To this she made no answer-indeed, he scarcely seemed to expect one-and over her, tall and fair, stood Sir Mark, events." like some ancient knight guarding a wpell.

"Good-bye, Katherine," he said. "good-bye-so soon!"

but the words appeared to freeze on her lips; speech and thought seemed alike to have deserted her; she could only remember clearly that Blackwood was gone, that Mark was going, and that all the world beyond was a blank to her forevermore; while the same dark sense of lingering evil that had haunted her all the morning fell upon her heart once more threatening to stifle her with its vague, dull pain. She felt her senses leaving her, when Sir Mark's voice brought her back again to a slight remembrance of the pre-

"Katherine, Katherine," he cried, bitter pain and disappointment mingled in his tones, "you are silent! "My darling!" cried the warm-diplomatist went on, valiantly, resolv- is a long story, but in a week A had in excellent health. Whenever Ifeel had; but an instant later her head face. drooped upon his shoulder, while her form grew heavy in his arms, and he

CHAPTER VI.

"Tyne Royal, Oct. 10, 18-. "Dearest Harry-Are you angry with me because I never answered your long, kind letters? Well, I could not; that is my only excuse. And you will, I know, forgive me. I am very lonely here, and—and a little frightened. Will should have been so grateful that the you come to me? Tell Charlie, I will child should come under the denominanot keep you long-only a very little time-if he will just spare you to me for awhile. Give him and the children my love, and ever believe me your own you." "Charlie," cried Mrs. Charteris, from our Katherine."

"You must go to her at once, Har- children?"

was finished; "she is evidently dying while; though, really, my dear, behad more than $100,000 on deposit in

An eloquent silence ensued. "No I never did," replied Charlie, the laugh, very good to hear.

is; "that never occurred to me! I consciously. hope you are right; you generally are, "I don't fancy it is doing me any indeed. Why, it would be the very harm, nurse," Katherine declared, very er brother, James Brooks, in the livery best thing that could happen—eh. don't meekly; "indeed, I feel considerably business at Sacramento, Cal., at a this moment, and give some directions | Well Heaven knows where 'twill end; | geles, Cal. Bits of the story he told | children are to get on during my of havin' slain a human creetur." You really must promise me, Charlie, truder she stalked from the room. while I am away, and keep the boys night.

out of mischief, as I cannot depend upon a single servant in the place, and if Tinsley once gets into your laboratory he will undoubtedly blow himself ally defeated, and Lady Warrenne was a dead silence that lasted for several ius for experimentalizing," returned itively beautiful-in fact, the most minutes fell upon them both. Lady Tinsley's father, with a smile that ex-Warrenne, sitting there in a huge pressed the highest pride in his first crimson chair, her tiny figure half born's predilections "But you may be so its mamma said, and of course nohidden in the velvet cushions, might happy in your mind: I promise he shall body-not even Mrs. Ruskin, that most have been mistaken for a marble sta- not soil so much as the tips of his formidable personage-was rude entue robed, so motionless she sat; while fingers-in my apartments, at all ough to contradict her.

"That's a dear boy," said his wife, sleeping fairy. Presently he broke the pleasantly, running out of the room to make preparations for her journey. She was a woman who always enter-"Good-bye," rising from among the ed with her whole heart into any matcushions and looking half frightened; ter, however small, she had in hand, never letting "the grass grow under "Yes, it is better so." He had con- her feet," and so the next evening, ceived the idea, poor fellow, that he rather late, saw her alighting at the was more or less of a nuisance to his hall door of Katherine's new residence, own wife, and though very loath to as fresh and charming as though railpart with what he loved so well, still way journeys and the fatigues accomhe could not endure the thought that panying them were of no consequence me now, as I have business that will it. It was not so large, perhaps, as the ters dispatched to Charteris Park. take me to town early to-morrow morn- latter residence, but was quite as beauing. You can start for Tyne Royal tifully kept up. Still she had little

-and-think of me sometimes, Kath- This austere individual waited in on her knee.

"Beautiful, ma'am, beauitful. You needn't be nervous," replied the Lady of the Bed-chamber, with an obvious sniff, and at the very tip-top of her most energetic voice, as though determined to ignore Mrs. Charteris' attempt at quietness. "Follow me, mum"-heading the way into an ad-

You do not even wish me God-speed! hearted Harriet Charteris with a sob ed at all hazards to gain her point my claim staked out and recorded and the slightest symptom of the trouble Oh, darling, have you forgotten that of intense emotion running over and now that she had at last found oppor-I, too, love you with all my heart kneeling down by her side while tunity for braoching the forbidden gold. I got $3 a pan for the first hour, feel as well as ever. I feel that Iowe ware that something was due to the been told of his existence. Now, is gold. With that I bought pine logs Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure by Katherine went up to him as in a other small inmate of the chamber; that right?—is it kind? Putting ev- and lumber and built a cabin, which going to the root of the disease. They dream, and putting her arms round so she pushed back the pink flannel to ery other consideration aside, how can cost me about $1,700, and which would renew and build up the blood, and gaze at the wee face it contained and you be so selfish as to keep that beau- be dear at $60 anywhere in Wayne strengthen the nerves, thus driving "Good-bye, my love, good-bye!" he was immediately lost in admiration of tiful boy all to yourself, when you county. But, oh, whispered, hoarsely, pressing his lips the tiny wrinkled features that look- know Mark would be so proud of him, to hers, and holding her close to as ed like nothing in all the world so his dear little son?" loyal and true a heart as ever man much as a quaint India-rubber painted

"When was it?" she asked.

"The very day I wrote to you," carried her up to her own room insen- Katherine answered, a proud happy smile lighting up her small face; "so my darling is just three days old"passing fond, loving fingers over the unconscious baby forehead.

"A boy?" Harriet asked, again peer-

"Yes, a boy!" Lady Warrenne responded gratefully, though why she springing to her feet, "this letter is door, who seemed anxious to carry me with the 'blues.' Warrenne had no tween those wretched servants and right to send her to such an isolated Charlie's laboratory, I have small hope the Crocker-Woolsworth Bank besides to get back here again for a few days' spot, as I conclude this Tyne Royal of seeing them alive again; in fact, my about 270 pounds of gold dust, and he visit. must be, no matter how much she may life is a burden to me." And Harriet owned two rich placer mines on Eldorhave wished it. Could you not manage smiled as brightly as though labora- ado Creek in the Klondike region. ry? Poor little soul, without a friend antest things in all the world. "Whatto speak to, no wonder she feels lone- ever you do, Katherine, never let that wealth carefully during the year that age. darling baby-bless him! so much as he has been on the Pacific coast. He "You fancy it is loneliness," said look at anything that explodes, or he owns Harriet slowly: "I do not. Charlie did will get a taste for it and worry you into your grave."

Katherine laughed—a low, glad lit- on Larkin street, San Francisco, that quite slowly; a new light breaking in "It is so sweet to have you near

"Well, I did," went on his wife, ladyship into a raging fever, mum,

Both ladies started. Harriet rather

With which parting shot at the into give up your insects and nonsense Mrs. Charteris talked no more that

CHAPTER VII.

Nearly the whole of the stipulated month passed away pleasantly and swiftly enough, enlivened by daily skirmishes with Mrs Ruskin-the belligerent-in which Harriet always came off victorious, to the former's intense disgust, until at length she was finlooking quite strong and handsome family together, until two years later, "He certainly has a wonderful gen- again, while the baby had grown posbeautiful baby in all the world-and knew its mamma perfectly. At least

That Lady Warrenne was happy in her new-found treasure there could be ing department of his factory in Rochlittle doubt. With the little one in ester, but I was too ignorant to read her arms she was a picture of mingled writing well, and I made so many pride and irtense gratification; yet blunders that I there were times, nevertheless when her eyes resumed their old, restless, unsatisfied expression, and when she dreaming for an hour together of farorer and semi-tramp. I went through a few years ago be well known fact the would sit before the blazing fire went on, a faint tremor pervading his and altogether remarkable-looking pering with wistful eyes into the leaping fore knew so hard or cruel a life. I denly attacked with the most terrille seriously contemplated suicide. There pains in my limbs and have went on, a faint tremor pervading his and altogether remarkable-looking pervoice in spite of all his manliness. "So son, with an eye that would have cowed fire, when she was startled by the was no gold there to be got and I relief in doctors and then is sought fair face. "Why, you are dreaming, as the Klondike. He showed speci- proaching. My heart was effected and Harriet! What can I possibly have mens and said he himself had seen Joe indeed I was almost in despair, when to wish for? I want nothing." And Ladue get a pound of gold there in ken fortunately a friend of our family reand soul? I am going away, now, per- Katherine could only throw her soit topic. "Why, Katherine, consider, and at bedrock, some thirteen feet be- my health to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills haps I shall never see you again; have white arm around her friend's neck my dear; what are you thinking of? low, I got $8 and sometimes $10 a and never lose an opportunity of refore I leave, you will kiss me once Presently Mrs. Charteris became a- and his own father has never even "In two weeks I had five pounds of as I was.

To be Continued.

LAWRENCE E. BROOKS'S RISE FROM POVERTY TO WEALTH.

Gained His Gold in the Klondike. After paying a brief visit to his fortion of a "son and heir," Harriet could mer home and birthplace in Savannah, ounce or $156 a pound. not conceive, unless indeed she fanci- N.Y., Lawrence E. Brooks has just reed that somebody else might be so. turned to Dawson City in the Klondike me before," Mrs. Charteris, said, lov- gold country. Mr. Brooks is popular-"P. S.—Oh, Harry, do come! I want ingly. "I am really angry with you by supposed to be worth upward of and horribly jealous of that formid- $300,000, Four years ago he was a able dragon I met just outside your laborer in a vineyard at Fresno, Cal., rom our Katherine."

off at once to the lockup, and who, I

"Nonsense!" exclaimed Charlie, feelam sure, would have killed you had tramped from San Francisco to Porting scarcely less excited, and entirely forgetting, in his enthusiasm, the well, now I am here I have decided that I shall stay with you fer a month in same rancisco to rortland, or and sold it in January, 1898, for $22,000 that I shall stay with you fer a month in same rancisco to rortland, and sold it in January, 1898, for $22,000 that I shall stay with you fer a month in same rancisco to rortland, and sold it in January, 1898, for $22,000 that I shall stay with you fer a month in same rancisco to rortland, and sold it in January, 1898, for $22,000 that I shall stay with you fer a month in same rancisco to rortland, and sold it in January, 1898, for $22,000 that I shall stay with you fer a month in same rancisco to rortland, and sold it in January, 1898, for $45, that I shall stay with you fer a month in same rancisco to rortland, and sold it in January, 1898, for $45, that I shall stay with you fer a month in same rancisco to rortland, and sold it in January, 1898, for $45, that I shall stay with you fer a month in same rancisco to rortland, and sold it in January, 1898, for $45, that I shall stay with you fer a month in same rancisco to rortland, and sold it in January, 1898, for $45, that I shall stay with you fer a month in same rancisco to rortland, and sold it in January, 1898, for $45, that I shall stay with you fer a month in same rancisco to rortland, and sold it in January, 1898, for $45, that I shall stay with you fer a month in same rancisco to rortland, and sold it in January, 1898, for $45, that I shall stay with you fer a month in same rancisco to rortland, and sold it in January, 1898, for $45, that I shall stay with you fer a month in same rancisco to rortland, and sold it in January, 1898, for $45, that I shall stay with you fer a month in same rancisco to rortland, and sold it in January, 1898, for $45, that I shall stay with you fer a month in same rancisco to rortland, and sold it in January, 1898, for $45, that I shall stay with you fer a month in same rancisco to rortland in same rancis "sweet thing," in cockchafers he had until you are perfectly strong and he shoveled malt in S. K. Nester's gold from it. received by the morning's post. "You able to defv her; so I constitute my-"Ah, yes, indeed, thank goodness, self your chief nurse in ordinary, with latter he was working at bottoming had one offer of $75,000 for my Eldor-poor physician was a collector of state." poor dear child! Listen to what she "Will you really stay with me for" all due respect to your "old soldier.'" out the Erie Canal. He went to the ado claim, but I want $120,000 for it. tistics or knew just what the conditional conditions are considered. "Will you really stay with me for Sukon River diggings from San Fran- What am I going to do then? I shall tion of the city was. Another person to your old soldier."

Yukon River diggings from San Fran- What am I going to do then? I shall tion of the city was. Another person to your old soldier." And Mrs. Charteris read the letter so long?" Katherine exclaimed de-through once more for her husband's lightedly. "Oh, how good of you! But cisco in March, 1896. He had $140, Charlie—what will he say, and the pinching account had been saved by in San Francisco and be a blood, as vaccinated?" and probably some estimated and probably some estima ry," Mr. Charteris decided, when it was finished: "she is evidently dving while; though, really, my dear, here was finished: "she is evidently dving while; though, really, my dear, here was finished: "San Francisco in September, 1898, and education as mine is. Yes, I shall rethat she does not believe in vaccinations." pinching economy. He returned to well as one may with so limited an pecially scintillating member will say upon his hitherto darkened mind, and me," she said, caressing Harry's soft, from amount to about $9,000 a year. totally forgetful of all those abstruse round, pretty cheek with her fragile Besides, he has a half interest in an ostrich farm at Pasadena, Cal., that triumphantly, "and now I am sure of you will stop talkin'," broke in a $18,000 or $20,000, and he recently is generally supposed to have cost him bought a block of stock in the Los Angeles, Cal., traction railway for lose a moment; I firmly, believe that "Oh, I dare say," said the veteran, everything will come all right in the with a withering glance at Mrs. Charcost of $10,000 or $12,000. To his moth- your tongue. "I will go and pack up a few things your cheeks all flushed, pore dear! several small investments at Los Anof his extraordinary rise from poverty to riches are entertaining. "I was born in Savannah, N.Y.," said it? Mr. Brooks. "That was in 1863. My father was a laborer on the New York Central tracks and later was watchman at the New York Central bridge over the long Montezuma marshes and the Seneca River just east of Savannah. There were seven of us children and four were older than I. We were very poor, lived in a shanty and ate but the commonest, cheapest food. Mother died of typhoid fever when I was 10 years old and father held the when we had to get out and earn our own livelihood. I went to Syracuse and lived with my mother's sister, Mrs. Flaherty, while I sold newspapers and got a job in a livery stable at Auburn McDonell, of the Grand Union Ho blacked boots for my living. Then I near Savannah. The late A. T. Soule McDonell is in the enjoyment of person of the ship-Alexandria. At the present time W him for the first time could not ima that a man with the healthy energetic manner of Mr.

RAN AWAY TO PALMYRA. Then I worked as boy for the Cuylers, more vicissitudes in seven years than of the most excruciating pains of the matism. Knowing these for the matism. These signs and tokens of a "mind" most men do in a lifetime. But I matism. Knowing these facts a New saved. worked and pinched. I took reporter called on Mr. Man. were all carefully noted and marked saved, worked and pinched. I took reporter called on Mr. McDonell in down in her busy brain by Mrs. Char- care of a team of horses sent from the purpose of elicting fuller particular.

Buffalo to Oakland, Cal., and thereby ars. Without hesitation by his presence was distasteful to her! whatever.

"I will arrange everything for you, Tyne Royal, as she entered it, seemed ly exulted over by that unfeeling continent. In California I was a dish this present sound state of health the use of Dr. Williams Distance of the use of Dr. Williams Dr. Will down in her busy brain by Mrs. Char-teris, and, oddly enough, were secret-got a ride in a freight car across the his present sound state. Katherine, so do not put yourself to almost as fine a house as Warrenne young woman in the privacy of her washer, window washer, street paver. Type Royal, as she entered it, seemed young woman in the privacy of her washer, window washer, street paver. Pale People. "I am" and her no many part and her no many part washer, window washer, street paver. any trouble; but if you have any parHall, and by no means gloomy, as both own apartment, besides being frewasher, window washer, street paver, Pale People. "I am" said be a subject of numerous letstreet car driver and stableman. I years of age, but three years. quently the subject of numerous let- street car driver and stableman. I years of age, but three years agolds saved about $200 in four years. Hear- not expect to live this long. At it So things went on until Harry's ing that big money could be made in time I was connected with the Com the day after that, or the next day, time to institute comparisons as she Lady Warrenne were sitting one Alaska, I went there in the spring of was to drive the busses to and from the land as part of my duties. It would take a big book to tell the C. A. R. station I leave had almost expired, and she and digging gold on the Yukon River in mercial here and as part of my duties unless,"—dropping his voice— "you followed the ancient butler up the morning in the nursery, the baby all about our sufferings from hunger, all kinds of weather and all ki would prefer remaining here until afwould prefer remaining here until afbroad staircase to the upper corridor, slumbering peacefully in its little cot
all about our sufferings from hunger, all kinds of weather and subjected the sudden extremes of houseter the funeral." Katherine shivered. "I where she was met by an under houseclose by. Katherine had fallen into City for three months, and I never be. Along in the conduction of heat and think that is all I have to say," he maid and a large, red-faced, muscular, one of her absent moods, and sat gazfore knew so hard or cruei a life. I denly attacked with the > excited the 400 miners in Circle City ing constantly the most excruciating "Want!" Lady Warrenne repeated, by telling them of the finding of gold pains. My hands and feet swelled asked in a low, hushed tone, as though a conscious flush overspreading her in great quantities on a creek known and I was positive the end was ap she glanced with nervous fondness to- hours. Well, all Circle City went commended the use of Dr. Williams' crazy that night. Very few even Pink Pills. I began using them in May "Yes, you do," returned Harry, slept. Sick as I was, I joined the first 1896, and had taken three boxes bebravely; "you want Mark; you want party of forty men who went on the fore I noticed any change, but from the best fellow that ever breathed; you little steamer Weare down the Yukon that time every dose counted. The to what is now Dawson. It was cold blood seemed to thrill through my joining apartment where, amidst a ladyship, excitedly, bursting into we that we paid no attention to that. the fifth box every trace of the distance of the di "Oh, no, no!" cried her poor little and bleak, but so gold hungry were veins, and by the time I had finished tears, and throwing her arms around An Innuit, a native Indian, showed me ease had vanished. Ever since then! where I could make a claim to a plac- have been working hard and frequent

THE COLD THAT FIRST WINTER! For days the mercury ranged from 30 to more than 60 degrees below zero. For two months we had only three hours of a blurred sunshine in each twenty four hours. If we had not will be sent postpaid at 50 cents abox, been making more than $1,000 a week, we should have died from melancholy the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brock and horrible food. Think of candles at $1 each; ancient codfish at 75 cents a pound; coffee, years old, at $1.50 a ing down mysteriously into the preci- Four Years Age a Labourer in a Vineyard $50 each. I bought a pickaxe for $35, at $1.50 a Day and Now Worth Upward and had to tease to buy it. But we of $300,000-Sufferings by Which He got gold, and when June came at last and when we began the annual sluicing I found I had more than 200 pounds noyances, but probably the medical avoirdupois of gold. It was $16 an

"I sent all the gold to the San Fran- mysteries attached to the human body cisco Mint by the Alaska Commercial is more subjected to foolish and silly Company and went to work for a second year of gold mining. It almost killed me, but I cleared more than 420 pounds of gold from July, 1897, to in seeing cases, and, as a recreation, July 1898, and that paid for a whole he may drop in socially to see a friend, lot of pain and blues and danger. I or attend a dinner of some other so "I shall mine in the Klondike two the company will ask, "Doctor, is then years more and then shall quit. I have much sickness in the city " as if the travel all over the world until I get will call across the table or room, dead tired of it, and then I shall pettle "Doctor, do you think I ought to be turn to my birthplace quite often. tion, which of course, settles matters You can't imagine how good it seems at once.

not yet 36. He dresses simply. In to nothing between persons of un-He has invested his suddenly gotten wealth carefully during the most that his hotel, a valet and a stylish equiptemptation always to talk "shop," estimated the most in the "shop." California he has the best rooms at equal mental attainments. There is a mony severely on that fellow's testi- should be called on to give an opinion Yes, and nailed a lie.

ON THE HEAD.

PENNILESS.

Do you think he married her for what she is worth. Goodness, no! Her face is her fortune.

HIS HOPE.

The physician-You have a coat on The Colonel-I sincerely hope it is a mackintosh.

POOR GAME.

Skinner Bill-Yes, detectives was after me quite a w'ile on dat job. Knocker Jake-How'd you square Didn't square it. Spent all me money 'fore dey ketched up wit' me.

Exeruciating Palms

THE VICTIM A WELL-KNOWN AND POPULAR HOTEL CLERK

After Other Medicines Failed lie Cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Every Dose Counted in the Re

From the News, Alexandria, Ont. There is no more popular hotel cley in Eastern Ontario than Mr. Pet could ever have felt a symptom of di ease. There is a story, however, connection with the splendid degreed "From the time I was twenty until I health attained by him that is work off scenes to the total forgetfulness orer and semi-tramp. I went through a few years ago he was the ries touch of Harry's hand laid gently up- was no gold there to be got and I relief in doctors and then in patent Lady Warrenne strove hard to speak, attitude for Mrs. Charteris' first re

"why do you not say at once what excited the 400 miners in Circle City ing constantly the most medicines, but all to no purpose; noth-> commending them to others suffering disease from the system. Avoid imitations by insisting that every bor you purchase is enclosed in a wrapper bearing the full trade mark, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. If your dealer does not keep them ther or six boxes for $2.50 by addressing USELESS QUESTIONS. They Are the Bane of the l'atient and Long-Suffering Boctor Man.

Every profession has its petty anprofession, above all others, from the questions. A physician may spend the day, indeed much of the 24 hours,

The wise physician will keep quiet at such times and not let himself in-Brooks looks like a man of 45, but is to a wild discussion, which can lead pecially by those not in the "shop. The lawyer is asked his opinion in the parlor; the physician is consulted on the street corner. Such advice is worth usually just what it costs the person The Judge brought his hammer asking it, namely, nothing. No man for no remuneration when such an opinion may have cost not only time and money, but when it may, in 3 measure, involve the reputation of the person giving it.

If the public is to be instructed at all it should certainly be taught not to force any man to "talk shop," morning, noon and night.

NO DOUBT OF IT. Policeman-Who bunged up your eye that way? Irishman-Moike O'Lafferty. Policeman-Was there an eyewitness ? Irishman-Indade there was.

Policeman-Who was it? Irishman-Moike O'Lafferty.
Policeman-I mean, was there any body else present? Irishman-Indade there was Policeman-Who? Irishman-Myself, bedad.

RHYSICAL AND MENTAL QUALITIES OF THE HELLENIC RACE.

Distinguished by Many Acts of Heroism-Proverbially Domestic Instinct—Punishment for Infraction of Virtue.

The foremost place among the varius Christian nationalities cannot but be assigned to the Greeks on account of their intellectual superiority. Physically, as well as mentally, the Greek Mr. J women of to-day exhibit the character- ed he is ic traits of their Hellenic ancestry, and types of almost classical purity the dr are constantly to be met with, not only and o the free Hellas, but also in parts of For t the Ottoman Empire. In certain localities, and more particularly in Ma- fully cedonia, the Greek type has no doubt Nom much deteriorated from admixture with Slav and other foreign elements. Is do It has, however, remained almost per- he ne feet in many of the islands, and some Kidne of the finest specimens of the race are to be found in Asia Minor, not on the they seaboard alone, but in many towns and thousa villages of the interior. The heroism which the long struggle

Greek men was shared by their moth- he n ers, their sisters, and their daughters, The domestic history of these troubled the pr times is faithfully and graphically re- ful at corded in the folk songs of this suffer- Kidne ing people, and to these spontaneous by G outburst of untutored feeling we must I am turn to hear how the wife of the Kle- have pht chieftain waited with great im- Kidne patience for news of him, or lamented withou him as dead; was carried captive to the harem of the Turkish General, or, rather than submit to such a fate, precipitated herself and her child over some precipice. During the protract- on ma ed cage of Missolonghi the women and the pa girls aided the defenders by bringing the de materials of every description to stop the p breaches made by the Turkish artil- and r lery. One of the surviving heroines and r of this famous siege, who died in Athens some 60 years later, expressed on of the her deathbed a wish to be buried in the their pallikar's dress which she had worn benedi during the war and had ever since treasured in secret. The Greek poet servan Kostas Palamas has made this incident gone the subject of a long poem, in which pultur he describes how Captain Philio's as one daughter donned at her father's com- chante mand the full white kilt, braided vest and he and jacket and felt capote, and stood and si in the breach at his side, pistol in hand, the bu while he directed his cannon at the as thi enemy. Her father slain, she had es- presen caped in one of the many sorties with Their the assistance of a comrade, who afterward became her husband. Nor was the outbreak on Pelion in ing in 1878 without its heroines. The daugh- comfor ters and sisters of the patriots not directi only braved the whizzing rifle bullets and the risk of capture to carry food and water to their relatives in the intrenchments, but, as one of their ease, own folk-songs records, would them- and he seives on occasions, "bravely fight and young gladly strive for Freedom." The name band of one girl, Marighitza, a native of the instea village of Makrinitza, on the hills a rule above Volo, now Greek territory, was carried more especially mentioned for intrepi- morse dity, and when the insurrection was over she was sent for to Athens to be presented to the King and Queen

FETED BY THE INHABITANTS. A far more sensational story, how- es. ever, is that of a woman named Per- and a istera, "The Pigeon," who was an actual combatant in the rebellion, dur- wooler ing which her brother met his death. fashio On the occasion of hostilities this wo- the de man joined a band of brigands and be- their came their leader under the name of dyers, Vanghelli, to which her followers add- being ed the sobriquet of Spano, "The too, fi Beardless." After pursuing the call- the de ing of Klepht for some two years with- it with out her sex being discovered she final- allow ly gave in her submission to the au- of sor thorities, was pardoned and became a a con domestic servant in the household of their the Bishop of Kodjani. A photograph their taken at the time represents her in widow full Klepht costume-sword, pistols retain and yataghan at waist, gun in hand For it and suspended round her neck the in- does r signia of chieftianship, a large silver ond ti disk bearing in relief a representation who of the Greek patron Saint George in opinio his conflict with the Dragon.

Such heroic qualities, however, are of her only brought to the surface by exceptional circumstances, for the virtues of the Greek women generally are essen- A hu tially domestic. The more remote the community and one da the more isolated from contact with is that the outer world, the more rigid generally is found to be the code of social falls in morals. In the mountain villages of partice With female misconduct is visited far ov with the severest penalties, and even rough so late as the beginning of this cenwas punishable with death, spot, l Whenever a married woman was suspected even of faithlessness, or a single one of frailty, her hours were numbered, and her end was so tragical, so shocking to all the feelings of natural affection, and even to the ordinary notions of humanity, that one can hardly believe such a practice to have been observed on the very confines of civilized Europe, and in the nineteenth century, by any Christian people. Her nearest relations were at once her accusers, her judges, and

HER EXECUTIONERS. There are still to be found considerable remains of patriarchal customs even among the wealthy and educated classes. One of these is that the sons

John

for independence called forth in the Disord

Pagan assura of blis 'herbs

brothe

mauso

of Ha