LOCAL NEWS.

Go to the Shoe Store for fall wear.
WANTED--Housekeeper, at once. This office.

FOR SALE.--Pure Bred Jersey Bull Calf, Registered Pedigree. Apply to F. PEEL.

A BRIEF reference to the death of Mr. Edward Parrott, son of Mrs. J. Parrott here, will be found on page 5.

The home of the Rev. J. M. Miller was brightened again about ten days ago by the arrival of a son.

As there were no fewer than five Editors at the World's Fair we deem it expedient to defer further comments suffice to say that the proceeds of the day amounted to about $230.

MR. WM. SHARP, the Up-town Implement Agent, has purchased a fine building lot on Garafraxa street just north of Mr. Mockler's store, and will move his implement shop down town in a week or so.

PARLIAMENT was dissolved by order in Council on Monday, and in Tuesday's Globe and World the date of nomination was given for Wednesday, Nov. 7th. Only four weeks now to complete the canvas and learn by the voice of the people, who is to rule the country for the next five years.

The brick-work on the new McIntyre block was completed on Tuesday noon, and everything is now in shape for the carpenters to rush ahead. The building will be a fine addition to the business portion of the town and reflects much credit on Mr. McIntyre, whom we regard as the leading citizen of Durham in pushing along material improvements.

The item we had last week about high rates for building property brings a letter from Mr. Thos. Jackson, of Clinton, to say that he will be in Durham about the 18th and will be prepared to sell all the property held on Lambton and Bruce streets. No doubt he intends to sell right and intending purchasers will do well to get ready for business.

MESSRS. SANDLOS AND HERTEL, two of the local poultrymen, made a complete win at the Durham Show. They exhibited twenty-one birds, consisting of White Wyandottes, Golden Wyandottes, Light Brahmas and Banded Plymouth Rocks and drew twenty-one red cards.--Hanover Post. [There must be a mistake somewhere, as Messrs. Sandlos & Hertel received first and second prizes in some cases and in one or two others, Mr. Holt, of Durham, got away with the first prize.--Ed.]

OUR recommendation in last issue to consider the advisability of building stone bridges over the river has not been altogether fruitless, and some have gone so far as to say that properly constructed stone bridges in other places have stood for ages and the test of time has apparently very little influence towards their destruction and think the hint given is not only worthy of consideration but deserves to be put to the test of actual experiment. There are hundreds of such structures in the Old Land that have borne the wear of scores of years and are yet unimpaired. Let the matter be considered and the cost counted.

POLITICAL independence is a gross misnomer in nine cases out of ten and the running of a thoroughly independent paper has never yet had more than an imaginary existence. Only a short time ago the Thornbury Standard changed hands, and in his salutatory address, Mr. Duncan Marshall, the new proprietor announced that the "paper would be independent but not neutral." The paper has certainly not been neutral, but of late savored so much of Criticism as to cause "some little complaint" that the paper is not as independent as the editor claimed it would be. Since purchasing the "Standard," the "Clarksburg Reflector" has also been bought, and now the amalgamated papers are strenuously engaged in striving to champion the cause of Mr. C. W. Hartman, the Liberal candidate, who has the bold temerity to take the field against Br. Sproule, in East Grey. In last week's issue the "Standard-Reflector" says: "We believe that the cause of independence can best be served in East Grey by the election of Mr. C. W. Hartman, who is pledged to no political party, but who, if elected, will go to the House of Commons with a free hand." If the Reflector can make the independent electors of East Grey believe that Mr. Hartman will do other than go straight Grit on any issue that affects the party interests, his fortune will be made and as a persuasive power in party journalism, he will stand alone, unrivaled.

MR. D. McCOSKERY offers for sale Lot 8, Con. 1, N. D. R., Glenelg. See his ad.

LOST--The first of September, a black Berkshire sow pig, about six months old. Finder will be rewarded by giving information leading to her recovery. 3

THE Rev. J. G. Shearer, Secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance, will give a lecture on "Our Imperilled Sabbath" in the town hall on Friday, October 19th, at 8 p. m. Mr. Shearer will also preside at a conference in the same place at 4 p. m., to which all interested in the work of Alliance are cordially invited.

SUPPER AND ENTERTAINMENT--At Zion church, Wednesday next week. Invitations have been sent to Dr. Lauderkin, M. Richardson, Rev. Mr. Campbell, Corinth, Dr. Jamieson, M. P. P., Editors Ramage and Irwin, and others. Admission 20c and 10c. Everybody invited.

THE Fergus Canadian, a successful newspaper venture started by Mr. E. W. Johnston about a year and a half ago, changed hands last week, the new proprietors being Messrs. McKewen Mills and Hammill. We hope they may keep up the breezy reputation the paper has already won.

We omitted to mention some time ago that Mr. Robt. Aljoe, jr., received a severe horse kick on the shin. Though the accident occurred three or four weeks ago he is not yet able to leave his room, but we hope a change for the better will soon come.

THE Listowel Business College and Shorthand Institute has opened its fall and winter terms with good success, and have received five applications from ex-pupils of other business colleges who have decided to complete their study of the theory and practice of shorthand at this institution. This certainly speaks well for the character of the instruction imparted, and should be the means of deciding those who desire a business training at what college they will pursue it. For illustrated catalogue and terms apply to C. L. HART, Principal.

WHILE feeding, the treadle press at the Review last week, Mr. John Campbell, an employee in the office, met with a painful accident by which he will be laid off for a couple of weeks at least. It seems he undertook to straighten up a tax that was going crooked, when the pressure came on too suddenly with what result, every press man will understand may be more easily imagined than described. We are pleased, however, that no bones were broken though the hand is badly bruised. The "throw-off" happened to fly back, and owing to this a more serious injury has been averted.

QUICK WORK.--A week ago last Thursday the papers referring to the death of the late W. H. Benton were sent to the office of the Canadian Order of Foresters, of which he was a member, and on Saturday last a cheque for the amount of his Beneficiary Certificate was received by the secretary of the Local Court here. A little less than nine days, including adjustment of claims and transmission both ways, is pretty quick work, and shows how willingly this fraternal organization responds to the claims for which they become liable. The wisdom of the deceased gentleman in keeping up his insurance is a most commendable feature, which many others should adopt and provide for those who may be deprived of the chief bread winner by the hand of death.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

We have to announce to the general public that we have removed our stock to McKechnie's old Stand, Garafraxa Street, and are now open for business. We will be pleased to have all our friends and much esteemed customers to continue their very appreciated patronage. Our stock will continue and consist of up-to-date goods in all lines, Dry Goods, Ready made Clothing, Hats and Caps, Boots and Shoes, and a complete line of Groceries. Goods and prices are always right. Call and investigate. All are welcome. C. MCARTHUR.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. Donald McCoskery, of Toronto, gave us a call yesterday. Messrs. W. B. and Jas. Cruikshanks, of Heathcote, were in town last week.

Rev. Wray R. Smith heard the celebrated Rev. Sheldon, in Guelph, last week.

Mr. Geo. Wardrobe, of Flesherton, gave us a call Tuesday on his way to visit friends in Walkerton.

Mr. Archie Brown, of Owen Sound, is spending a few days with his parents and friends in town.

Mr. Walter Park, of McGill Medical College, Montreal, is home to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Jas. McAuley.

Miss Annie Robertson returned last week from Ottawa, where she spent about three months, visiting her sister, Mrs. Marshall.

Mr. and Mrs. David McCrie, of Normandy, are spending a few weeks with relatives in the neighborhood of Sarnia, Detroit, Chatham and London.

Mrs. W. A. Rose, of Chilliwack, B. C., has been visiting her father-in-law, Mr. Hugh Rose, Mrs. Jake Kross and other friends and relatives in town.

Mr. Archie McDougall, for some time foreman on this paper, is seriously ill at present, and though we sincerely hope for his recovery his parents and friends are very apprehensive.

Mrs. Wm. Alexander, of Hepworth Station, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. A. Lawson, and several others in the vicinity of Hutton Hill.

Rev. and Mrs. Boone, of London, are visiting the McDougall family in response to a call prompted by the serious illness of the latter's brother, Mr. Archie McDougall.

Mr. W. Scott, Immigration Agent, of Winnipeg, visited last week with his brothers, Messrs. Samuel and Andrew Scott, and other friends and relatives in town and vicinity.

Mrs. J. E. Shorey, of Toronto, Miss Lizzie Parrot, Toronto, and Miss Mary Parrot, Guelph, attended the funeral of their brother, Mr. Edward Parrot.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Brown, of Seattle, Washington, left Tuesday morning for home after spending two or three weeks with relatives and friends in town. They purpose stopping off at Chicago, St. Pauls and a number of other places on the trip home, so that it will be a couple of months yet before they reach the coast.

Morlock's Millinery Opening.

The Millinery Openings at Mr. S. F. Morlock's were held on Friday and Saturday of last week, in the new premises into which Mr. Morlock had just moved. Notwithstanding the unsettled condition of the store, the newly papered ceiling and walls, together with the artistic drapery at the rear to separate the millinery department from the general, lent a charmingly attractive appearance to the place, and arrested the eye of the visitor from what under other conditions might appear unsightly.

Miss Bowes, of Harriston, is in charge of the millinery department, and for the first had an opportunity to "size up" many, whose attractiveness she felt anxious to intensify by adding a suitable and becoming piece of head gear. Many ladies and gentlemen were present to take in the sights, and many were the compliments paid on the artistic delicacy, displayed in the various tasty hats and bonnets of all conceivable shapes and sizes, in accordance with the prevailing customs of the season.

The Lady Roberts, Lady Smith, Pretoria, North-west and Flirt, are names by which some of the hats on exhibition were known. The New Knox, a fashionable sailor hat, is likely to find a good run this season.

We refer only to the following, about which our attempt at description must be brief for obvious reasons, however, we would suggest that all ladies see for themselves rather than order on our description:

1. New pompadour.--Blue velvet finely sherry under brim and crown, brilliant buckle at back, large blueish white breast at each side of front on brim, large puff of silk in front.
2. Black silk velvet picture hat with brim of folds, black satin folds on under brim.--Trimmed with long black ostrich plumes and black ospreys liberty astrich and fancy pins.
3. Large black silk velvet hat.--Drooping shape, draped tam crown, with bend of jet at back, black satin ribbon bow at back, two long black ostrich jets falling over front, side band of jet.
4. Pretty little gray felt turban.--Trimmed with gray silk velvet and pink silk, large gray and white gull in front.
5. Purple silk velvet turban.--With pink rim. On side front is a large greenish brown bird.

THE LIQUOR MEN AND HUGH JOHN.

Calls His Temperance Supporters in Manitoba Fanatical Bigots and Advises the Whiskey Men to Take Stand Against Him.

The Licensed Victuallers' Association of Montreal is the militant body of liquor men in Canada. This organization keeps its eye on the political outlook, insofar as "the traffic" is concerned. At the last meeting of the Association in Montreal the president, Mr. Lawrence A. Wilson, made a bitter attack upon Hon. Hugh John McDonald, in consequence of the latter having enacted a law putting into force prohibition in Manitoba. President Wilson said:

"Before entering into the subject which I wish to bring before you today, I wish to state that in this connection all politics are eliminated. The by-laws of our association do not even allow the discussion of politics within our deliberations. Every member squares his views as best suits the relations of his business to the policy of the party in power. A member may be a Conservative or a Liberal. That is for him to consider, but when his very existence and that of his little ones are weighed in the balance, then it behooves every member to consider what path he should pursue in the matter.

THE APPROACHING CAMPAIGN.

"We are at present about to enter into a campaign, in which one section of the people will support the Liberals and another section the Conservatives. With many it is a question of sentiment; with us it is purely a business proposition. We all know the Hon. G. E. Foster's position on the question of prohibition, and with the presence of Hugh John McDonald, in the event of the Conservative party being returned, his hands would immeasurably be strengthened, and that which is the fate of our friends in Manitoba to-day may be ours to-morrow.

AFRAID OF HUGH JOHN.

"Hugh John Macdonald was elected Premier of Manitoba not many months ago. One of the principal planks of the platform which caught the fanatical vote was prohibition. Immediately upon assuming office he redeemed his pledge, and passed a prohibitory law, which will blot out on June 1, 1900, every licensed victualler of that province. Needless to tell you of the ruin and destruction he is causing and will cause to our brethren of that province. He is now seeking admission to the councils of the whole Dominion, and I would ask you in common sense whether the election of such a man and his presence in the Cabinet would not be a menace to the livelihood of ourselves and families.

THE POSITION OF THE TRADE.

"This is not political sentiment; it is simply hard facts, and I would ask you to consider and to weigh well the position of the trade in this matter. Our friends in Manitoba have been ruined by Hugh John Macdonald. Are we to permit ourselves to be ruined also? This is for you to consider, and for you to judge. Hugh John Macdonald is now knocking at the door of the House of supreme power of the Dominion, to do with us as he has done with our friends in Manitoba.

"It is of no account to me what a man's politics are, that is his own business; but I would ask the common sense of the trade of the whole Dominion whether it is within the possibilities that you will calmly submit to help to admit a man who has so unmistakably declared himself your enemy.

WANTS CANDIDATES PLEDGED.

"Let every licensed victualler in Canada who supports a candidate of either party demand that such candidate publicly have his views declared to his constituency on the subject of prohibition, and state what course he will adopt in the event of legislation being submitted to the Dominion power. Time has come when we must be able to distinguish our enemies from our friends.

"We also demand in justice that the tariff upon wines and spirits be revised, giving the people a more equitable scale of prices. Why should the poor man be taxed more for his toddy than the millionaire is for his champagne and fine wines? We do not seek to decrease the revenue on these commodities, but we want a readjustment that will satisfy the great public, and put an end to monopolies enriching the few."

MR. JONES TAKES EXCEPTION.

At the conclusion of Mr. Wilson's remarks, Mr. Arthur Jones said that the meeting was not assembled to discuss political questions. In the first place it was against the rules and regulations of the Association to even mention in public session the names of political or prospective political candidates. Mr. Jones then moved the following resolution which was seconded by Mr. Victor Bougie, and unanimously adopted:

"Considering that the federal elections will take place in the near future, it is advisable, and in the interest of the liquor dealers throughout the Dominion, that, before deciding in favour of a candidate, they should obtain from him a formal promise to pronounce himself in favour of and work for a change of the tariff so as to obtain a reduction of the duties, actually so excessive, and a more judicious redistribution."

A NEW brick store and dwelling is in progress a few yards south of this office on Garafraxa street. Mr. Geo. Lawrence is going into business and purchased recently a portion of the McKenzie property. The building will be about 20 by 50 feet, two storeys high with basement.

YOUNG people's day will be celebrated in the Methodist church on Sunday, a. m. and p. m. In the a. m. at 11 o'clock a sermon by the pastor with notes on the Guelph convention. In the p. m. a platform meeting with four addresses by the young people of the Zion and Durham Methodist churches. Good singing. Strangers invited. Hymn books provided. The Dominion hymnal will be used.

We have to thank Mr. W. D. Mills for a magnificent calendar of the Imperial Life Assurance Co., of Canada, of which he is the District Agent. Starting with September of this year it includes the balance of 1900 and the whole of 1901. The military and patriotic spirit of the age is shown in the illustrations worked into the lithograph heading in the centre of which at the top is Queen Victoria at the bottom is the British lion and at the corners Generals Roberts, Otter, Baden-Powell and White.

Harvest Home Festival

THE Harvest Home Anniversary Festival in connection with Varney Church was held on Monday night last, and like its predecessors was a social and financial success. A sumptuous supper consisting of an abundance of fowl and other choice eatables was served in the Orange Hall, after which a program was disposed of in the Church. Rev. Farquharson and Smith, of Durham, and Mr. Wm. Allen, of Egremont, made short pithy addresses. Mr. Farquharson speaking on "Mistakes," Mr. Smith on "Moonshine," and Mr. Allan on human inconsistencies especially along temperance lines in the exercise of the franchise. Dr. Brown, of Holstein, sang three excellent solos, Miss Middleboro', being the able accompanist and Mr. Gilmore, favored the audience with a patriotic recitation. The proceeds were about $43.

THE cement question seems to hang fire just yet, and the application for the charter has not been made. For reasons we do not deem wise to mention at this juncture there are local men, who have full confidence in the genuineness of the industry standing aloof from taking stock. We regret that anything should come in as a hindrance to the town's progress, but that such is the case it would be folly to deny. A meeting was held last night, but we were not present and are therefore not in a position to give away anything that was said or done, but, one thing we do feel is, that should local men refuse to take action, the Klondike we have around us will not long go undeveloped. In fact we have already heard that a Chicago capitalist is taking the question into consideration. We want the works here, and their full development will be the making of the town and surrounding country.

It is with feelings of sorrow we chronicle this week the death of Mrs. McAuley, who died here on Monday morning last at the early age of thirty-one years. The deceased was a daughter of Mr. James Park, of Bentinck, and was married a little over three years to Mr. James McAuley, who, with two little girls, one only six months old and the other two years, remain to mourn the loss of an affectionate wife and mother. Four brothers and five sisters remain also to grieve over one whom they can never recall. The brothers are Archie, James and Thomas, in this vicinity, and Walter, who is at present a student at McGill Medical College, Montreal. The sisters are Mrs. John Park, Detroit, Mrs. Robt. Nichol, Hampden, Mrs. Thos. Nichol, of Colorado, Mrs. Gilbert Grierson, of Langden, N. D., and Miss Bessie, at home here. The deceased lady, who was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church, was highly respected in the community, and many of her old associates feel the loss very deeply. For some few months the deceased was not in very robust health, and an attack of typhoid added made her a prey to the hand of death. Our sympathies are extended to the bereaved ones.
