

DURHAM CHRONICLE

W. Irwin, Editor and Proprietor.

DURHAM, JULY 26TH, 1900.

THE PHILIPPINE ISLANDS.

CEBU, PHILIPPINE ISLANDS. June 17th 1900.

DEAR FATHER.—Everything here is about the same as usual.

This is a very dull place here and I can scarcely find anything to write about.

Mr. George Armstrong, of Rockvale Mills, is under Dr. Cartwright's care suffering, we understand, with appendicitis.

Mr. Geo. Mitchell, of this place, has for the past fortnight been out of his usual form physically, enduring a siege of "Job's comforters."

Rev. John Wells, formerly of this place, now of Holland, Man., has been appointed Clerk of the Presbytery of Glenboro'.

Mr. and Mrs. Welis, who a year ago lost their son, have again been passing through a season of great anxiety on account of the severe illness of their only daughter, Miss Allie, who we are pleased to learn, is now on the mend.

Your correspondent has been favored with an interesting letter from Mr. Wm. Clayton, who is visiting his relatives in England among them being an invalid brother, ex-Mayor of the city of York.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Sinclair left last week to visit their daughter, Mrs. Ludlow, in Port Huron.

Miss Phoenix who has been visiting Mrs. Runstadler for a couple of months returned home Monday.

Mr. Samuel Warting and daughter Violet, of Port Law, were here on a visit to friends a short time ago.

Harvest work will soon be in full blast. The crops are tight from lack of rain.

Miss Anna Ritchie, from Port Arthur, is visiting at A. C. Beaton's.

Jack Black commences his threshing at T. McComb's this week.

Tom Nichol complains of too much music from his next door neighbor to the east.

A good number from here attended the Lawrence Hall S. S. picnic last Friday. All seemed to enjoy themselves.

Of course everyone was pleased when the news came that our six entrance candidates passed.

By far the most important part of digestion takes place in the intestines and it is folly to expect stomach medicines to cure a severe case of indigestion or dyspepsia.

Well, as it is dinner time, I will have to quit and go get something to eat.

With best respects to all I remain as ever

Your son FRANK IRWIN, Co. N., 19th Inf., Cebu, P. I.

FLESHERTON.
