THE CHRONICLE, DURHAM, Dec'r. 28th, 1899.

At the Conservative Convention held in Owen Sound on Wednesday of last week, Mr. Chas. Gordon, the present Warden of the County of Grey was made the unanimous choice of the party to contest the North Riding at the next election.

D. L. Moady, the great evangelist, died last Friday at East Northfield Mass. Had he lived till the 5th of February he would be 62 years of age.

The Town Council was elected by acclamation, a number of the nominees having withdrawn from the contest. There was some hot firing at the nomination to which we might refer, but as everything is quiet now a resurrection of the contention will do no good.

BISMARCK'S IRON NERVE. Was the result of his splendid health, indomitable will and tremendous energy are not found where Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels are out of order.

FLESHERTON. Proceeding their annual oyster supper the I. O. F. Court here, gave on Thursday evening last in the Town Hall, free to the public, one of the most pleasing entertainments that has for many moons been given in this place. The chair was ably filled by Mr. J. W. Frost, of Owen Sound, H. V. C. R. who in his opening address gave some interesting figures respecting the growth of the order. The program opened with a selection from the band and was afterward sustained in quartette, duett, solos and recitations by Mr. Tucker, Miss Rankin, Mrs. Sheppard, Mrs. Blackburn, Miss Joy, Mr. Sheppard, Miss Stafford and Miss Gerdrum.

On Wednesday evening of last week, a pleasant matrimonial event attended by about one hundred invited guests, took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Thistlethwaite, east of the village, when their only daughters, Misses Arabella and Nellie, were united in marriage respectively to Mr. Wm. Field, of this place, and Mr. W. G. Hacking, of Grenville Junction, Maine. Rev. Jos. Ward, E. D. of this place, performed the ceremony.

At the Artemesia Municipal Nomination, held here on Friday last, the old council, viz. John McArthur, reeve, and councillors, Alex. Muir, Thos. Kells, J. A. Boyd and Geo. Thompson, offered themselves for reelection and to these were added D. McFavish, of this place, who will again oppose Mr. McArthur for the reeveship, and Jos. Gibson, Samuel Thompson and Samuel Sheardow, ask for seats at the council table.

At the annual business meeting of the Methodist Sabbath School, held on Friday evening last, officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: Supt. W. H. Bunt; Assistant Supt. M. Richardson; Sec. Thos. Bulmer; Asst. Sec. Cora Bellamy; Treas. Thos. Clayton; Librarians, Thos. Clayton, W. A. Armstrong; Teachers, A. Wilson, W. Ritchie, Mrs. A. Wilson, Mrs. Jos. Clinton, Mrs. W. A. Armstrong, Mrs. Geo. Mitchell, Mrs. W. H. Fleisher, Mrs. W. H. Thurston, Mrs. S. Ranton, Miss Lou. Armstrong, Miss Rankin, Miss Zilla Trimble, Miss Carrie Rutledge, Miss Meredith. The school is active, preparing for their anniversary on New Year's evening.

Rev. L. W. Thom preached the anniversary sermon to the Presbyterian Sabbath School on Sunday afternoon last. The school gave a social evening in the church on Christmas evening, when refreshments were served, a short program rendered, and an enjoyable evening spent together.

The Public School here, closed the year's work with an At Home in the school on Friday afternoon last. An interesting program was rendered, after which refreshments were served to all present.

Mr. Alex. Reid's school east of the village held their annual closing entertainment in the school house on Friday evening last, when a pleasing program was rendered to a crowded house.

The Editor of the Dundalk Herald, Dr. Cunningham and Mr. J. D. Morgan, of the same place, attended the I. O. F. oyster supper on Thursday evening last.

Mr. Fred Sproule left last week to enter upon the study of law in Brandon, Man. Mr. S. A. Thompson, of — is visiting old friends in this place and vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Henderson are visiting their parental homes, in Toronto and Brighton. Mrs. T. J. Sheppard left last week for a few weeks' visit with her parents, at Toronto Junction.

That Cough Hangs On

You have used all sorts of cough remedies but it does not yield; it is too deep seated. It may wear itself out in time, but it is more liable to produce la grippe, pneumonia or a serious throat affection.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

will do this when everything else fails. There is no doubt about it. It nourishes, strengthens, builds up and makes the body strong and healthy, not only to throw off this hard cough, but to fortify the system against further attacks.

MRS. GRAY'S VISITOS.

If there is a time trying to house-keepers it is the period called spring-cleaning. Farmer Gray's wife was no exception—good, motherly soul that she was. She was up with the lark day after day, and gave little rest to those working under her supervision. But as paint which never showed signs of soil shone with new gloss and even the possibility of dust was removed from where no traces of dust could be found, her eyes brightened, and a happy thought would go flitting through her brain.
