HITS AND MISSES.
 "I thank God I'm not Irish" said Pete Paterson to Christy Williams, but he had the words hardly uttered when Christy replied "I thank God I am Irish." The crowd laughed and Pete sneaked.

Hugh John's nose is one of the "prominent features" of Grit newspaper argument in the present campaign. It's quite in line with the party rule to magnify small things.

It's awfully strange that only foolish people bring us to task for our foolish sayings. No one of any weight ever tackles the job.

The local papers are devoting so much space to prize lists that they read like imperfect township directories more than anything else.

Though Hugh John is said to be "a chip off the old block" the Grits will find out that he isn't a wooden man.

It would be a good time to buy land in Durham when the assessor is going his rounds. The owner would then value it at $20 an acre, next day it will be up to $25 a foot.

The Conservatives are charged with trying "to lie the government out of office." What nonsense! The truth is more than they can stand.

To get off safe in the newspaper business a man should know botany enough to distinguish at sight between a dahlia and a sunflower.

At 2 a. m. the night bell rang, the drug clerk lit his lamp then dressed and down the stair case sprang, and sold a postage stamp.

A Sad Home-Coming.
 On Thursday morning last the home of Mrs. Parrott was saddened on receiving a telegram from Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, announcing that on the night previous her son Edward, a young man of twenty-six years of age had died in the hospital there from the effects of sun stroke and a subsequent attack of typhoid.

Arrangements were at once made to have the remains sent home, and on arrival of Friday night train a sad procession followed the lifeless form to the home of a sorrowing mother, and the other members of the family, John, a brother of the deceased who lives in Chicago was telegraphed for, but owing to sickness in his own family he was unable to be present. Mrs. Stephen Todd, of Grand Valley, was also absent on account of ill health. The remaining members of the family were present, amongst them being Mrs. Shorey, of Toronto, and two other sisters, Misses Lizzie and Mary, of Toronto and Guelph respectively.

The deceased left home last November for Chicago, and after spending a short time there he went to Manitoba and subsequently to Pittsburg where death overtook him as already intimated. He was a steady, industrious young man, highly esteemed by his companions, and much respected by all who knew him. Besides his mother and the brother and sisters already referred to he leaves two other brothers Joseph and Charles engaged at the Old Stand where for many years their father, who died four years ago, conducted a successful business at tinsmithing.

The remains were interred on Sunday afternoon at Trinity Church Cemetery.

We extend our sympathy to the bereaved ones.

BUNESSAN.
 W. Firth, of Escanaba, Mich., is home for a few weeks' visit. He looks as broad and as stout as ever. Perched high on a big trunk was the last we saw of Hugh Campbell, as he commenced his journey out west. He has leased his farm to A. Little for a term of five years.

There was an apple paring bee at the Rob Roy, followed by an interesting period of games, etc. A small load of young people were out from town.

In our last budget we neglected, entirely, noticing the fact that Charlie Kennedy and his sister, Mary, were on a visit home. We hope they will pardon the omission.

Mr. S. McComb left for the west a few days ago. If he finds a favorable opportunity out there he may settle.

W. McLaren, of Proton, was in the neighborhood for a few days this week.

There was a fairly well attended prayer meeting and baptismal service at A. Firth's last Tuesday evening. The Rev. Farquharson conducted it. A. C. Beaton started a gang making square timber last week. Another will be started later.

Messrs. Kinnee and Saunders deepened the school well last week. It is hoped there will be a good supply of water for the little people now.

Mr. Alex. Bell, Jr., is home from the lower settlements for a while. He has been ill, but is now about all right again. His sister, Maggie, from Toronto, was also up.

C. McArthur's barn has, at last, got the shingles on it. Charlie has every reason to be grateful to his many neighbors and relatives for the help they have given him this year.

Mary Brown has returned to Hamilton after a few months' pleasant stay at home. There will be a few more postage stamps needed now.

Miss Mary Morton was visiting in the neighborhood.

Mr. A. Watson, wife and mother, from Paisley, visited at A. C. Beaton's recently.

The other day we noticed the stalwart form of Donald McCoskery once more on the Durham Road. He's one of your swell city chaps now, but don't forget his old friends for all that.

 Miss Mary Glencross left for Toronto last Thursday to remain for the winter.

Bright and observant Miss Rinsman, of the Queen City, is the guest of Miss Sue Greenwood, at present.

Mr. George Blair combined business with pleasure at Flesheron Fair last week. He brought home a thoroughbred Tamworth hog.

It is nine years since we met the Vandelear "Wanderer" but on meeting him last Thursday, we found him alert, genial and young-looking as ever.

Mr. Patterson, of Beverly spent a couple of days of the past week with his brother-in-law, Mr. Adam Robson.

Mr. Wm. Cook is putting cement floors into his stables. Sam Lawrence, Jr., has the contract.

It has been a prosperous year with Mr. E. W. Hunt. A 12-pound boy arrived at his home Tuesday of last week.

The Glencross bridge is down and the contractors are busy on the buttments of the new one.

Mr. R. Reed, of Paisley, accompanied by two of his grandchildren from Michigan, are over on a visit to relatives here.

A baker's dozen of fair ones had a rag-sewing bee at Mrs. T. Cook's on Thursday last.

There's nothing so gladdening to the heart of a son of Erin as to have a monster crop of potatoes and there are few things that so excites his pathetic feelings as to see an editor without a housekeeper and unable to take a "bag of praties" to win a widow with.

Zionites have decided to hold a monster meeting on Wednesday evening, Oct. 17. A fine supper will be served first in the old church, and afterwards a grand literary and musical treat will be held in the new. Invitations have been sent to Dr. Landerkin, Dr. Jamieson, Mr. M. Richardson, Editors Ramage, of the Review, and Irwin, of the Chronicle, and to Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, of Corinth. Local talent will also be to the front. Admission only 20c., children half-fare.

CORNER CONCERNS.
 Nearly everybody in this part has made a trip to the cider mill and now during the long evenings there is likely to be many social calls.

Teacher Dixon after two years' successful teaching in our school has resigned and may possibly take a short rest to regain good health which he has not lately had. Donald McDonald of No. 1, Normanby, has been engaged in his place, Mr. Mc has been on the Chronicle Staff which is a good recommendation for him as a hustler. He has had many years' experience in his profession as well.

Mr. Jas. Johnston who has been one of our steadiest and most reliable young men, has started out to seek fortune. We predict for him a fair amount of success.

Mr. Jas. McMeekin is, we are glad to hear, recovering from some bruises received in an upset.

Mrs. J. E. Burrows, of Paisley, spent last week with friends in this part. She is right jolly good company and we are all glad to see her call round.

Scott's Emulsion

of Cod Liver Oil is the means of life, and enjoyment of life to thousands: men women and children.

When appetite fails, it restores it. When food is a burden, it lifts the burden.

When you lose flesh, it brings the plumpness of health.

When work is hard and duty is heavy, it makes life bright.

It is the thin edge of the wedge; the thick end is food. But what is the use of food, when you hate it, and can't digest it?

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is the food that makes you forget your stomach.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample, its agreeable taste will surprise you.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists.
 Toronto.
 50c. and $1.00; all druggists.

Nearly everybody around here is going to the Varney Church Supper to-night (Monday). They are going early too. They have taken the hint from last issue to get there before the Durham contingent.

Esther Tucker accompanied her grandparents home to Belgrave and will remain for a few months.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hunter, who were recently made man and wife, attended the Holstein Fair and were the recipients of many hand shakes and congratulations. Mrs. Hunter will be better known to many of your readers as Miss Lizzie Aitken. We wish them much happiness.

EDGE HILL
 Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Firth and Miss Mary Spittel visited Chesley last week.

Misses Kate and Clara Traynor, of Walkerton, are visiting their cousin, Mrs. D. Greenwood of the avenue.

Mrs. William Edge is visiting friends and relatives in and around Walkerton.

Dr. Staples, of Hanover, was the guest of his brother, George, on Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Greenwood, accompanied by their cousin, Miss Dollie Kinsman, visited friends in Mt. Forest and Orchardville last week.

Mrs. Robt. Ecter and her two daughters, Misses Sadie and Lizzie, visited in Greenoch for a few days.

Miss Annie Aljoe leaves this week for Toronto. She will be much missed by her many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Williams left for their home in Hamilton on Friday last after spending a month with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Williams.

The home of Mr. George Ritchie was brightened last week by the arrival of another son.
