HT, N. D. R. ced and watered le.

ultivation. Easy CCOSKERY. eter St., Toronto.

ile.

T ON QUEEN ty of Mrs. J. L. ntains 12 rooms quite new. Will ing house. For BROWNE, Photographer.

ile. VALUABLE of the most desirlans of the survey

rd's office, or lots pplying to him nit the purchaser. for cash buyers, pply to S JACKSON. rs. Middaugh, Clinton, Ont. Sale.

MATTHEWS. Lot 68, Glenelg,

Apply to

BRED WHITE

for Sale. OF DURHAM. vest side of Gara-The building is ts on the west side rt of Lots 10 & 11. e east side of Garaf Lots 10 & 11.

e for two families.

g well on lot.

t building lots and apply to M. HUNTER,

Durham.

tle.

CORNER LOT uilding on it that a dwelling. The by the owner as a a number of build-Will be sold cheap

JR., Proprietor, Durham.

Sale.

DRN DURHAM ne two years, one months, the two Also six brood sows d other three about culars apply to IN ECKHARDT, S. D. R., Glenelgservice.

ESTER WHITE st prize at Durham kept for service at Terms, $1.00.

CAR, Proprietor, POMONA P. O.

For Sale.

ST., 3 DOORS St., 2 acre, at prestwin. The house is grout, 3 large rooms ith 15 foot kitchen, woodshed with cis in house are 4 bedwater well at door. good underground iron fence in from iculars apply to ACFARLANE, Durham. LANE, Jedon, Peel Co.

ervice.

ED AYRSHIRE ervice in Durham, and Queen street. before the first of disposed of before red for whether in MITH. Proprietor.

s For Sale.

BULLS FROM d. Two reds and RKER, Durham.

For Sale.

SHING TO PUR-John A. Warren's Park Lot number street, in the Gove Town of Durham. office of J. P. Teloffice of the underarticulars apply to

D DAVIDSON, erk Division Court,

DURHAM, ONT.

District News.

ITEMS OF INTEREST CLIPPED AND RE WRITTEN FROM OUR EXCHANGES.

A Bonus .- On the 20th day of May the ratepayers of Meaford will vote on a by-law to raise $12,000 as a bonus to The Seaman-Kent Company, Limited, who propose to build a factory for the manufacture of blinds. burne Free Press.

J. H. Brigham, agent for the Frost & Wood Co., was arrested here on Saturday, on a charge of embezzelment, the complaint having been laid by an agent of the Sylvester Implement Co., of Lindsay. We understand in a general way that Brigham was at one time an agent for the Sylvester Co., and that while holding this polition he is charged with collecting certain moneys belonging to the company which he has so far failed to pay over. Brigham maintains that he has a good defence, and will be able to clear himself when he is brought to trial. Bail was accepted. - Walkerton Telescope.

week to consider applications for fairs, has had sense enough to under. the game. hotel and shop licenses for the year stand and assimulate the lessons of tion of Paisley the hotels granted British mounted men have been time crosse club, were the recipients of your principles. the Walker House, was granted an the rough rider, the cowboy of the ton, on Friday last. The amount extention for six months. There plains, the position of supremacy as raised by subscription with the gifts a petition with 559 signatures, in- mail. The day of the small horse one day. No Cure, No Pay. Price 25 cents. the commissioners. - Bruce Herad.

Isabel Isaack, a young girl of The housecleaning fever in its seventeen, occupied a seat in the most virulent type has broken out Much has been written in regard Meaford stage on Saturday, and as amongst us. It is worse than the to silos and silo building, and numerthe vehicle approached the town she grip while it lasts. If you see a ous plans have been published, but in pointed ... gazed at the church steeples, houses, woman with her skirt pinned up, a actual experience none of them has elevators and steamships in open. smudge on her nose, a glare in her proved entirely satisfactory. Some that Isabel was wanted "down Mea- beckoning and trying to whistle after be very satisfactory. ford way" for obtaining goods under after a paper hanger who is being false pretenses. Chief Owens had triumphantly taken captive by anothtelephoned up asking that she be de- er woman, they all have it. If you tained, and P C. Heron was on hand have to eat a snack at dinner time off to do whatever detaining was found the head of a barrel while seated on necessary to meet the requirements a soap box, you are suffering from of the occasion. Isabel was given a the effects of it. If you slide downcage at the police station, while stairs on a cake of soap and alight Matron McComb cared for the girl in upon an inverted tack you want to a motherly way until chief Owens have a tight grip on your tongue unrame over for her on Sunday morning. til you get out behind the barn. But -Owen Sound Times.

It is not often that this district is it is better than spring medicine afvisited by so severe an electric storm, ter the winter's enforced idleness. particularly at this early season, as What fun they have yanking every that of last Friday night. During bit of furniture out into the back the storm, lightning struck the barn vard, pulling the handles off drawers and out-buildings of Malcolm Sinclair and knocking the legs off tables and in Proton and destroyed them, with hiding all their husband's belongings contents, in a very short space of where he will not find them for a time. The fire occurred shortly be- month. They will put his shaving fore 12 o'clock, and Mr. Sinclair who apparatus in the bottom of a box of had retired some time previous, winter blankets, and his favorite pipe chanced to notice the reflection from on a shelf in the cellar. Talk about the flames, but had not heard the the new women and her independstroke of thunder accompanying the ence, why she hasn't a quarter of the He was not long in getting to fun that the old fashioned woman silo will not require more than 500 surprising accuracy. the burning buildings, and with the has every spring. The mere man ft. of lumber and 20 pounds of nails, help of his son, Angus, released the enjoys it too in his way. He lifts for the hoops which are easily and horses, cattle and pigs. This was all stoves until his back cracks and quickly made and should not cost they had time to do when the flames wrestles with pipes until his temper more than $1.25 each, or $10.00 for compelled them to seek safety. explodes. He sniffs soapsuds and the lot. This is a gaod deal less than Amongst the articles burned were a fresh paint and is informed that it is the cost of the usual iron hoogs and mill two sets of bob-sleighs, all har- when it is all over. - Harriston Re- erected at the exact outside circumself binder, baggy, catter, fannin .. ness and all feed for the summer and view. all seed for present sowing. Mr Sinclair estimates his loss at about Insurance $300.-Dundalk Herald.

On Friday evening, just after dark. an engine with some defect in the boiler or steam chest, pulled into the I've listened to the melodies of every forstation yard here making an unusual noise from escaping steam. Mr. and And many, many songs I've sung, of praise, Mrs. Samuel Howev, of Holland. were driving home at the time and their horse took fright at the noise That I'll forget one of the engine and wheeled on the road nearly opposite Mr. Donon's, throwing the occupants out and running away. Mr. Vail caught the horse opposite his home; Mr. and Mrs. Howey escaped without injury, but the buggy was considerably damaged Mr. P. McConvey drove along shortly after and his horse also got excited at the noise of the engine and worse at the sight of Mr. Howey's overturned buggy, and went flying off the That made me pause and listen, when often road. Mr. McConvey pluckily hung on to the lines and had the horse nearly under concrol when the buggy While listening to that mother's voice singupset, throwing him out. He still hung to the lines, and before the horse got far Mr. Donlon succeeded The song my mother a ea to sing, I never in stopping it, when it was found hat Mr. McConvey was badly bruised about the hips, shoulders and handthe result of his heavy fall and dragging on the ground. Mr. Mc-Convey was laid up for a few days, and although still very sore is now going around .- Chatsworth News.

School Inspector Burgess, while on a visit to the school at Hamilton's hill this week, suffered loss to the extent of a broken buggy and damaged harness. Upon arriving at the school the horse was entrusted to a young lad who offered to put it in Mr. Laird's stable, but the animal got away from the boy and made a flying trip through the orchard, with and exempt the company from all stages of the war. Old military and croup it's a perfect specific. taxes for 10 years. The said com- ideals have been turned topsy-turvy pany to repay the loan in 20 years in South Africa. One of the last to with interest at 4 per cent. -Shel- be upset was the notion that a warhorse should be a heavy charger and lene 25 cents and 50 cents. Illustrated booklet containing physicians' testimonials free upon request. VAPO-Should be ridden by a man of unusual CRESOLENE Co., 180 Fulton St., New York, U.S.A. horse should be a heavy charger and stature and heft. Lord Kitchener has learned something about mounted troops, and, according to the "Spectator," he telegraphed some time ago: "English horses arriving are still too heavy; well bred polo pony is the ideal required for all mounted troops, who carry little on licenses are the same as last year. and again outpaced and outfought the liberal donation of $5.00 at the Kincardine town, and the fifth hotel, also interesting because it gives to the club, Mr. D. M. Jermyn, of Wiarwere four applications for licenses the ideal soldier. The whole cowboy from the officers is being used for the from Paisley and only three could be, period of the West, as "Harper's purchasing of nets and other necesgranted. An arrangement was ar. Weekly" has pointed out, was a sary expenses in connection with the ly thank you. rived at by Klondike McArthur giving practical illustration on the value of club. McClure $600 for his stock and good- of the small horse that is never sick, will. The licensed hotels for Paisley eats anything, can jog along steadily will therefore, be The Royal, Hanna for days and can carry a man of half House and Central. Klondike Mc. its own weight. The "war-horse" Arthur has fitted up The Royal at a and the cavalryman with the sabre cost of about $12,000. He presented are as out of date as the warrior in Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets cure a cold in cluding 71 commercial travellers to and light man has arrived .- Saturday Night.

> what a relaxation it is to the ladies, bless them, this housecleaning period;

The Song I'll Ne'er Forget.

I've listened to sweet music, voluptuous

And songs of love, and songs of war, but old strain, within my heart so deep,

The song my mother used to sing, to rock her habe to sleep : Hush my de r, lie still and slumber, Holy angels, guard thy bed.

CHORUS.

It's echo lingers yet, The song I'll ne'er forget, The song my mother used to sing, The song I'll ne'er forget.

Twas not so much the music, as 'twas th With mother dear and baby, so quiet would ing her cand to leep. And now, though years have passed since then, its echo lingers yet.

Hush my dear, lie still and slumber,

Holy angels guard thy bed.

To cure a cold in a night—use Vapo-Oreso lene. It has been used extensively during more than twenty-four years. All Druggists.

Lasts a Lifetime.

conomical, and is also most effective. Smaller men have been accepted in Our little picture illustrates how it's your husband. Weeping either irriscreens, special hardwood flooring, the recent recruiting, both in this used. You put some Cresolene in tates him or makes him feel helpless, refrigerators, and other products country and Great Britain, than the vaporizer, light lamp beneath, If he is helpless, he is provoked with would have been taken for any of the and then breathe-in the soothing, himself; if irritated, with you. so grant them a free site and water, regiments sent out during the earlier healing vapor. For whooping-cough

Vapo-Cresolene is sold by druggists everywhere. A Vapo-Cresolene outfit, including the Vaporizer and Lamp, which should last a life-time, and a bottle of ciprocity. Cresolene, complete, $1.50; extra supplies of Creso-

Sold by MacFariane & Co., Durham.

Sporting Notes.

The Harriston Tribune has the following to say about Canada's national the saddle." Lord Kitchener is cred- game-lacrosse: There may be fun ited with the further opinion that in watching "Kelly slide," or even "light men armed with a rifle and seeing "Billy" Blackwood play a mounted on a hard, wiry and endur- full back game, but for genuine sport ing cob is the cavalry horse of the the national game beats them all. future. "This is interesting because By present indications that is the it indicates that the man who for the game the boys will play this season, past eighteen months has had charge as the old veteran of the game, Mr. of the campaign in South Africa, and Fred Dale, has received an order for finest man in the world, but never let The license commissioners for Cen- who will probably become the con- a goodly number of first-class lacrosse him forget that there are others altre Bruce met at Chepstow Friday trolling force in British Military af. sticks. Success boys! Lacrosse is most as fine.

Stops the Cough and Works off the Cold

Something New in Silos.

mouthed wonder. The stage rolled eye, a clothespeg in her mouth and a are too expensive for ordinary farmalong Hill street and still the young towel twisted about her head, she has ers, others are cheap, but last only a woman was lost in templation of the it. If you see a man lambasting a few years. The round stave silo is scene. At a down town hotel the carpet with a hoe handle and emitting one of the cheapest sort, and if it stage stopped, and I-abel was aroused ejaculations beneath his breath that were not liable to collapse on account on finding herself in the fatherly em- are not found in Sunday school books, of shrinkage of the staves, and the brace of P. C. Heron. The fact is he has it. If you see three women expansion of the iron hoops, it would honeymoon.

There is now a prospect of these disadvantages being overcome. A number of farmers in the United which seems to be the best kind of gles where you fell by the wayside. lumber for silos, on account of its non shrinkable character. It is so tically no effect upon it. This lumber has been recently laid down at Ottawa for $27.00 per M, and at that price should be one of the most economical our farmers could use.

The foundation of this new sort of silo is in its wooden hoops, six inches wide, and made of half inch elm ing a trifle longer nail each time, for granted. until the hoop has a thickness for the . Never remark casually that there good for a cold, but he enjoys it - lugs A three cornered frame is placed in position and fastened.

The lining of the silo is then put on, and should be of inch Georgia pine lumber three inches wide, matched and nailed to the hoops the same as the floring When the lining is on within twenty inches of the start- "Don't talk business to her after ing place, stop, and put in 2x4 stud- she has been shopping all day. She ding, up and down between the hoops has troubles of her own. on each side of the door for door . Treat her like a comrade and a stays and jumbs. Make the door of friend, but never forget that she is, ing them in two "joints" on the utmost sympathy and protection. inside of the hoops.

If the silo is outside the barn, it can be covered with tarred paper, and cheap siding, run both up and down as a protection against frost. The roof and foundation is the same as for any silo, and the outside covering could be of any sort the owner wished or it might go without siding, the same as any other tub silo. If protected from the weather the wooden hoops should last for years, and if at does. Choose a more opportune "dozy" it might be lined with tarred shir. making it serviceable again for a other, you can do with her as you number of years at small cost.

John Gould, the well known Ohio Dairyman and Farmers' Institute if you can. It is worth while. lecturer, who has seen a number of these silos in operation, thinks highly of them.

Keeping up the Illusion-Advice to the Newly Wed.

The following rules for young mar-That is just what they say ried men and women, by Caryolyn of Vapo-Cresolene. The Shipman, have been framed with juvaporizer is practically in- dicial impartiality. We cannot give destructible, and the Creso- them all; but publish quite sufficient lene is certainly not ex- to start an interesting little debate. pensive. This way of treat- First we will take some of the advice the result as stated.—Chatsworth ing affections of the throat is most tendered to a young married woman:

"Never weep in the presence of Don't show him all the letters you receive. He does not show you all his. Undoubtedly he believes in re-

"Don't explain, Explanations are tiresome. If you make any mistakes, profit by them, and say nothing.

"Always be appreciative and responsive. If he buys you a diamond ring, don't remind him that you need new shoes. Put the ring on your hand and wear a smile. The shoes will come later.

"Suggest. don't demand. Remember the fable of the horse and the watering-trough.

"Don't nag. There is always a woman who doesn't.

" Make him understand by the surest means at command that he is the

"Remember that little things We notice by last week's Tara count with him more than big ones. beginning May 1st. With the except the long, futile drives, in which Leader "The Beavers," Tara's la- Yield in small matters. Hold to

"Don't indulge in bursts of confi-The law allows only four licenses for by farmers on scrab horses. It is hands of the Hon. Vice-President of dence. You may regret them. What is unsaid can never be used afterwards in argument.

> "If you are jealous, give him the benefit of the doubt. He will secret-

> "Be loyal to him before your family and your friends, no matter what happens. Don't discuss him. He doesn't discuss you.

> "Never try to make him jealous. It isn't fair, and it doesn't pay, "Never let him feel his complete > power over you. Keep your individuality. Men want what they can't "Keep him your lover, if you can -always expectant, never disap-To the young married man the writer says, among other things: "Keep up the Illusion.

"Don't settle down too obviously to married life. Be as eager to please her as you were before marriage. Aim to preserve the charm of the

"Don't tell her she is illogical. She probably is, but she musn't know States have adopted the plan of using "Don't be too reminiscent of the wooden hoops, which cannot shrink days before you knew her. From or lengthen endwise. The inside the battles in which you slew the sheeting is of one inch Georgia pine, Dragon she may reason to the strug-

"Remember that the new life, which to you is merely an episode, is full of pitch that moisture has prac- to her a complete revolution of thought and habit-an undiscovered country. Make allowances for her. The readjustment is not easy.

"Treat her fairly so that she will not deceive you.

"Keep up the illusion.

"Tell her occasionally that you lumber, sprung around a form, and love her. She knows it, but she likes built up with well lapped joints, us- to hear it. She can't always take it three bottom hoops of five layers. are two standards, one for a man and The remaining five top hoops require another for a woman. Women someonly four layers each. The average times put two and two together with

"Never give her power over you by allowing her to see that you are jealous. This is fatal, Assume indifference if you have it not.

"Train her to be prepared for emergencies if she isn't that kind. Bring your friends home to dinner unexpectedly.

"Smoke in the house if you want to, and bring the dogs in. She knew these things before she married you. Why sacrifice your innocent pleasures? Prove to her that marriage never reforms.

the same lumbers as the walls, cutt- above all, a woman, who needs your

"Keep up the illusion.

"Don't tell her all the risque stories you know. Reserve some of the worst and leave her a few sensi-"If you hurt her feelings-and you will-tell her you are sorry. An ounce of true repentance will banish many pounds of hurt. "Don't lose your temper when sho any time the inside lining become moment. Someone must pilot the paper. and then sheeting, thereby ... Remember that if you love each

"Above all, keep up the illusion-

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY. F. W. Hodson,

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All

Druggists refund the money if it fails to cure.

E. W. Grove's signature on each box, 25c.

N., G. & J. McKechnie.

THE POPULAR CASH STORE.

Carpet Specials

Beautiful Wool Face Tapestry Carpet, 3-4 width, warranted to keep the color, in seven patterns, regular value is 75 cents,

To Clear at 50c Yd.

All Wools, 1-yard wide, in the newest shades, and patterns and are selling fast

From 8oc to $1.25 Yd.

GROCERIES.

23 lbs. Extra Granulated Sugar for $1.0
26 lbs. Extra Brown Sugar for 1.0
3 lbs. Choice Prunes for 6 lbs. Rice for
2 lbs. Cheese for
3 Cans Tomatoes for
2 Cans Baking Powder, 1 lb. in each, for

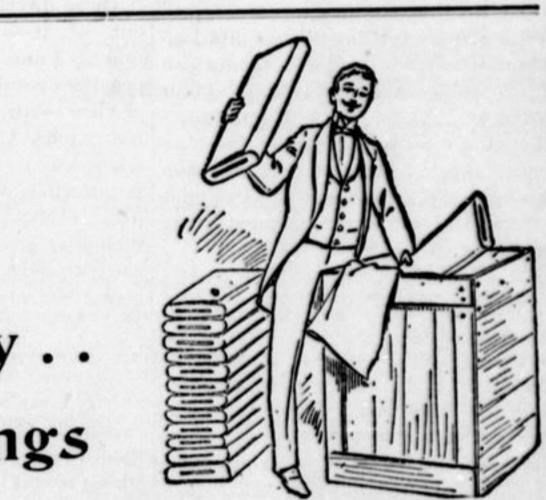

CROCKERY.

Dinner Setts	for																									. :	$12.
Dinner Setts
Tea Setts for						. ,																				á.	3.
Toilet Setts	for																										4.
Toilet Setts	for													. ,									 				2.
A lot of Fine	Gl	as	sw	va	ır	e	t	0	c	h	0	01	86	,	ſ	0	n	a	f	01	r .			. 5	25	c	eac

THE POPULAR CASH STORE.

G. & J. McKechnie.

MOCKLER.

Never before have we opened out such a nobby lot of Suitings. All the latest importations in Tweeds and Suitings, and the way they have been going is proof as to their popularity and value. Our best values are suits of Pure Wool Tweeds and Worsteds, latest designs and best trimmings, price $15.00. Our stock of Blue and Black Worsteds is hard to beat, and our West of England Imported Goods are all guaranteed.

Our . . Shirts

Our Shirts are a revelation in newness of designs and colorings. A few of the strongest points in our Shirts are that they are the best fitting, having a yoke which fits the shoulder, cushion button holes, reinforced at sleeves and seams, and are also double stitched all over. We are well prepared to do the Gent's Furnishing trade this season, and those who have never tried us in this line of goods will find our stock and prices a pleasant surprise. No trouble to show goods.

W. MOCKLER.