She Was Pale and Languid

Too Nervous to Sleep, and Daily Grew Weaker and Weaker—Dr. Chase's Nerve Food Restored Health and Vigour.

Mrs. E. McLaughlin, 95 Parliament street, Toronto, states:—"My daughter was pale, weak, languid, and very nervous. Her appetite was poor and changeable. She could scarcely drag herself about the house, and her nerves were completely unstrung. She could not sleep for more than half an hour at a time without starting up and crying out in excitement. "As she was growing weaker and weaker I became alarmed, and obtained a box of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. She used this treatment for several weeks, and from the first we noticed a decided improvement. Her appetite became better, she gained in weight, the colour returned to her face, and she gradually became strong and well. I cannot say too much in favour of this wonderful treatment, since it has proven such a blessing to my daughter." Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is a blood-builder and nerve vitalizer of most unusual merit. In pill form, 50c. a box, at all dealers; or Edmanson, Bates and Co., Toronto.

FLESHERTON.

Mr. W. Tucker, of this place, narrowly escaped from being buried under a landslide, which occurred at the Adams hill gravel pit on Saturday last. Mr. Tucker was busy shovelling and did not notice the movement of the bank until a large body of earth was almost upon him. By a dexterous movement he escaped, but Billy felt he had a close call. The tongue of the wagon which was being loaded, was smashed under the weight of earth. Fortunately the horses had been removed or the damage and loss would have been greater. Several fine monuments have been erected in the Public Cemetery here in the past few weeks. Among those who have thus marked the resting place of their beloved dead are Rev. Jos. Ward, Mr. Noble Lawrence, Mr. Malcolm Ferguson, and Mr. R. G. Hannah, of Toronto, and Mr. R. Harrington, of La. Salle, N. Y., children of the late Mrs. Alex. Hannah, who had last week erected to the memory of their mother a handsome piece of marble.

Mr. W. Trimble visited Toronto a short time ago and purchased three nice horses, one, if not two, of which he has sold since his return. The third is a three-year-old pacer and nice driver, which he purposes keeping for his own use. Mr. A. Munshaw has erected a handsome new flagstaff on his grounds adjoining the hotel. Mr. John Runstadtler was the purchaser of the May butter at the creamery here last week. The price was 17 1/2 cts., being 1/2 of a cent higher than the first sale last year. Mr. Chas. Ryan, who was terribly crushed while loading timber at Flesherton Station on Monday of last week, succumbed to his injuries at the O'Neal House there on Saturday evening last, and on Sunday his remains were taken to his father's home in Glenelg. Four doctors and a nurse did all in their power to save the unfortunate man's life, but could do little more than temporarily relieve his suffering. Mr. Ryan was a deservedly popular, and his untimely end is lamented by all who knew him.

Dr. Christoe occupied the Methodist pulpit here on Sabbath morning last and Mr. Grimshaw, Baptist pastor in the evening. Mr. W. Sinclair supplied Mr. Ward's outside appointments. Mr. F. Millar, a Queen's College Student, supplied the Presbyterian pulpit in the afternoon and Dr. Christoe will supply the same next Sabbath. Mr. Geo. Trueman has removed from near the creamery to Mr. Wm. Ward's house near the cemetery. Mr. T. Bilsbury, representing Ryaland & Sons, of Manchester, England, was in town doing business with M. Richardson & Co. last Saturday and Monday. Mr. Bilsbury spent Sunday with Mr. Richardson and family. Mr. Geo. Mitchell was in Brockville part of last week a witness in court. Mr. E. N. Henderson was on like duty at Owen Sound. Mr. and Mrs. W. Joy, of Toronto Junction, spent Friday and Saturday last on their honeymoon with the former's brother-in-law, Mr. T. J. Sheppard. Miss Add Armstrong returned last week from Toronto, somewhat improved in health. Mr. and Mrs. W. McCormick and two children, of Manitoulin Island, are visiting their brother-in-law, Mr. W. J. Bellamy, and family. Mrs. W. Smith visited her sister, in Osprey, last week. Miss Lizzie Bellamy is home from Owen Sound visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Bellamy. Mr. Samuel Richardson, of Toronto is visiting Mr. Wm. Smith and other relatives in this vicinity. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stewart, of Galt, are visiting Mrs. Geo. Stewart and family here. Mrs. Jacob Parliament, of Paisley, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Bellamy, Sr., and other relatives in this place. Mr. and Mrs. E. Hawkin, also Miss Em. Hamilton spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. Hamilton.

Mrs. A. McCalmron and nephew, Everett Hoy, are visiting friends in Thornbury. Mr. M. J. Wolfe, of Hamilton, is paying his niece, Mrs. J. Runstadtler, a visit. Mrs. R. Spicer, of Dandak, spent Sunday at Mr. J. Sullivan's.

PRICEVILLE.

The Rev. J. S. Humphries will preach a special sermon in the Methodist church next Sunday morning 24th June, to Priceville Lodge, No. 140, A. O. U. W. visiting brethren and the public welcome. As this will also be Mr. Humphries' farewell sermon we have no doubt there will be a large number present. We understand that Mr. Hs' next station will be in the Uxbridge District. He carries with him the best wishes of all classes and denominations here. Mr. Chas. Ryan, who was so severely injured at Flesherton Station last Saturday night. The best of medical skill was brought to bear on the case, but unfortunately, without avail, he will be missed amongst a large circle of sympathizing friends. His funeral on Monday last to the R. C. Cemetery, Glenelg, was largely attended.

The roofs of the Flour Mill and adjoining buildings are being coated with fire proof paint. Mr. G. W. Tryon is the artist engaged in the work. A social will be held next Friday evening by the members of the Epworth League, belonging to the Methodist Church here. It is to be hoped that the people will turn out well to this the first social of the summer in this village. The Rev. Mr. Beavis, Presbyterian Minister who has been supplying the place of the Rev. Matheson during his absence at the General Assembly in Halifax, lectured last Thursday night, in St. Columba Church, on "Heroes of to-day." He had a large and appreciative audience, and will be gladly welcomed again should he return to Priceville. Mr. J. McDowell is busily engaged in erecting a new and commodious dwelling on the site occupied by his old house lately destroyed by fire. The old gentleman is as spry as the youngest of them, and hustles things around at a great rate. Mr. A. McCabe, formerly of this village, has opened out a general store in the premises vacated by Mr. Hegarth. He evidently intends rushing business. That is what is wanted here.

Mrs. S. J. Wright, of Markdale, visited friends and relatives here from Saturday till Monday last.

DORNOCH.

Mr. and Mrs. John McNally, of Traverston, spent the beginning of the week very pleasantly at the parental home of the latter. Mr. and Mrs. W. Smith, Jr., are this week taking a pleasant vacation visiting relatives in Trent Co. Messrs. D. Campbell and R. Wade each treated themselves to handsome new top buggies last week. County Commissioner McKinnon supplying their needs. Mrs. G. Flanagan, of Shallow Lake, is at present on an extended visit amongst friends in the vicinity. Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Redford, of Lamash, were the beginning of the week the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lochead. Miss Wagner, of Balacava, is a welcome guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. H. Hunt, the last couple of weeks. Mr. J. S. Ledingham, of Duluth, is enjoying a six weeks' vacation at the old homestead at present. The first raising of the season took place on Friday evening when Mr. Robt. Corlett had the frame work of his new barn placed in position. Fraser McKechie had the contract and a well fitting frame is the natural result. Messrs. R. Hay and J. Vasey captured the opposing forces with the result of a bad defeat for the former. No accidents. That Dornoch Garden Parties have a drawing power was amply evidenced last Friday evening by the immense crowd that filled the handsome grounds of Mr. Louis Smith. The weather was all that could be desired the crowd well pleased and sociable, the program chiefly supplied by talent from Durham, the singing and music being also furnished by the Presbyterian Choir of that town, who treated the audience to a musical feast seldom surpassed. The booths in charge of Messrs. R. T. Corlett, and H. R. Riddell, did a rushing business, the general opinion being that the vendors of the cooling beverages had mistaken their calling. Proceeds of both $27.20. Total proceeds $76.50.

Horse Lost.

STRAYED FROM THE PREMISES OF THE undersigned, Lot 17, Con. 8, Bentinck, on or about Sunday, June 17, a light bay horse, small white star in forehead, one white hind fetlock. Had a rope round the neck when he left field. Any information that will lead to his recovery will be suitably rewarded.

1pd WM. LORENZ, Lamash P. O.

BUNESSAN. Under the skillful instruction of her cousin Jack, Miss Maggie Beaton is becoming a graceful horseback rider. She and the pony were photographed the other day. We understand that Otto Konold was married Wednesday week to Miss M. McPhail, of the North Line. As the wedding took place out of our district we will leave the giving of particulars to the Scribe in that neighborhood. May they be forever happy. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell and child are visiting at Mr. C. Firth's. The former remained but a few days, while the latter will remain a couple of weeks. We tender our grateful thanks to the Goat and the Gander for their kind words re the increase to our family. The former knows all about the matter as such an event is, we believe, about an annual affair in his establishment and for the latter, well, well, well. We won't have to sympathize with him forever. Only two or three months ago a little one arrived at the home of Mr. T. Davis, and now they have to mourn its untimely departure. The little one died a week ago. We are pleased to see that Miss Jessie Beaton is able to walk about again. We hope she will soon be entirely better. The Rev. Mr. Farquharson preached in the Baptist church at the Centre last Sunday. (This is an item that properly belongs to Mrs. Pat, but we give it in case the worthy lady forgets). Considerable grain and wood is finding its way to market just now. With the somewhat better prices for butter and eggs, and prospect for a good crop, the year 1900 ought to be a record year for prosperity among the farmers. We haven't heard much of the shoddy man on this line, but we've had the ragman, and old iron man, etc. who, of course, give full value for all they buy.

Mr. Samuel Bowles had the misfortune to lose a fine cow last week from milk fever. Mr. and Mrs. S. Osborn visited friends here lately. Mrs. Anderson, of Glenelg, is visiting with her daughter Mrs. G. Hutchison, Jr. Messrs. J. McGee and J. Buchanan had raisings last week. Mr. McGee a barn; and Mr. Buchanan has been tearing down part of his buildings and like the man in the Good Book building greater. The Orangemen, of Artemesia, District met at Kell's Corners last week and decided to celebrate the 12th at Eugenia. Mrs. A. Carson, of Priceville, was the guest of Mrs. J. Gilbert last week. She was accompanied by Mrs. Neff, of Ohio. Messrs. J. Weber and R. Hutchison are at Niagara with the volunteers.

HER HEAD A FRIGHT. "Large sores covered the head and face of my child," writes C. D. Isbill, of Moragan, Tenn., "that no treatment helped till we used Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which quickly cured her." Infallible in Eruptions, Bruises, Accidents and Piles. Care guaranteed. Only 25c. at all drug stores.

BY-LAW No. 383. A By-law for the Regulation of Employment and Hours of Labor in Shops and Places of Business in the Town of Durham. Whereas an application signed by not less than three-fourths in number of the electors of the Town of Durham, relating to a class to which such application belongs, has been received by the Council of the said Town, praying for the passing of a By-law requiring the closing of all places of business at the times and hours in said application mentioned. Therefore, the Corporation of the Town of Durham, by the Council thereof, under the provisions of Chapter 357, Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1897, enacts as follows: 1. All general stores, hardware shops, drug stores, boot and shoe store, groceries, butcher shops, watch-maker shops, produce stores tin-smith shop, upholsterer and cabinet-makers shops, within the municipality of the Town of Durham, shall be closed and remain closed on each or any day of the week, at and during any time or hours between seven of the clock in the afternoon of any day and five of the clock in the forenoon of the next following day. Extending only public holiday and on Wednesdays and Saturdays for the periods excepting from the Fifteenth day of May to the Fifteenth day of September in each and every year. 2. This By-law shall come into full force and effect on Thursday the 21st day of June, A. D. 1900. 3. Any person or persons offending against the provisions of this By-law, shall on summary conviction before a Justice of the Peace, be liable to a penalty not exceeding $50.00 exclusive of costs; and in default of payment of such fine as may be adjudged together with costs; then distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the offender shall be made to satisfy the said fine and costs; and in case there be no distress found on which such fine can be levied, such offender shall be liable to imprisonment in the common goal of the county of Grey, with or without hard labor, for a period not exceeding twenty-one days; unless the fine and costs included the costs of the distress and of the committal and conveyance of the offender to the goal are sooner paid. Passed in Council this eighth day of June, A. D. 1900. W. A. ANDERSON, Clerk. W. LAIDLAW, Mayor.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Osborn visited friends here lately. Mrs. Anderson, of Glenelg, is visiting with her daughter Mrs. G. Hutchison, Jr. Messrs. J. McGee and J. Buchanan had raisings last week. Wedding Bells.

A very pretty wedding took place on the 6th of June, at the residence of Mrs. Pettigrew, Leming St., Hamilton, when her eldest son Herbert was happily wedded to Miss Marion Morton, eldest daughter of Mr. Thos. Morton, of Durham, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. J. A. Jackson, of Emerald St., Methodist Church, Hamilton. The bride looked sweet dressed in white muslin and white roses, while the bridesmaid, Miss Nellie Morrison, looked very pretty dressed in pink muslin and pink roses. The groomsmen were Mr. Bernard Pettigrew, brother of the groom. After receiving the good wishes of the friends, a plenteous supper was partaken of. The rest of the evening was spent in games and music. The presents were numerous and costly. Mr. and Mrs. Pettigrew will reside on McCauley St. East, Hamilton.—Com.

How to Grow. In what County of Grey Farmers would like to know. We cannot tell you, but we CAN TELL YOU that H. H. MILLER, the Hanover Conveyancer is lending money on good farm mortgages at lower rates of interest than you can borrow elsewhere, and on very liberal terms and at small cost. That is the reason why people all over the country pass by other lenders and travel miles to borrow from him.

He Has Several Very Fine Farms For sale at very low figures and on very easy terms. Farm lands are bound to increase in price and now is the time to buy. HE ALSO undertakes the collection of Notes and Accounts, and it is a pretty bad claim that he cannot make some money out of no charge for his trouble if not collected.
