FLESHERTON

Prince Arthur Lodge A. F. and A. M. was en fete at the regular meeting of the Lodge on Friday evening last occasioned by an official visit from Rt. Wor. Bro. Orton, of Bradford, D. D. G. M., of the Georgian District. The seating apacity of the lodge room was taxed to accomodate the large turnout of members, and visiting brethren assembled to do honor to the distinguished visitor, who first saw Masonic light in Frince Arthur Lodge, when in the teaching Because of this the last the last of the lodge when in the teaching Because of this the last of the lodge who had risen to a position of such marked distinction and honor. Other visitors who were cordially welcomed in behalf of the lodge by Wor. Master Boyd were Bro. Thos. Bilsbury, S. D., in Caledonian Lodge 204, Manchester, England; Rev. Bro. C. L. Mills, Ceylon; Bro. J. R. Newell and Bro. R. W. Ennis, Mark. dale; Rev. Bro. C. L. Mills, Ceylon; Bro. J. Hunter, Feversham; Bro. J. McKae, Priceville, and Bros. W. G. Slaughter and R. C. Blackburn, residing here. In the course of the raising of a candidate to the sublime degree of Master Master Master and Bros. W. G. Slaughter and R. C. Blackburn and w.

Tailways to provide separate coaches for negroes has been upheld by the United States Supreme Court. The elders in the Presbyterian church here and their wives were entertained by Rev. W. Thom at the manse on Wednesday evening of last week.

The second week in January next was the date fixed upon in which to commence special services recommended by Presbytery.

Mr. Wm. Clayton, of this place, showed us on Monday fine cabinet photos of the places of business of his sons, David, harness-maker, Sintaluta, N. W. T., and Will, Jeweller, Cornwall, Ont. The former has been doing a thriving business since going to the West, and has erected a handsome two story brick block containing two shops in the lower flat, one of which is occupied by himself and the other by a druggist. An interlor view of the latter's well stocked store is interlor view of the latter's well stocked store in the latter is the latter in the latter in the latter in the latter is given and presents an attractive appearance. We are pleased to note the tokens of prosperity attending our Flesherton boys abroad.

Mr. James Johnson has returned from Port Huron, and has purchased Mr. W. H. Heard's property on Collingwood St. where, we understand, he will, in future, reside. Mr. Heard has leased and will move into Mrs. W. K. Flesher's old home on Durham street.

Mr. A. W. Campbell, Provincial Road Instruc-tor, will address the farmers and others on the subject of road making at a public meeting in the town hall here, on Tuesday evening of next week. In view of the coming vote on the statute labor question in this township it will be interesting to hear Mr. Campbell.

The Chronicle last week spoke of Mr. John McArthur, of Priceville, as being the likely County Council. Mr. McArthur's name is, as the Chronicle states, freely spoken of, and should he offer himself, Flesherton, from all we have heard, will give him hearty support.

Mrs. Geo. Rutledge left last week to visit for a few months with her sons and daughters, in Montclair, New Jersey. Mr. Harry Stewart, cheese-maker, Tavistock, came home last week disabled with a sprained ankle sustained by a horse falling upon him. Miss McCort, of Thornbury, is visiting for for a few weeks with her sister, Ars, Ed. Hamil-Rev. L. W. Thom and Mr. A. M. Gibson were in Dundalk on Monday evening attending Rev.

J. Buchanan's induction anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. E, P. Lawrence, of Dornoch, and Dr. and Mrs. Sproule, of Markdale, were calling on old friends in town on Friday last. Mr. Ed. Elder, of Arnot, visited friends here on Saturday last. Miss A. Armstrong is paying a visit with

Mr. J. Tompkins is under the weather a little. We would be pleased to hear of his speedy recov-

Mr. W. Brigham had a few hands shingling his shop lately. Bill means to stay here as business is increasing.

We were informed that the shooting match held here was a success, but we cannot give full particulars as we were unable to attend.

County Commissioner and Mrs. Brigham were in Toronto last week week and part of this.

Mr. and Mrs. James Livingstan and Herbert Brigham moved to Paisley last week where the two men intend handling machinery for the Frost & Wood and other Companies. Our loss will be Paisley's gain as they were kind and obliging. We join in wishing them success in

Mr. James Forsyth has been making some great improvements to the hotel to make it more comfortable. Jim is bound to have things right.

The saw mill has been running this last few weeks turning out shingles

Mr. John Robinson is fireman in the mill this fall. John is a hustler and will furnish lots of steam.

The Hopkins Bros. are going into 62 butchering this winter. Success 62 boys. Opposition is the life of trade.

We have two wood carvers in this part who say they can chop, saw, split and pile sixy-three cords of four 10 00 foot wood in seven dsys. When we get the very best record they can made we will tell their names.
