THE Court of Revision met Tuesday evening. Only three appeals were before the Board, which speaks well for assessor Cliff Elvidge's first year. The applicants were Mr. McCabe, merchant, of Upper Town. Mr. Jas. Stewart and the Durham Furniture Co. The Board refused to entertain the first two. The latter was laid over for consideration this Wednesday evening.

THE New Ontario Edition of the Toronto Daily Star is one of the best things of the kind ever published by a Canadian paper. It presents with all the typographical neatness possible the resources, and development now going on, in what has come to be called New Ontario. Whatever the Toronto Star undertakes it carries through in the very best way, and this last evidence of its enterprise is another proof of the growing strength of that up-to-date paper.

A VERY pretty wedding was celebrated in Trinity Church on Wednesday morning in the presence of a large and deeply interested company. The contracting parties were the Rev. Thos. H. Farr, B. A., Rector of Wallaceburg, and Miss Hannah Elbe Hughes, daughter of the late Wm. Hughes of town. Rev. Mr. Rvar was the officiating clergyman. The church was very nicely decorated with flowers for the occasion. Mrs. Parker presided at the organ and rendered two very appropriate selections—one while the contracting parties took their places before the altar, the other as the bridal party left the church. The bell rang out a merry peal as the newly married couple took their carriage and left the church door. The bride was the happy recipient of a large number of beautiful presents. We extend our hearty congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Farr, and wish them many, many years of happy married life.

In a letter dated May 22nd from White Horse, Yukon Territory, Mr. Jas. A. Davis, gives us a few interesting items. He asked us to change the address on his Chronicle, and volunteered the information that some day he expected to settle down on his ranch about twenty-eight miles from Westminster, known by the name of "Poverty Nob ranch." During the week he has been in White Horse he says that as many as 50 boats had gone down the river, and that it is reported that 3000 people went into Dawson this Spring already some going in early over the ice and others by boat when the ice went out. The railroad fare out in that country would seem high to us Easterners, the fare on the White Pass Railroad being $20.00 for 110 miles. No wonder many moneyed, well-to-do men would prefer footing it to paying the fare, to a company they think is robbing the merchants, miners and poor men. Mr. Davis is also down on the Government and thinks they should put a stop to such robbery before it goes too far. He says again, "One instance where the Government favored the poor man was in the Treadgold concession, but not till a petition was sent in signed by all the miners of the Yukon." If it had gone on he says "four thousand claims would have fallen into their hands, but now every man has a chance to go and stake them and Treadgold can go and try some other field and government, etc., etc." Mr. Davis is evidently well and happy, and we are glad to make the announcement to his friends.

Miss Dick, LAMBTON STREET

MR. J. M. HUNTER is going to start right away to build two new stores on his property opposite this office. We are glad to note the improvement in the central portion of the town, and especially on the east side of the street.

AN interesting little ceremony took place Wednesday evening June 4th at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. Morton when their daughter, Miss Nellie, was united in marriage to Mr. James Harkness, of Teeswater. About seven o'clock the nuptial knot was tied by Rev. W. Farquharson in the presence of about fifty invited guests. The presents, numerous, useful and ornamental attest the popularity of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. H. will make their home in Teeswater. We heartily congratulate them.

HITS AND MISSES.

Colin McFadden has certainly being doing Missionary Work. We know of two votes at least that Dr. Jamieson got through his influence.

At Tuesday evening's meeting Hon. Senator McMullen charged the Rep. with inconsistency in its present ravings about Hon. J. M. Gibson not being a local man. He said, "In my election of 1896 Mr. J. B. Clarke of Toronto was running against me, yet I did not get any support as a local man from Mr. Lambert." He said there was not a word from the Rep. then about Mr. Clarke not being a local man, yet to be consistent with its present course it should then have given Mr. McMullen its support. The boot, however, is now on the wrong foot, and a big Conservative howl is thereby raised.—Mount Forest Confederate. [Senator McMullen has forgotten "his political ravings" against the Senate. Every body knows how inconsistent he was and how gladly he accepted shelter, when turned out by his constituents, in the institution his whole vocabulary didn't find language bad enough to condemn.—Ed.]

Beachburg Wedding.

The home of Mr. J. Taugher, Beachburg, Renfrew Co., was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday evening, April 30th, when his eldest daughter, Miss Maggie, was united in marriage to Mr. D. Morrison, of Franklin, Manitoba, (formerly of Dornoch, Ont.)

At six o'clock a large number of guests assembled in the drawing room, which was prettily decorated for the occasion, to witness the ceremony. While Miss Robinson played the Wedding March, the bride entered the room leaning on her father's arm, and followed by her sister, Miss Teresa, who acted as bridesmaid. Here the groom and groomsmen, Mr. D. Elliott, awaited them. Rev. A. Menzie performed the ceremony. After the usual congratulations the guests repaired to the dining-room where a sumptuous repast was served.

The bride was attired in a pretty dress of white silk, trimmed with lace, ribbon, and rhinestone buckles. She carried a shower bouquet of carnations, roses and maiden hair fern. The bridesmaid looked pretty in a gown of white dotted organdy, trimmed with lace.

The presents, which were numerous and costly, including among others several valuable bank cheques, testify to the esteem in which the young couple are held. The happy couple left for a trip to Toronto, Markham, Durham and other places before returning to their home in Manitoba.
