Latona Pie Social.

A successful pie social was held Friday evening last at what is known as Latona School near Dornoch. The teacher Mr. J. F. Grant conceived the idea of making some decorations and an entertainment was necessary to get the wherewith. The goodly attendance and co-operation of the people show high appreciation of the educational welfare of the children.

About eight o'clock the school was comfortably filled, and Mr. Wm. Johnston of Durham being called to the chair, the Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Hay have the programe was at once entered upon. After a few preliminary remarks in which the chairman declined making a lengthy speech owing the length of the programe the entertainment opened by a musical duet on the mouth organ by Messrs Simpson and McDonald. This was much appreciated as well as their other numbers given later in the evening.

and caused no serious impediment performance of the Pie Act. Ye Editor was called on, but didfi't say much. Dr. Smith, of Dornoch, made up the deficiency in a rattling good speech full of wit and wisdom. He rejoiced that teacher, parents and oupils were brought together harmoniously, and rejoiced also to have the Press represented. The School and the Press he considers the two greatest powers in the land and the moral influence exerted by these forces must be highly gratifying to every thinking man.

To sell and dispose of the pies was the next thing on the programme, and THE CHRONICLE man was asked to do the duty of Auctioneer. His regard for truth led him to prefer leaving the job to some one having all the qualifications and recommended Barrister Davidson as a fit and proper person. The choice proved a good one and the high prices received at ance popularized Mr3 Davidson as a first-class salesman. Highest price paid was $1,25. From the happy faces and favorable comments everything must have been good. Miss Ledingham's cake was cheap at any price and Miss Boyce's in this line. pie was A 1. This we know from actual test. The proceeds were over $21.00,
