DEAR ANNIE, - This is Sunday, and know that I am getting along fine. We had a skirmish the other day and got seven Boers. There was a parrol went out at night and when they were coming home they saw the Boers getting breakfast ready so they sent in to camp for more men. We were just coming in from stables befere breakfast and had to saddle up found them in a gully while we were GROCERIES; Fresh Groceries at the lowest living profits. on a high ridge. We poured in volleys for a while. They said they would surrender if we gave them a BLANKI S AND YARNS show so some of our men stood up and the Boers shot them. We had three of our men wounded, one was two of their men one dying after we brought them into camp. We have got altogether 26 prisoners. The Captain said when he came in o camp Another wedding is reported to that the men he had didn't think about eating; all they thought of thing to eat till about two o'clock Mrs. John Whitmore, of Egremont, when they brought out some rum has been visiting her daughter.
