

DURHAM CHRONICLE

W. Irwin, Editor and Proprietor.

DURHAM, SEPT. 27TH, 1900.

Vote for Richardson.

Tarte designates the loyal English speaking people, "the fanatical hordes of the West."

Dr. Landerkin has represented South Grey for twenty-three years. What has he done for his constituents?

The Honourable Premier Marchand, of Quebec, is in a low state of health, and very little hope is entertained of his recovery.

Since Dr. Landerkin has been a financial loser through politics, the burden should be thrown on Mr. Richardson for a while now.

Why do the Liberals give themselves so much concern over Hugh John, if he is such a weakling as they would make him out to be?

Very heavy rains are reported from India. The country around Calcutta is inundated for miles. Twenty natives were drowned and thousands are reported homeless.

A special report from Ottawa to the Mail and Empire says the date of dissolution was fixed on Saturday, but that the exact dates of nomination and polling have not yet been decided. The last week in October or first week in November is said to be the time the elections will take place.

Many South Grey Liberals would be glad to see Mr. Richardson elected if Dr. Landerkin had only been provided for. Twenty-three years in power, without any return, has caused the Doctor's supporters to "grow weary in well doing."

LET US DROP TARTE

"Four years more of Tarte means what?"

"It means four years of riotous administration in the chief spending department of the Government."

"It means the cultivation of an anti-British sentiment in Quebec."

"It means four years of constant agitation for a French party in national politics."

"It means four years of uncertainty as regards the tariff."

"It means four years of submission by the head of the Administration to a colleague who laughs at Anglo-Saxon integrity and glories in a double-faced attitude."

"It means a lowering of the public morals; a distrust of the honest politician; reliance on Tammanyized methods in the government of the country, and the installation of lobbyists in power at Ottawa."—Galt Reporter.

WHAT IS DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD?

In appearance Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is an oval, chocolate coated pill. In this condensed form it contains all of nature's most strengthening and invigorating tonics and restoratives and for this reason it is unapproached as a blood builder and nerve restorative. It cures all diseases caused by thin blood and exhausted nerves and makes pale, weak nervous men, women and children strong and healthy. 50 cents a box.

Consumption

is, by no means, the dreadful disease it is thought to be—in the beginning.

It can always be stopped—in the beginning. The trouble is: you don't know you've got it; you don't believe it; you won't believe it—till you are forced to. Then it is dangerous.

Don't be afraid; but attend to it quick—you can do it yourself and at home.

Take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, and live carefully every way.

This is sound doctrine, whatever you may think or be told; and, if heeded, will save life.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample. Its agreeable taste will surprise you. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, TORONTO. 50c. and $1.00; all druggists.

THREE STABLES BURNED.

For some time we have been free from fire, but on Monday last about 2 p. m. the sound of the fire bell told us once more that the devouring element was still capable of producing its usual devastation. Smoke was seen issuing from the stable of Mr. T. G. Holt, just in rear of his residence, and as other stables were closely adjoining, it was at once evident that considerable damage would be done before the Fire Company, at best, could get the engine under way and the hose in position.

The building contained a number of high class hens, and these were removed uninjured, but beyond the removal of portable articles from the stable and the adjoining buildings very little could be done without the engine. Before long the firemen were on the scene and everything was in readiness, but the steam, for which there was some delay in waiting, but not long.

The adjoining residences seemed in danger, but the two well-directed streams from the engine soon damped the order of the fire and the neighborhood began to breathe more freely, feeling assured that no damage would be done beyond the burning of the stables. To confine the flames seemed all the company could do, and this they did with considerable skill.

Capt. Torry, Lieut. Harbottle, and Ed. McClocklin showed considerable coolness, and like all the other members of the brigade did good work.

The buildings destroyed were all stables. In addition to Mr. Holt's, the one in which the fire originated, Rev. Mr. Sharp and Mr. Jas. Carson were also losers, each of the three buildings having been almost completely destroyed. The fire originated through children playing with matches as near as we can find out. There was a small insurance on Mr. Holt's, but, we understand, there was nothing on either of the others. The loss will amount to three or four hundred dollars.

LOCAL NEWS.

MR. ROBERT WADE, of Crawford, has purchased the fifty acres owned by Mr. James Cross. This gives Bob a clear scope of 400 acres across the block.

The Post Office Department has issued the following notice to all Canadian postmasters: "Porto Rico, Hawaii, Guam, the Philippine Islands and certain islands in the Samoan group being now United States territory, correspondence of all kinds posted in Canada addressed to those islands will, on and from the 1st of October next, be subject to the same regulations generally, as apply to correspondence sent from Canada to the United States." The result of the new order will be that letters from Canada to the American Islands of the Samoan group, Guam, and the Philippines, although twice the distance that England is from Canada will go at a less rate than letters between Canada and the Mother Country. To these American possessions the rate will be two cents per ounce, while the rate to the Mother Country is two cents per half ounce.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN R. BROWN, of Seattle, Washington, are spending a week or two with the former's father, Mr. James Brown, and other relatives and friends in Durham and vicinity. Though it is about eighteen years since Mr. Brown left here, he seems never to have forgotten the home and associations of his boyhood days. In a very brief interview we learned many things of the growth and development of the "wild and woolly west" through Mr. Brown's geniality and superiority as a conversationalist. Seattle, he tells, has now a population of more than 100,000, though twelve years ago there was very little over 30,000. The increase is largely attributed to the excitement in the Klondike, and the new importations to the town are largely made up of a rough gambling and lawless class, who care little or nothing for the value of human life. It is a common thing, he tells us, to find an unknown human body floating in the bay. These, he believes in many cases, are the remains of returned miners, who on landing with their little bags of gold, have been robbed of their treasure and disposed of in this inhuman way. Lawlessness and crime are evidently common characteristics of the place. Mr. Brown is a careful reader of THE CHRONICLE, which he gets every Thursday, just a week after it is printed and he pronounces it better than a dozen letters keeping him posted on the doings of the place.

HITS AND MISSES.

To say that a fellow who gets his back up and won't speak to you is an old granny, would be too much of a reflection on the granny.

Some newspaper and magazine publishers are offering big prizes for guessing. The capital prize in one case is $15,000 for the person who guesses nearest to the month, day, minute and hour when the Boer war will end, the only condition being that a year's subscription to the paper must be sent with the guess. Quite a scheme, but we'll go it one better and give twenty-five thousand dollars in gold to every one who tells us exactly when the man in the moon will deliver his first load of cream at the Durham butter factory. Every one paying one dollar on subscription is eligible to enter the contest.

RAISING CHICKENS FOR PROFIT.

The farmers throughout Ontario have not as yet recognized the importance and value to themselves of a great Centre station, where they can send their chickens at any season of the year, and where they would get a fair price (which they would know before shipping). There is beyond a doubt a great deal of money to be made out of chickens—that is to say, to be made out of the right kind of chickens—such, for instance, as Plymouth Rock and Wyandottes and some of their crosses, for the larger birds are certainly the most in demand when sold for food, and more especially when sent to a great fattening concern like the Canadian Produce Company, of Christie Street, Toronto. This firm fatten the chickens and put them in shape for exporting to the British market, where a large bird is in demand. The Canadian Produce Company have agreed to send single crates to any farmer. In this way a raiser of poultry on a small scale would be able to dispose of his stock with the same facility and at as large a price as the man who raises in large quantities. The Company will not only send one or more crates to those who write for them, but they will pay express charges both on the crates going empty, as well as on the crates returning full. This includes express charges on the weight of the birds themselves, as well as on the returning crate. In this way it will be readily seen that the farmer has nothing to do but write for what crates he needs (one crate holds about thirty birds), to put his birds in the crates and send them back addressed to the Company in Toronto, where the birds will be paid for at the weights when they arrive, and cheque or money order will be sent the same day in payment. This is not only a great boon for the farmer at the present moment, but will be the means of causing an unlimited demand for chickens in the spring at prices running from sixty to seventy cents per pair, according to the market. There is one requisite, however, that every farmer must consider, and that is, unless the birds are strong and healthy they are of little use for exporting. The birds do not need to be fat, but they do need to be large, healthy and strong, and sooner the farmer realizes the advantages he can obtain by raising the correct kind of birds the sooner he will be able to make a considerable amount of money, in fact, a large amount of money, out of a department of his farm which has hitherto been considered of little value to him. Full instructions as to the proper care, feeding and management of the young chicks from time of hatching to marketing, as well as particulars as to the breeds which make the most rapid flesh formers, can be had free of charge on application to me.

AN EXCELLENT OPPORTUNITY.

The "Investors' Fund" offers an excellent opportunity to invest capital where it will bring a regular monthly income. And the Surplus Profits if allowed to accumulate will largely increase the original investment and the income derived from it.

The "Investors' Fund" is NOT AN EXPERIMENT—It is conducted on sound business principles, and only the most reliable of the standard Railroads and Industrial securities are dealt in.

The outlook for the "Investors' Fund" was never more promising than at present. We expect the next six months to be exceptional active ones in the financial market and we look forward confidently to this period of increased activity which will assure larger earnings for the Fund.

Briefly outlined its method of operation as follows: The "Investors' Fund" pays Investors 4 per cent per month out of the Gross Earnings. A large percentage of the Surplus Profits over Gross Earnings is credited Investors and distributed above this monthly dividend is credited Investors and distributed or re-invested every three months as desired, and a portion of the Earnings is set aside as a Reserve Fund. This Reserve Fund is the Investors' safeguard as it reduces all risks on our operations to a minimum.

The plans of investment place the advantages of the Fund within the reach of everyone. Under the regular plan any amount from $50 upwards is received for investment and Certificate issued with monthly Coupons attached. (The coupons are endorsed by the holders each month as they fall due and forwarded to our office where they will receive prompt attention.) We have a special monthly payment plan also.

Its past success and the conservative manner in which it is conducted has raised the "Investors' Fund" to a position of gratifying prominence and popularity, and it includes among its Investors many of the shrewdest and ablest business and professional men in the Dominion.
