

A NATION'S WELCOME. FOUGHT WITH THE BAYONET MORE CANADIANS COMING.

Great Torchlight Procession to the Returning Troops.

A despatch from Halifax, N. S., says—Halifax went wild over the transport of the first Canadian contingent. From dawn till midnight there was continuous rejoicing. The transport moved up the harbor slowly from her anchorage at quarantine, leaving there at 9.30 o'clock. The harbor front was lined with thousands of people, whose cheers mingled with the shrieking of steam whistles and the booming of cannon from the Citadel.

At 7 o'clock the soldiers were moving around busy getting ready for disembarkment. Paying off commenced as soon as Col. Pinault, Deputy Minister of Militia, and his assistant from the department at Ottawa got on board, and was continued expeditiously. The amount each man received was about $91, the Canadian pay of 26 cents. They received their Imperial pay of 24 cents per diem regularly in Africa, besides the $5 Imperial bonus at Cape Town, before leaving.

The voyage from Cape Town was comparatively uneventful, thanks largely to having a commodious transport of nearly 6,000 tons gross, and only 21-2 years old. BROKE TWO PROPELLER BLADES The ship had fine weather, and without warning, on Friday, Oct. 6th, at noon, two blades of the propeller broke off. The position was latitude 34.48 north, long. 45.49 west. The weather was fine and the sea smooth. This accident reduced the speed of the ship to ten knots and even then the steamer would have arrived Tuesday, but a fierce blow was encountered that afternoon, which lasted until next morning.

THE CITIZEN'S BANQUET. The splendid citizens' banquet was the great feature of the afternoon. It was given in one of the large rooms of the Armouries, and was most brilliant. Two hundred young ladies waited on the tables, which were lavishly spread. The arrangements were carried out with every perfection of detail. To the right of the Mayor sat Major Pelletier, Admiral Bedford and Captain Lane. On his left were Captain Stairs, Governor Jones, Col. Bischoff, and R. L. Borden. Before the company separated speeches were delivered by Mayor Hamilton, and Governor Jones.

Admiral Bedford followed the Governor. He expressed his great pleasure as a officer at being present both at the going and the home-coming of the soldiers. Britons were proud to show to the world that whenever trouble arose the sons of the Empire would gather around the men from the British Isles and fight by their side.

CAPTURE AN OUTPOST.

General Botha's Sister Fires Upon British. A despatch from London says:—The British Office has received the following from Lord Roberts, dated Johannesburg, October 31:—"General Rundle occupied Bethlehem, October 31, driving the Boers from two strong positions three miles south of that town. General Rundle had three killed and 17 wounded, the latter including Lord Gerald Richard Grosvenor. General Rundle's men have been engaged daily with parties of Boers, varying in number from 30 to 50. He was compelled to burn West's farm, because a messenger carrying a copy of my last proclamation was fired on from the verandah by West's. Wessels, who is a sister of General Botha."

HANWELL KILLED.

Despatches from London say:—The British Office has received the following from Lord Roberts, dated at Johannesburg, October 30:—"In consequence of numerous attacks on the Orange River, Hunter drove the enemy out of the Orangeburg with slight opposition. Major Hanwell was mortally wounded."

Force of Boers Attack Pickets on Orange River.

A despatch from Cape Town says:—"A force of two hundred Boers attacked the Cape Police picket at Palmfontein. After two hours' fighting the Boers retired, but maintained a running fight for some distance along the north bank of the Orange river. One policeman was wounded. The Boer casualties are not known."

CONTINGENT OFFICERS.

Major Pelletier was received with cheers. He said:—"As officer commanding this detachment, I beg you will allow me to be the echo of those under my command and to thank you most sincerely for the kind words with which you have just welcomed us to dear old Canada. When a year ago it was found necessary that the British colonies should show the world their fidelity and attachment to the Mother Country, Canada was foremost to offer her share of assistance to the cause of justice and equity which our Home Government had undertaken to uphold. Myself and my comrades here have had the honour to form part of Canada's representative troops in that memorable campaign, and we have done our utmost to be worthy of the honour which had been entrusted to us. A year full of events has elapsed since we left Canada, but the hardships experienced and the inevitably sad scenes which accompany all wars have already lost their impressiveness, amongst those whom God has spared to return to their native land and amidst the homes they love. The campaign has also been a fruitful of experiences to us as soldiers, which, we trust, should Canada again unfortunately require occasion, will be of great value to her. I thank you again in the name of my comrades, and let me be their interpreter to express to you their gratitude for the very kind reception with which you have welcomed us."

Capt. Stairs said that Major Pelletier had expressed the feelings of all, and he reiterated what that officer had said as to how much they appreciated the reception given them, so spontaneous was it, and consequently the outcome of a universal sentiment of kindness. Mayor Daniel, of St. John, joined in the expressions of good will and joy that the contingent had done so nobly that it had reflected such lustre on the Canadian name.

TORCHLIGHT PROCESSION.

At night a magnificent torchlight procession took place. The streets were a perfect blaze of light. Skyrockets were thrown in all directions across the sky, and from all parts of the city bonfires blazed and fireworks were burned till the sky became lurid. The procession was the grandest spectacle of the kind ever seen in Halifax, and will never be forgotten. The returned soldiers were carried in triumph over the route. Scores of patriotic mottoes and expressions of welcome shone out. Knowing that the relatives and friends of those in the contingent were anxious to learn of the safe arrival of the brave lads, the C.P.R., Telegraph, through its manager, requested Major Pelletier to notify the men that the company would transmit free a telegram from each to his friends, notifying them of his safe arrival at Halifax. Many availed themselves of the privilege.

BOERS SURROUND VRYBURG.

All Boers Over Fourteen Taken Into Bloemfontein. A despatch from London, says:—"South African despatches state that all Boers over fourteen years of age within a dozen miles of Bloemfontein have been taken into the town to prevent them from joining commandos. A train has been derailed at Jagersfontein, and the railway at Edenburg has been wrecked by Boers. The Boers are surrounding Vryburg, on the railway north of Kimberley. Vryburg is the first town that was occupied by the burghers a year ago."

DEVASTATION IN BOTHAVILLE.

A despatch from Craddock, Cape Colony, says:—"The Dutch church is the only building left standing in Bothaville, owing, it is reported, to the strong British measures."

INDUCEMENTS TO RECRUITS.

A despatch from Cape Town, says:—"General Brabant, who has been appointed to superintend the recruiting of the Cape irregular forces appeals to the men to come forward, alleging that under the present conditions, anything like a general return of refugees is impossible."

IN CAPE COLONY.

Force of Boers Attack Pickets on Orange River. A despatch from Cape Town says:—"A force of two hundred Boers attacked the Cape Police picket at Palmfontein. After two hours' fighting the Boers retired, but maintained a running fight for some distance along the north bank of the Orange river. One policeman was wounded. The Boer casualties are not known."

Over Thirty of De Wet's Men Buried on the Field Where They Fell.

A despatch from Pretoria, via Norval's Pont, Cape Colony, says:—"Gen. Barton has had considerable success in fighting the Boers at Fredericksstad. He had been harassed by Gen. De Wet's men for some time, when he made a sudden attack with the Scots Guards and the Welsh Fusiliers and scattered the Boers with severe loss. The British buried over thirty Boers on the field. Several of these had been killed by bayonets, the fighting having been at close quarters. Three Boers who raised a white flag and afterwards fired on the British, were captured and tried by court-martial. They were found guilty and sentenced to death, and Lord Roberts approved the sentence. They were shot on the following morning in the presence of the army. It is hoped that this will prove a salutary lesson to the Boers, who have been treacherously using the white flag.

SOFT-NOSED BULLETS.

Glasgow Firm Sold the Boers 20,000 of them. A despatch from Pretoria says:—"The Concessions Commission is taking further testimony regarding the dynamite monopoly. The president, Gen. Lyttelton, continued his cross-examination of Mr. Vorstmann, who was the Government agent for the monopoly, regarding his efforts at promoting it, and the number of shares given to Dr. Gohert and others. On Tuesday he told the commission that the managing director of the company approved the expenditure of secret service money for bribery. "Sammy" Marks, who at one time controlled the spirits license monopoly, and was reported to be able to bring all the Transvaal officials, received a quarter interest in the Transvaal dynamite monopoly, of which Mr. Lippert was the concessionaire. This interest in the monopoly yielded Mr. Marks £10,000 a year. Mr. Vorstmann testified that he paid nothing to the Kruger Government for its influence, but that he paid £500 to Mr. Potgieter, a former burgomaster and £480 to Mr. DeBeer, a member of the Volksraad. The report of the accountant, which was submitted to the commission showed that 20,000 soft-nosed expanding bullets were exported from Great Britain by Nobel, of Glasgow, in September, 1899, and were sold to the late Transvaal Government in May of this year. Intelligence has reached here that Commandant-General Botha is marching with a strong force to invade Cape Colony near Kenhardt, where it is said the irreconcilable Boers are ready to join him.

SIMPLY OBEYED ORDERS.

Hunt drove into his farm yard near Binghamton, N. Y., His wife lectured him for being drunk while she unhitched the horses. But he was dead.

DE WET'S MARAUDERS.

Ravages of Guerilla Warfare in Orange River Colony.

A despatch from Bloemfontein, says:—"A resident of Harrismith gives a gloomy description of the situation in the north-eastern district of Orange Colony. Bands of Boers are moving about, shooting at sight at anyone coming within range, and looting and burning houses and stores belonging to Britishers and neutrals. The names of many of these marauders are known to the authorities, but it is impossible to catch them. Harrismith is strongly garrisoned, and the hills are fortified. The patrols, who are out every day, have swept the country clear of stock for miles. De Wet is terrorizing the residents of the small towns. Quite recently he sent word to the people of Reitz to send the women and children away, as he intended to smash the place with artillery. Lindley is reported to be a heap of ruins, the houses having been wantonly wrecked by Boer briganda.

There is much feeling among the whites owing to the military authorities having permitted Indians to open stores in Harrismith. Before the war no Indians were allowed to trade in the Free State. When last in occupation of Ficksburg, the Boers did great destruction. The Government stores were ripped open and bags of grain were scattered in all directions. The Boers entirely cleared Mitchell's store, and commandeered clothing and goods to the extent of several hundred pounds. They also commandeered heavily from Messrs. McBride and Myers, and one Boer woman actually went behind the counter and served out goods. What the burghers did not want they distributed among the poor Dutch and English inhabitants. They also marched to the Town hall and tried Mr. Mc Bride, while Mr. Ross was detained in prison for some time. Many Ficksburg burghers who had previously surrendered have again taken up arms which they dug up from their gardens.
