EXCHANGE ECHOES.

While we do not take much stock in faith cure, yet cures effected by the laying on of hands are frequently met with. If laid on early and often will cure boys of the cigarette habit. A good leather strap or hickory switch should be firmly held in the hand when making the application. —Flesherton Advance.

Mr. McCalmon, marble dealer, who moved from Markdale to Flesherton recently, places his advertisement in this issue. He has been doing a good trade here, one of his recent erections being a handsome stone to the memory of the late Mrs. Geo. Thompson at the Maxwell cemetery, and another to the late Mark Cairns, placed in the Flesherton cemetery. —Flesherton Advance.

Her twenty-fifth baby, fat and happy, is crowing in the arms of Mrs. Samuel Smartwood, wife of an engineer on the Central railroad of New Jersey, U. S. The mother has been married 29 years. She has borne two sets of twins. Twenty of her twenty-five children are living. The husband brings in $100 a month and the children $90. The happy mother says: "You can put me down as agreeing with Grover Cleveland that married life is one grand, sweet song." —Ex.

It has been agreed that newspaper subscriptions are an infallible test of a man's honesty. They will sooner or later discover the man. If he is dishonest he will cheat the printer some way—declare he has paid when he has not—sent money which was lost—will take the paper and not pay for it—or move off and leave it coming to the office he left. Thousands of alleged Christians are dishonest in this particular, at least, and the printer's book will tell fearful tales at the final judgment. —Exchange.

Something new in the way of parties took place in town the past week, being nothing less than a whooping cough party. The sense of holding such a gathering might on first thought be questioned, but that it is all right is certain on full enquiry. The children comprising the party were all afflicted with the cough; no others were asked, and you may depend no other wished to go. The little folks in attendance had as good a time as their affliction would permit, and no one was any the worse.

Many girls and boys who might be fitted for successful farming, carpentering, blacksmithing, cooking, laundering or the like are rushed through a wholly unsuitable course of study and particularly taught that they are destined for "something better." That is the mistake. The learned professions are crowded and the cities and towns are overstocked with young "ladies and gentlemen" who have nothing to do. "There is always room at the top," to be sure, but the world is not looking for inexperienced young people to occupy those elevated places. —Ex.

A party of three Mt. Forest young ladies received a bad scare Tuesday night. They were driving near Best's blacksmith shop, just north of the town about dusk, when two men stepped out in the road demanding their money and holding their horse by the head. One of the ladies flourished the whip when the fellow let go the horse and the ladies drove off. If the affair was a joke it was not appreciated; if it was an attempted "hold up" it was badly bungled. The ladies were badly scared in either case. —Mount Forest Representative.

Mr. J. A. McKinnon, Williamsford's popular teacher, as well as his pupils, have reason to feel gratified with the result of Pt. 1. junior leaving examinations. Mr. McKinnon's 3 pupils who tried the Entrance at Chatsworth last year, all passed, and he has more reason to feel pleased, as this year 3 of his 4 pupils who tried the junior leaving, passed in all the five subjects of the examinations after less than a year's study, when it is placed on the curriculum as a two years' course. Mr. McKinnon has a heavy school of younger pupils in connection with which he has been able to prepare the advanced pupils for the success they have attained at the July examinations. —Chatsworth News.

A daring burglary was perpetrated at the Sarawak residence of Captain McDougall of the S. S. Athabasca, on Saturday night. About 10 o'clock Mrs. McDougall, who was alone in the house, was aroused by hearing footsteps in the house. Thinking that perhaps it was some of the family, she opened the door of her room and stepped into the hall. As she did so she was seized by a man and after a brief struggle was thrown backwards into the room. The burglar then made his escape through one of the front bed rooms to the verandah and dropped to the ground. En route, he carried off a watch belonging to Miss McDougall, which was lying on the dresser. In the struggle Mrs. McDougall was unable to recognize the thief, but it must be some one well acquainted with the house. No clue has yet been found to his identity. —Warton Canadian.

CORNER CONCERNS.

Miss Bella Mathewson is holidaying for a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. Ben Crittenden, as is her custom once in a few years. She is basking in the sweetest smiles of the Corner people and living on the best this part can produce. The rest of her life she lives at Ayr.

Mr. Peter McIvor, of Brandon, is home on a visit to see his father and the rest of the family. He spent a day of last week in this neighborhood. He is loud in the praise of the Prairie Province, and amongst the lucky ones this year in having a good crop, and is no doubt, going to take some one back to help him handle it.

Mr. J. Vessie is out again with his steam thresher. This year he exchanged the rods and gear for a rope driver. He is bound that neither wind nor rain will cause delays, and to have no risk of accidents' by rods flipping around occasionally.

Three or four farmers have threshed in this part. Fall wheat is turning out well; oats and barley fairly well and pease not so bad, at least it was found after a good long trial the other day that they would not go through the wheat riddle.

The late fine showers have helped the pastures, the root crops, to prevent harvesting and cause streams to flow again as usual, many of which had stopped completely, some that were never known before to fail, in fact the largest of them was so low that with a pair of Peel's hand made shoes one could ford it with out getting wet.

Mr. John Wilson has changed the rubber belt on his steam thresher for a rope one so there will be no delays. He spent a week in Guelph learning to make a neat splice when required, in the rope we mean.

Teacher Dixon has commenced work in the Academy again much improved in health and in very good shape for the fall work.

Miss Ada Chapman, of Arthur Tp., spent the past fortnight with friends in this part. She was accompanied home on Saturday night by Mr. Will and Miss Aggie Sirrs.

We extend congratulations to the old Bunesan Beaver. He will have an interesting time of it now for a while getting things fitted up for the little chap. He will, no doubt teach during the day and dam at night.

The picnicers to Eugenia are greatly elated over the notoriety of the event, it having received the largest number of press notices of anything that occurred this summer, for which they extend their gratitude such as it is, to the Chronicle Scribes of Flesherton, Pomona and the Corners.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Chapman and family, of Markdale, spent most of last week visiting friends in this part and attending their uncle Doyle's funeral.

The Holstein man says if the Gander again sticks his beak into his affairs he will break his neck and be done with him forever. It has been said that the Corner Gander has neck enough that if broken to tie at least once, so he would be on to him again.

Most of the farmers will be through harvesting this week, the earliest in the mind of man.

THE spider spun his filmy web across the open door, through which a merchant found his way into and out of his store. "Don't weave your web across the door," a bee was heard to say, "because before you've got it done 'twill all be swept away." "I guess I know what I'm about," replied the spider wise; "I know the man who runs this store; he doesn't advertise."

How to Grow

Is what County of Grey Farmers would like to know. We cannot tell you, but we CAN TELL YOU that H. H. MILLER, the Hanover Conve ancer is lending money on good farm mortgages at lower rates of interest than you can borrow elsewhere, and on very liberal terms and at small cost. That is the reason why people all over the country pass by other lenders and travel miles to borrow from him.

He Has Several Very Fine Farms For sale at very low figures and on very easy terms. Farm lands are bound to increase in price and now is the time to buy.

HE ALSO undertakes the collection of Notes and Accounts, and it is a pretty bad claim that he cannot make some money out of no charge for his trouble if not collected.

He Does Fire, Life and Accident Insurance

In first-class Companies and at lowest rates, draws all kinds of writings, arranges business quarrels, effects settlements with creditors, sells Ocean tickets, buys old notes and always has on hand farm and village properties which he is willing to trade or exchange for other property.

Twenty years' experience and residence in the neighborhood counts for something, and enables H. H. MILLER to do your business with profit to you as well as to himself.

Great August Sale

OF Summer Goods! THE PRICES WILL AMAZE YOU ALL.

Owing to the enormous advance in the price of cotton, the indications strongly point to this season's 12½c prints being sold at 15c next season. Many stores prefer to carry the remaining stocks rather than sell below regular prices. Not so here, the rule of clearing out every season's goods will not be broken. This is why we offer for the next two weeks regardless of cost the finest and prettiest patterns and colorings in
