TRAVERTON

Mr. Will Cook purchased a fine two-year old colt last week for $80. Miss Sarah Jack leaves on Thursday for the Queen City. She will be greatly missed in Zion, when practical work has to be done.

Miss Fanny McNally, also, goes to Toronto on Tuesday. Fanny is one of the bright, helpful ones.

Miss Flora Stewart returns to her Bentinck home this week, after a fortnight's stay with her sister, Mrs. John McNally.

Mr. James Nelson was home on Sunday from Singhampton. Mr. Adam Robson has rented Dave Kerney's farm for a term of years. Dave is thinking about going west.

Miss Bee Whittaker leaves for Caledon on Tuesday after a two week's stay at Grandpa Edwards'. R. T. Edwards lost his most highly prized mare on Election Day. She was a good one.

The Timmins Bros. have, lately, had a most beautiful, brown granite monument erected over their father's grave. It is a credit to Mr. Wm. McCalmon, from whom it was purchased.

Mr. Will Edwards has purchased the old homestead from his brother, Sam, and will shortly move over to the 6th, if he can only get across that nicely finished piece of road at the Saugeen. 'Tis said the contractors have "thrown up the job," and the work is a little over half done. There'll be a hot time in municipal affairs this year.

Mr. Tom Blair is untiring in his efforts to form a beef ring in this vicinity. There is every prospect of one being formed soon.

Rev. Wray R. Smith is fast winning the good will and affection of a wide circle of people, by his geniality and his clear impressive, soul-searching sermons.

Sam Edwards leaves for Port Arthur on Tuesday. On hallowe'en about thirty-five Zionites gathered at the old home and presented Sam with a beautifully bound Bible and hymn book, a fine purse and an E. L. pin. In a kindly worded address they expressed their regret over his going away, but wished him every success in his new venture. Mr. W. L. Falkingham ably filled the chair during the hour's impromptu programme, which was a most enjoyable one. The young folk had lots of fun and an excellent repast wound up a most happy incident.

The farmers around here rejoice when they hear that Mr. P. Hefferman, of Guelph, is up buying cattle. He knows the value of stock, and is not afraid to give a good price for the right kind. May he come often.

LAND FOR THE SOLDIERS.

In accordance with the Government's proposal at the last session of the Ontario Legislature, the following announcement has been issued: (1) That a grant of 160 acres of land be made to every person enrolled for active service in South Africa, who at the time of his enrollment was a resident of the Province of Ontario. (2) That the land so granted shall be relieved of all settlement duties and provincial and municipal taxation, except for school purposes, for a period of ten years. If such land is, however, transferred to any other person, within said period of ten years, then the laws now in force or any amendments made thereof as to settlement duties and provincial and municipal taxation shall apply. (3) That any person having a right to claim lands under an Act of the Assembly may select such lands in such townships as may be set apart for that purpose, provided that not more than 160 acres shall be selected in one block of 650 acres. (4) That the heirs or the administrators of any person enrolled who died while on service shall have the same right of selection of lands as the person so enrolled would have been entitled to if living. (5) That all claims shall be filed within two years from the 1st of January, 1901.

STRATHCONA HORSE

Spitzkop, D. s. Lyd-nburg,

Sept. 13th, 1900.

DEAR MOTHER,—We are still after the beggars yet, but they seem to go about as fast as we can. We are having most lovely weather, only a little hot through the day time for comfort.

We have been chasing the enemy livelier than ever since last Saturday till yesterday, when I guess they thought they would need a rest or they wouldn't stand it long. On Monday the boys had big hopes of catching some of them. The shelling was most lively from both sides, but we made them move their guns and we followed them up and got within a couple of miles of their transport, but they wouldn't let us charge them, as our battery wasn't up to cover us from behind. It was hard to see them so close and still not call them ours. There was about 2 miles of transport, so we had to retire back to camp without any game except a few dead Boers and horses. Next morning we struck out again. I thought sure we would catch their transport, but they had three big guns too well placed for us to move very fast, and it was a most ridiculous country for hills and rocks, and sometimes we went over them as hard as the horses could gallop.

Well, when we got up to where we left off the night before, some of the boys were hunting around of course. We were halted behind the hill for a while. They ran against a cask of the Boers' provisions, which consisted of rice, mealie and granulated sugar, and other luxuries. They had been in and loaded up a few waggon loads while passing, and had ten or fifteen waggon loads. Of course the most of the boys and myself had rice pudding and sugar for lunch that night. This was about 2 p. m. The provisions were well hidden among some bushes.

After leaving there we went in troops, and crossing over very rocky and rough roads we travelled pretty fast and were catching up to them again. Of course they always have a few snipers behind to keep us back as much as possible, but the Tommies were pretty well up to the front, and gave us good service while going from one kop to another. They were watching for anyone who might show up, which was quite often. First one of the squad boys was shot through the leg. After leaving him we were galloping along when one out of Co. 3 troop, was shot in the cheek and the ball came out at the back of his neck. Whether his mates didn't know he was hit, or afraid to stop in the rifle fire, I don't know, but he was lying there when I came along so I got off my horse and got him off to the side of the road, under cover of the kop and helped to dress his wound with my field bandage. It wasn't long till there was a doctor there. Then I got on his horse. One of his mates had come back by this time and I left to catch up to the rest of my troop. I think he will pull through all right. Before I caught up to the rest I passed where the Boers had their big gun, and they had left in such a hurry they left behind half of their tools, and on a piece further there was a waggon sitting on the road. They had taken off all the oxen but one to help to pull the gun up the hill and didn't get back in time, or at all. The troops were at the foot of the kop, and I was coming up in the rear, so I thought they had plenty of bully beef, a good supply of ammunition, cloths and so forth. I wasn't long there till there were more, and of course every man for himself then, and I fared sumptuously. I got a good Weberley revolver, which I was offered £2.10s. for that night. Space or time won't allow me to give full details, but you will just have to ask me about it when I get back.

ITCHING PILES. Mr. O. P. St. John, Dominion Inspector of Steamboats, 246 Shaw street, Toronto, writes:—"I suffered for nine years with itching piles. After trying many remedies in vain, I began to use Dr. Chase's Ointment and it has entirely cured me." More people have been cured of piles by using Dr. Chase's Ointment than by all other treatments combined. It never fails to cure piles.

Trouble in The Stomach

Which Doctors Failed to Remove, Cured by Less Than Two Boxes of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

The experience of Mr. Blackwell is similar to that of many sufferers with chronic indigestion. Stomach medicines will seldom really cure indigestion. The kidneys and liver must be set right, and the bowels made regular and active. Mr. Joseph Blackwell, Holmesville, Ont., says:—"I derived more benefit from the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills than from any other medicine I ever took, and can highly recommend them for stomach troubles. I was in a terrible state and could hardly work at my trade. I tried most every kind of medicine and doctors, until I was tired doctoring, and before I used one box of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills I could see that they were helping me, and after taking a box and a half, found that I was cured." Nearly every family on the continent has used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills or heard of the remarkable cures they have effected. One pill a dose, 25c a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates and Co., Toronto.

ALLAN PARK

Miss Martha Torrey was visiting friends in Markdale lately.

Mr. James Hopkins intends going to North Bay this week to spend the winter. We wish you success, Jim.

Who is the young man that lost his boots one evening going home from the Park.

A young son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Forsyth on the 8th inst. Mother and son are doing well.

Mrs. Henry Jones, of Hepworth, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Porter, this week.

Mrs. John Bailey, Jr., visited her friends in Owen Sound last week.

The Varney Scribe says that he is glad to see us out again but he did not tell us that the big potatoes that they have been rolling around with cantocks were hollow.

Mrs. James Bell, of Wroxeter, is home on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Porter. She is looking well.

Say, has anybody seen M. J. since the defeat of Dr. Landerkin? We bet he has lost no time from pulling his turnips since the election for he has lost the hat.

DON'T BE DUPED

There have been placed upon the market several cheap reprints of an obsolete edition of "Webster's Dictionary." They are being offered under various names at a low price.

By dealers, agents, etc., and in a few instances as a premium for subscriptions to papers. Announcements of these comparatively worthless reprints are very misleading. They are advertised to be the substantial equivalent of a higher-priced book, while they are all reprints of a book of over fifty years ago, which was sold for about $3.00 and which was much superior to these imitations, being a work of some merit instead of one Long Since Obsolete.

The Webster's Unabridged Dictionary published by our house is the only meritorious one of that name. It bears our imprint on the title-page and is protected by copyright from cheap imitation.
