

FLESHERTON.

On Thursday last a horse belonging to Mr. Alex. Madill broke loose from a tie-post at M. Richardson & Co's. store and leaving bridle and lines behind galloped off with the buggy at a furious rate up Sydenham street until it came to the street leading into the woollen mill where it turned and in its frenzy dashed past the mill, through the river below and into the thick woods beyond where it became entangled and brought to a stand still. The horse received only a slight scratch, but the buggy top and one shaft suffered in the fray. Mrs. Madill escaped, being in the buggy the moment the horse started, by returning to the store for a parcel she had forgotten which saved her a terrible experience.

The Flesherton and Clarksburg lacrosse boys played a friendly game here on Monday afternoon resulting in a score of 15 to 5 in favor of the home players.

Mr. James VanDusen, of Princeton, Ill., who formerly lived with his son, Mr. A. S. VanDusen, here, celebrated his 90th birthday a few days ago and is to a remarkable degree in the possession of all his faculties and in the enjoyment of good health. The old gentleman is doubtless the subject of many congratulations and we tender ours.

Miss Annie Joy, of Toronto Junction, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. T. J. Sheppard, and who possesses an excellent alto voice, assisted the Methodist choir on Sunday and at the evening service sang a beautifully rendered duet with her sister, Miss Alice Joy, of this place.

Mr. Frank VanDusen attended the funeral on Thursday last of his young friend, Mr. Galbraith, of Chatsworth, who was killed by falling from his wheel.

BUNESSAN.

The Glenelg Centre cor. put in a protest last week because a bit of an item of his had been left out by the editor. If that made him mad we ought to be madder. Our whole budget last week must have found its way to the waste-paper basket. We'll let the editor off this time, knowing that he has to exercise a good deal of patience with much of the trash we correspondents sometimes send in.

The recent good rains have hindered the late harvesters, but have done much good to the root crops.

Jim and Joe have been seen recently sympathizing with one another over their blighted affections. They'll likely return the compliment on somebody else now.

Dr. Hugh McCormick was home for a week or two.

A thirsty wheelman espied the school pump, and thought he would have a drink, but behold, it was dry.

The five girls and fifty boys who were at a dance some time ago are anxiously waiting a call to another. O, that we had command of such choice language as the Corner man uses!

We've heard much of that famous Eugenia picnic and smashup, but we haven't yet heard if the rattle-brain who caused all the smash has made good the loss to the innocent ones.

The McArthur boys, from the 4th, were threshing on this line this week. They're almost equal to a steamer.

With regret we have to chronicle the death of one of the pioneers in the person of Mr. Andrew McIlvride, who departed his life on Saturday, about noon. He had been a healthy man until of late. He was a kind and obliging neighbor and respected by all who knew him. The funeral took place to Maplewood cemetery Monday, and was one of the largest ever seen in these parts, showing the esteem in which the deceased was held. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Campbell, of Dromore. He leaves to mourn a wife, six sons and one daughter, all away from home, with the exception of Donald on the homestead. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of the community.—Varney Cor.
