TRAVERSTON

It has been the finest autumn we ever remember experiencing.

Sorry to hear that Mrs. Ford, of the 4th, is laid up with pleurisy, and Mr. Robt. Allen with fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wilson, of Flesherston, feasted at the old McClocklin homestead on Thanksgiving Day. Mark had a big day of sport, but bagged only a partridge.

Mrs. Hamilton and Mrs. Alton, of Markdale, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds on Sunday.

Messrs. Will Jack and Jas. Nelson drove over from Singhampton on Saturday evening and out to Zion on Sunday.

Mrs. Neil McKechnie, of town, was out to the old home on the first of the week.

Boys galore! On Sunday Oct. 14, to the Chronicle scribe and partner, boy No. 4.

Mr. Alex Lamont and sister, of Caledon, spent a few hours at the old Edwards home last week.

Miss Lizzie Hunt, of town, came out with the big load on Wednesday night, last, and spent a day at her brother's.

Miss Bee Whittaker, of Caledon, is expected up this week on a visit to relatives here.

Horses are exchanging owners fast out this way. Mr. A. Robson has secured a new driver; Mr. Will Cook disposed of one to Mr. Bell, of Dromore for $90, and Sam Edwards sold a two-year-old to H. Moffat for $70.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Barber, of near Holstein were visiting at Mr. Wm Greenwood's on Sunday.

Miss Allie Banks and her cousin drove over from Dundalk at the close of the week to see her brother, Jim, who is sick with fever.

Mr. and Mrs. John McNally, of the 6th, were out to the latter's old home in Bentinck, to a social gathering on Friday next.

Though the 3 P's—printers, politicians and parsons,—billed for Zion's entertainment, failed to get there, still an excellent programme was given and the edibles abundant to feed the crowd and slashings for a social the following night. A pleasant incident during the evening was a presentation to Mrs. John Love of a fancy book case, lamp, an oil painting and some silverware, by the congregation, Choir, League and Sunday School, of which she has been the late organist. Rev. Wray R. Smith made an affable, tactful chairman.

Reeve Staples was as bright as ever. Miss Abbie Robson knows how to recite. The solos by Mr. Wm. Falkingham, Miss Carrie Greenwood and Mrs. W. J. Edwards were well received. The Durham young people were a handsome lot and did some fancy courting on the long trip home. Proceeds of soiree and social about $30.

A very happy event took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pelton, 82 Maude Ave., Grand Rapids, Mich., on Wednesday evening, Oct. 10th, when graceful Miss Lottie McNally, fifth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McNally, of the 6th con. Glenelg, was married to Mr. Jesse Percy, of Dayton, Ohio. The sweet strains of the wedding march were played by Miss M. Burns, as the bridal party took their places in the pretty parlour. Rev. Mr. Sturgis soon tied the mystic knot in the presence of a few intimate friends and relatives. The young couple will begin home-making at 84 1st street in the city of Grand Rapids. We wish them a joyous future with health and prosperity to attend them.

ALLAN PARK

Well, Mr. Editor, it is quite a while since we sent in a budget, so we thought we would send in a few lines to let you know that we are living yet.

The threshing is about all done in this part, and everybody seems well pleased with the turnout of grain.

Mr. Abraham Porter, of Hepworth, was visiting at his parent's and other friends last week.

We are pleased to report that Miss Margaret Mervyn is able to be out again after a couple of weeks' illness of Diphtheria.

Mrs. O'Neill is home again after spending the summer visiting at her daughter's, Mrs. Hugh McLean, of Manitoba.

You talk about mangels and turnips, but one of our neighbors can down anything in potatoes. We were informed that one potato served the dinner of a gang of threshing men. Who can beat this?

There is some talk of organizing a joint stock grist mill. The only obstacle in the way is to find a good water power. If such can be found the farmers are ready to take stock and the work would go ahead.

Mr. W. D. Mills, of Durham, and Mr. W. Hunt, of Vickers, spent Thanksgiving at Mr. Person's and put in a while hunting with Mr. Person.

While Mr. James Mahan was attending a threshing lately he got some dust of some kind in his eye. The result has turned to inflammation and he is in danger of losing the eye.

Mrs. Edward Hopkins spent last week visiting at her sister's, Mrs. Robt. Smith, of Vickers.

The trustees of this section have decorated the school with a beautiful Union Jack, which adds greatly to the appearance of the school, and the next jump will be a nice bell. Go ahead, boys, it is worthy of it.

Mr. Johh Beckenhaur had a bee on Monday drawing stores for his new barn, which he intends to build next summer.

TOT CAUSES NIGHT ALARM

"One night my brother's baby was taken with Croup," writes Mrs. J. C. Snider, of Crittenden, Ky., "it seemed it would strangle before we could get a doctor, so we gave it Dr. King's New Discovery, which gave quick relief and permanently cured it. We always keep it in the house to protect our children from Croup and Whooping Cough. It cured me of a chronic bronchial trouble that no other remedy would relieve." Infallible for Coughs, Colds, Throat and Lung troubles. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at all druggists.

CORNER CONCERNS.

Pleasant anticipations turn to very sad realizations in the case of Mrs. Smallman, who came up from Toronto on the 13th to spend a few weeks with her mother, Mrs. Grasby, and try to improve the health of her baby, but instead the hand of death snatched it away the next day, and the remains were laid in Maplewood cemetery, followed by sympathizing friends and neighbors. The Rev. Mr. Ryan conducted the service. The mother has the heartfelt sympathy of all her acquaintances in her sad bereavement.

Miss Eliza Queen, of Woodland, is a handsome jolly girl, she spent last week in this part renewing old acquaintances and making new ones, but the Sharpe invitation she received to return home on Sunday has led to the belief that there may be something eventful for her in the near future, and we all patiently wait for further information.

The hand of Providence that two years ago removed the late Mrs. Micks stirred up the warm sympathies and so prostrated with grief her family that they at once sought the friendship of Messrs. Jas. Tucker and J. Andrews, to assist in a respectful burial, to dispose of her effects and settle her liabilities. Since then other agencies have changed those good purposes and this Tuesday Messrs. Tucker and Andrews are called to Orangeville to defend a suit, suing for more than the whole bag of tricks was worth at the start. Mr. Pete Black goes along to give evidence in the case.

If next season is a successful one for fall wheat Commissioner McKinnon may just board up all out doors for a fall wheat bin, he is putting so much in. We understand he has men engaged in seeding operations yet.

There are some ratepayers who grow frantic and have grave apprehensions if the school teacher does not hold one or two public examinations in the year. As Teacher Dixon is never behind in this respect, they feel a calm consciousness that all is right, and in fact get more substantial proof from those who actually do attend. There is going to be a public examination on Friday, and it is hoped there will be a larger turn out than usual.

We were just going to complain that your Varney cormorant was in our part devouring some of our items, but he reports next instant at Dornoch, where the scribe of that place announces immense quantities of mutton lying around, so he will not likely bother us again for a while.

Mr. Daves Gordon left last week for Michigan, where he intends to spend the winter months.

Thanks for the privilege of an even start with the rest of the fellows after our holiday caused by fall show reports. As Egremont show, the world's fair, is much greater than any of the surrounding shows, we naturally expected to lay off much longer than the rest, and we consider the invitation a special privilege.

Mr. Jas. McLaughlan spent last week in Henfrin, assisting his brother-in-law, Mr. S. Wright in burning his brick kiln.

Mr. H. N. Wilder was at boiling heat all last week. They bubbled out over the back of his neck in a dozen places, and kept him on the move both night and day.

A number of our young men attended E. O. Taylor's analysing test on Monday night to see how much firing there is in a glass of beer, or if it would make safe cheap fuel. They report in the negative.

Thanksgiving feasts were not so plentiful Thursday, as of former years. There are few ripe turkeys yet.

Mr. Robt. Gray, who is on a visit from Hamilton, was out this way with his gun on Saturday and bagged a stray cat. He will now have cat-sap for desert.

Mr. Adam Hillis left a week ago for Shallow Lake, and Willie Black is talking of going in a few days to pass away a little time until the Durham branch is in shape to employ them.

WITHOUT SLEEP.

The vitality of the body is soon exhausted. Sleeplessness is one of the symptoms of starved nerves. It is a warning of the approach of nervous prostration or paralysis. Don't be tempted to use narcotics or opiates. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food will gradually build up and reconstruct the wasted nerve cells and positively cure all nervous diseases. It is nature's greatest restorative, recommended by your druggist.

Nervous Debility.

A Sufferer From Weak Blood and Exhausted Nerves Tells of His Cure by Using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Mr. A. T. P. Lalame, railway agent at Clarenceville, Que., writes:—"For twelve years I have been run down with nervous debility. I suffered much, and consulted doctors, and used medicines in vain. Some months ago I heard of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, used two boxes, and my health improved so rapidly that I ordered twelve more. "I can say, frankly, that this treatment has no equal in the medical world. While using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I could feel my system being built up until now I am strong and healthy. I cannot recommend it too highly for weak, nervous people."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is a tonic and restorative of inestimable worth. It makes the blood rich, the nerves strong, increases the weight, and cures all weaknesses and diseases of the nerves and blood. In pill form, 50 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanston, Bates and Co., Toronto.
