CHURCH NOTES.

METHODIST

The services in the Methodist charch in Durham and at Zion will be withdrawn on Sunday in the absence of the pastor, who is attending the Conference in Woodstock.

Mr. A. Catton has been appointed by the Mount Forest District Meeting as a lay delegate to the Methodist Conference in Woodstock. This is a very important meeting, having to appoint the representatives to the general Conference to be held in Winnipeg in the month of September.

The Rev. Wray Smith is leaving this week for a ten days' trip to the Conference in Wcodstock, also visit ing Hamilton and Grimsby Park. He will address the Conference Mass meeting of teachers and papils in the Central Methodist church, Woodstock, on Sunday.

TRINITY.

The Rev. Mr. Ryan will conduct Divine Service next Sunday afternoon at Allan's School House.

Rural Deanery Chapter, of Grey, met at Christ Church, Markdale, on Tuesday last Every clergyman in the Deanery was present except one. who sent his sincere regrets for his absence. There was a larger lay representation present than usual In the morning service the Rural Dean was the Celebrant assisted by the Rector. In the evening at 7:30, the Rev. J. Ardill was the preacher. The meeting of the Chapter will be held at Shelbourne in September.
