onto, on Sabbath the 28th ult. the following tribute was paid by Mr. F. F. Fudger to the memory of the late J. W. Henderson, who for a number of years, resided here and was well known to many of our readers:

"lam asked to refer specially to my old friend, Brother J. W. Henderson, who was for many years one of, be cured without risk, expense, or danthe most active members of our Church, and was known throughout the Province as a loyal, energetic Methodist, and true to his charge. He was known long by the official position he held in relation to the Quarterly Board, Trustee Board and also as representative of the Toronto Conference and General Conference, as well as to all relations his influence was felt and his ability recognized. He had the faculty of getting quickly at the pith of any matter under discussion, and also had the force of quick decision. Until lingering disease confined him to his home, he was an active figure in our midst, and in Church work, and we can hardly realize he has gone from The members of the Toronto Conference, who come among us next week will miss him, and amongst them he has many warm friends We cannot help but think of brother Henderson as still cherishing his love This Modern Shoe for Women for the Class Meeting, and his keen
