REV. MR. FERGUSON,

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,-Three years have passed since first we met as pastor and people, and now, that our union is at an end, we have come to say "good-bye." During the term of your pastorate amongst us we have found you ever faithful in the discharge of duty, ever ready to encourage us in our moments of weakness. ever willing to console us in times of trouble and ever able to shed light over the dark shadows that beset our Christian pathway. Not only have you been faithful in the discharge of your social duties, but you have been faithful as a student digging deep down after those things which give knowledge of a higher life, and sowing such seed as will bring forth fruit and bless us. Just as the wise husbandman studies the nature of the soil, and adapts to it the seed which will, from existing conditions, produce the best results, so you seem to have studied the character of your people and prepared religious thought in such a man-ner as to bring forth the best fruits.

In the Epworth League too your wise counsel has often been our guide, your liberal views have been ever healthful, and our hope is that your wisdom may stamp character in our lives and serve as a solid foundation on which to build a true religious superstructure.

We must not forget your partner in life, whose kind, genial nature responded at ; moment's call when any service she could render was at all in need. And now in parting let us wish you all a full and abundant happiness in this world and in the world to come life everlasting. We cannot express our feeling in any tangible way, but as a nere memento of our three years' sojourn together allow us to present you this purse, which we, one and all, trust you may be long spared to enjoy.

Hoping you may all be abundantly bless ed in your new field of labor. We wish you Signed in behalf of the church and League

THE NARROW GAUGE.

TUNE-"Oh Susannah." I had a dream the other night, When everything was still I thought I saw the narrow gauge A twisting round a hill A teakettle steamed on in front.

With a wheelbarrow in tow, While the passengers got out and walked Twas so infernal slow.

There came a farmer down from Grey With a waggon load of grain, But he shook his head in wild dismay When he saw the toy-shop train, He gazed upon the novel sight And then he turned away
"It may do," said he, "for a baby's toy,
But 'twill never do for Grey."

A tough old ram got on the track As the train came creeping along He lowered his head and raised his back And braced himself up strong. Then he made a dash with a smash and a crash And into that train did pitch;

The old ram stood on the narrow gauge; But the train went into the ditch tinker in a donkey cart Went whistling along the way,

The smoke came curling from his pipe And his ass began to bray. A good old lady put on her specs And she listened to the sound And she gazed on the swift and comely craft.

And she saw the smoke around. The donkey's bray seemed a whistle's scream Sounding along the vale The pipe-smoke a lomotive's steam Whirled by the autumn gale.

And she said, "This is the train at last, 'Tis the wonder of the age, By its whistle clear and its time so fast, I know 'tis the narrow gauge."
