amount three or four times each day.

He intends sowing fifty acres of fall wheat this season—Ayon Advance.

Mr. McIntyre intends to put up a fine double store at the corner of Garafraxa and Lambton Streets in the early spring. What a pity the Rev. Mr. Stewart will neither sell the opposite corner, nor improve it himself. We understand a very liberal offer has been refused to the detriment of the town as the prospective purchaser would have improved the place by the erection of a large block if the deal had gone through.

This together with other fixings added during the last year, gives Durham a thoroughly up-to-date barber shop, equal to most superior to many of the city shops.

The crowded condition of our columns compels us to omit some correspondence this week, but we feel sure our generous contributors will excuse us this time. The prize list is responsible.

Mr. Andrew Schenk one of the most extensive farmers in this section has fall wheat six inches above ground. He is a thorough advocate of early sowing and says it produces him the best results in all varieties of grain. This season Mr. Schenk has mowed away over three hundred loads of grain. He intends sowing fifty acres of fall wheat this season—Ayon Advance.

Mr. McIntyre intends to put up a fine double store at the corner of Garafraxa and Lambton Streets in the early spring. What a pity the Rev. Mr. Stewart will neither sell the opposite corner, nor improve it himself. We understand a very liberal offer has been refused to the detriment of the town as the prospective purchaser would have improved the place by the erection of a large block if the deal had gone through.

MISS CULBERTSON'S Millinery Opening is to take place on Friday and Saturday of this week when she hopes to have a cull from her numerous customers and all others who are interested in up-to-date Millinery. Miss Culbertson's stock this year is complete in every department, the largest she has ever exhibited and has been selected with the greatest care. Call and see it whether you wish to purchase or not. It is pleasure to show good goods. Remember the dates Sept. 29 and 30th.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Swallow whom we announced last week having entered the matrimonial state in Toronto returned home by night train Wednesday and of course had to undergo the ordeal of receiving congratulations. But to be married wasn't the only thing that Tom went to the city for, and Thursday afternoon had placed in shop three handsome new chairs, his own convenience and the comfort of his customers. The purchase price of the three chairs was $111.87 each. This together with other fixings added during the last year, gives Durham a thoroughly up-to-date barber shop, equal to most superior to many of the city shops.
