sent "Minded Beggar" by Master Elwood Genoe. Miss Annie Richardson, elocutionist, favoured the audience with two excellently rendered numbers. "The Charge of the Light Brigade" was given with good effect, and "The Song of the Camp" with piano accompaniment, elicited a hearty encore, which was acknowledged by Miss Richardson. A patriotic gramophone number by Mr. Richardson was heartily applauded. The program was brought to a close by an effective tableau "The Dying Soldier" surrounded by his comrades and attended by the Red Cross nurses. The ushers looked well in uniform, were very attentive, but unable to find even standing room for all who sought admittance. The proceeds were $111.80, and as expenses were light there will be $106.55 for the National Patriotic Fund. Mr. John Boyd kindly loaned his piano for the occasion, and Artemesia Council gave the hall free.

NO RIGHT TO UGLINESS.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney troubles, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidney, and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a cool looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at any Drug Store.

Robert Reaburn, son of Charles Reaburn of Shelburne, was caught in a shaft of a saw-mill at Terra Nova, and whirled round with such violence that he died from injuries received.

It gives a tonic to the form a tonic to the cheer of the pale and emaciated and new vigor to every motion of the body.

POMONA.

In last week's CHRONICLE Joe and his cheap assistant from their coffee fired, no doubt, what they considered a dum-dum bullet that would silence us until the bootjack had passed into oblivion for they attempted to answer as in a petulant, ill-natured and refut an intended harmless joke we made use of about a couple of valentines which were sent to two young men respectively who we always considered were fast friends of ours for many a joke we have had together. Were we mistaken about the friendship, and was it only like cheap whittens intended only to last for a time and then turn black. We were not mistaken about the valentines for they were sent, and we'll prove it to Joe & Co. say evening they wish to meet us on the hill. To be sure, Joe, we received a valentine, and we did not rush to town and country spreading the news by trying to refute it. Our valentine is still in our possession hale and hearty, and about as dead gone one woman as Joe is.

Stick to your fiddle and bow (bean), and you'll soon be able to master Little Annie Rooney and the Highland Laddie, and don't stand drinks or small potatoes for any assistance in giving us such good adds for "Native Herbs" for we feel quite able to write our own and pay for the same in the CHRONICLE'S rate and perusable columns.

I had a dream the other night, When everything was still, I dreamt I saw a bootjack, A stalling down the hill, It's step was short but stately, A snip was on its back, And now its safely housed up, Along with farmer Jack.

Mrs. S. George and Frank Black and R. McDonald were timbering for Charlie Ryan out at Ceylon last week.

Miss Nellie Neil, head nurse in St. Michael's Hospital Toronto, arrived in a visit last week.

Professor M. McLeod, Scottish Herbalist, who has been staying with a friend and countryman of his own, Mr. M. Campbell, recently gave a lecture in his native tongue in the Presbyterian church, Priceville. The subject, if we remember aright, being "The Dominion of Providence over the passion of men." As we did not hear the lecture nor could we understand it if it did we refrain from intruding further on a brother correspondent's territory. The Professor will, in all probability give a similar lecture or some other entertainment here before his departure for another field.

FOUL BREATH ... FROM CATARRH

Effects of the Decay of the Mucous Lining of the Nose and Throat...

No symptom of catarrh causes more annoyance than foul breath. This offensive odor comes from the ulceration of the membranes and is an indication of the decay which is taking place in the linings of the nose and throat. To the victim of catarrh as well as to his associates this foulness of the breath is disgusting.

To counteract bad breath and to eradicate catarrh from the system no treatment is more successful than Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure, the only remedy that can be relied upon to entirely cure chronic catarrh.

Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure is sent direct to the diseased parts by the improved blower which accompanies each box, heals the ulcers, clears the air passages, relieves the pressure which causes headache, stops the decay which causes foul breath, and absolutely cures catarrh and prevents consumption, age, a box, blower free, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Laidlaw's Old Stand, DURHAM, ONT.

FLESHERTON.
The people of Flesherton and vicinity gave unmistakable evidence of their loyalty and patriotism in the exceedingly liberal patronage and support given the Patriotic Concert held in the Town Hall here on Wednesday evening of last week. The hall, which was a picture with flags, bunting, etc., was literally packed with an enthusiastic audience, whose tokens of appreciation of the excellent program rendered, were of the most inspiring character. On account of the lengthy program encores were not to be allowed, but at the conclusion of the evening the pent up feelings of the audience gave way, and only a return would satisfy. Early comers, to secure seats, were entertained with fine selections by the I. O. F. Band, who also gave two taking numbers on the program. Dr. Christie gave a short appropriate address, and presided throughout in a very satisfactory and pleasing manner. Excellent addresses were given by Rev. Humphreys, of Priceville, Revs. Ward, Thom, Darroch and Mr. V. Richardson, of this place. Mr. Richardson brought a ringing cheer from the audience, when, in the course of his address, he stated that he doubted not, but that day the streets of Bloemfontein had resounded to the tread of General Franch's Cavalry which, true enough, had taken place, and was that evening being celebrated in Cape Town and Old London. The Patriotic Glee Club - Messrs. Sheppard, Barhouse, Ritchie, Boyd, Hicking, Tipp and Wickens, Mrs. Sheppard, Mrs. Blackburn, Miss Christie, Miss Joy, Miss Trimble, Miss Annie Richardson and Miss Florrie Richardson - gave, to open with, the National Anthem which touched the heart of the audience, and their second number Morgan's "Queen, Flag and Country" was rapturously applauded. Miss Christie sang "The Maple Leaf Forever" and Mrs. Sheppard "Rule Britannia," each accompanied in the chorus by the audience with rousing effect. Mr. Barhouse sang "Soldiers of the Queen" accompanied in the chorus by a company of "red coats," and Mrs. Blackburn sang "Lending on the Old Camp Ground" (camp scene represented on the stage) accompanied in the chorus by the Glee Club. Mr. Sheppard sang "Canadian Jack," "E. W. Ritchie, "Men of the North," Mrs. Sheppard, "The Englishman," W. Smith, "When Johnnie Cannock comes back," Dr. Murray, "Jolly Jack," Miss Joy, "Thisle, Rose and Shamrock" and the last those responded with pleasing encores, Miss Joy giving, with splendid effect, "God save our Volunteers." Tennyson's poem "The Charge" was well recited by Miss Ida Gledrum, as was also "The Ab-
