Exchange Echoes.

News Items clipped from our Exchanges for Chronicle Readers.

Dr. Daniel Clark, brain specialist, of Toronto, was in the village on Friday, having been called to see Mr. S. H. Breesse. We are sorry to have to report that Dr. Clark holds out no hope of Mr. Breesse ever recovering his mental faculties.—Chatsworth Banner.

Rev. A. W. Tonge, of Plattsville, has commenced action against the township of Blenheim to recover damages for injuries sustained to himself and Mrs. Tonge while driving home from Galt last fall. His conveyance went over the side of an unprotected culvert, severely injuring occupants.—Arthur Enterprise

A serious runaway accident happened on the 4th con. of Bentinck early Monday morning, February 12th. John Schmitt and his sister were returning home from visiting a neighbor, when the horse ran away and Miss Schmitt was thrown on her head on the ice rendering her unconscious and causing concussion of the brain. She is now in a dangerous condition.—Post.

Mr. George R. Faskin, the weak minded son of Mr. William Faskin the G. T. B. station agent here, died at his father's home early on Saturday morning at the age of 26 years and 9 months. Deceased was an innocent, inoffensive young man, subject to epileptic fits during the last 22 years of his life and was a continual source of anxiety to his parents as at times he would wander from home without giving any notice. Death came as a great relief to the sorely afflicted young man and his anxious family.—Ayton Advance.

Chas Fawcett, a Dundalk resident, appeared before His Honor Judge Creason on Friday morning charged with assaulting with intent to do grievous bodily harm Mr. Morgan, a prominent citizen of the same place, and Liberal candidate for South Grey in the last provincial election. The two men became mixed in an altercation over the election and the compliments were finally exchanged. Mr. Morgan was liberally decorated as a result of the scuffle and swore out a warrant for his assailant's arrest. Fawcett was taken into custody, committed for trial by the justice of the peace, and brought to Owen Sound. He pleaded guilty to the charge and was remanded until Friday.—Owen Sound Times.

"The way of the transgressor is hard, and in one instance at least the Ontario Medical Association is endeavoring to make it harder. A few years ago a certain Dr. Shepard took up his residence at Kimberley, having come there from Mono Mills, near Orangeville. His practice at Kimberley did not prove to be sufficiently remunerative and he removed to Markdale where he was indulged in fast horses, etc. He was also interested in a hotel property in Durham which proved a disastrous speculation. For a couple of years little has been heard of him, but a couple of weeks ago light came as to his recent doings by announcement in the Toronto papers that he had been arrested for malpractice. In company with a man named Byers from near Newmarket he had formed a partnership and started a cancer sanitarium. A recent case which came under their hands developed pneumonia as a result it is alleged their treatment and the victim died. Both Shepard and Byers are now awaiting their trial for manslaughter, having been committed by Magistrate Denison.—Flesherton Advance.

PALE, WEAK GIRLS

Many a pale weak school girl, suffering the evil effects of an exhausted nervous system, and thin watery blood, has been fully restored to the vigor and buoyancy of robust health, by using Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food. The beautiful glow on the cheek and the brightness in the eye tell of the building up process which is taking place in the body.

THE DURHAM CHRONICLE came to hand last week enlarged and improved. The enlargement was very much required. Always a good local paper it is now doubly so.—Arthur Enterprise

We notice with pleasure the improvements recently made in THE DURHAM CHRONICLE. The paper has been enlarged from 40 columns to 56 columns, thus doing away with supplements that are expensive to the publisher and almost useless to the advertiser. Mr. Irwin deserves the approval of his patrons in making such a change in his paper. THE CHRONICLE will pass muster with credit when compared with any of the weeklies of the county of Grey.—Shelburne Free Press.

DORNOCH.

A very happy and pleasant event took place on the 14th inst, at the residence of Mr. Robert Wade, of Bentinck, when his eldest daughter Miss Maggie A., was united in marriage to Mr. John D. Ewen, of Regina, N. W. T. Rev. M. Graham performed the marriage service as the happy couple stood under an immense garland of evergreens and artificial roses. The short and impressive words and vows were spoken which linked the lines of the strong and stalwart groom and happy bride as one, Miss Lilly Wade very nicely performed the duties of bridesmaid, while a similar duty was performed the groom by Mr. M. G. McKinnon, a schoolmate and life long friend, of the groom. The bride was tastily dressed in white muslin trimmed with lace and ribbon, and wore a wreath of pink carnations and roses. The maid of honor looked handsome in a costume of blue cashmere with lace trimmings. After the ceremony a splendid repast was disposed of by over 70 guests, after which a happy evening was spent in various ways. Crokinole and numerous parlor games were indulged in by those of a sedate turn of mind while those of a more lively disposition kept time in treading the mazy dance only stopping for intermission when another excellent repast was served. The popularity of the bride and groom was fully exemplified by the numerous, costly and useful presents. We give the list:— From groom to bride, a fur coat; Mr. M. G.
