THE man who wrote the following had a level head:—"The best way to build up a town is to stand by every man in town. All residents should be partners not opponents. In all livelihoods the more business you rival does the more you will do. Every business man who treats his customers honestly, courteously and fairly will get his share, and the more business that can be secured by united effort, the better it will be for all. When a town ceases to grow it begins to die, and the more people try to kill each other in their business the more readily will utter ruin come to all. Stand together for the advancement of every citizen. If a man shows ability to prosper do not pull him back through jealousy or weigh him down through a cold indifference.

THE Wanatah (Indiana) Mirror of June 5th in a write-up of the business and professional men of the place, has the following paragraph about Dr. George M. Leeson, who is well known to many of our readers, especially in the neighborhood of Varney, where he spent his early boyhood. It says:—"To be a successful physician one must be possessed of certain natural abilities which are not allotted to all men. He must have unusual soundness of judgment, keen insight, and the faculty of always doing the right thing at the right time and under all circumstances. A man who possesses these qualifications is Dr. Geo. M. Leeson. Dr. Leeson is a graduate of the Detroit College of Medicine, and is thoroughly versed in all the modern theories and practices of the profession. He began here seven years ago and by untiring endeavor and close study he has perfected himself for his work and is winning a success that is commendable, and causes much gratification to his many friends. Dr. Leeson is known in all circles for his reliability and high standing as a man.

THE monthly literary meeting of the Presbyterian Young People's Society last Monday evening was a very successful one. The subject was "Hymns that have helped," and besides some general remarks along that line by the chairman, Mr. Farquharson, papers were read by members of the Society. Miss Margaret Gun read a neat sketch of Bernard of Clairvaux, and one of his hymns was sung by Miss Maggie Hunter and Miss Fraser. Miss Davey read a very interesting paper on Charles Wesley and his hymns. Miss DeLyon read a well prepared paper on Toplady and his hymns. This was followed by Mr. R. McFarlane, Jr., on Mr. Isaac Watts and his matchless poems. Between these papers, all excellent in themselves, the choir or members thereof rendered in choice style some of the most important of the hymns noted by the essayists. The meeting was, on the whole, one of the best, and the young people are to be congratulated on providing so excellent a bill of fare.

We have to thank Mr. F. W. Jackson, of Quilchena, B. C., for a "V" he sent us last week on subscription. This puts him considerably ahead and puts us ahead also. He says:—"Remind me when my sub. is out, as I know a dollar is always welcome to an editor. It is over sixteen years since I left your town, but I always like to get THE CHRONICLE as I am much interested in the progress the town is making, especially the Cement works. I hope to see Dr. Jamieson returned to his seat of honor." The Dr. is in all right, and your hope is realized. Glad to know you like to get THE CHRONICLE, and particularly so because you pay for it like a little man.

BICYCLES for sale and bicycle repairing at the Massey Harris Show-rooms.

We notice by our Flesherton correspondent that 18c. was paid for wool recently. This is considerably higher than Toronto and Montreal quotations, and will not likely last long should the latter markets remain as they are.

THE Roman Catholic Picnic.—The annual picnic in aid of St. Mary's Church, Mount Forest, will be held on Thursday, the 19th inst. Among the speakers will be Hon. F. R. Latchford, Minister of Public Works for Ontario; M. J. P. Downey, of Guelph; Dr. Jamieson and others. A good time is promised as usual.

We reported last week that Mr. J. M. Hunter was going to build two stores nearly opposite this office, and on Monday morning last the first sod was turned. Excavations are now being made for the foundation. They will occupy about 47 feet frontage and extend back a depth of sixty feet. Over each will be a dwelling.

MR. D. McKECHNIE, of Taunton, Mass., is another far off reader who gladdened our heart this week with a handsome remittance. We hope now that several others will follow his good example, and give us a chance to make further improvements in our paper. Every dollar we can get hold of is needed.

LAST week Mr. John A. Darling put in a very handsome Soda Fountain, and, situated in central position and in full view of the thirsty pedestrian, he will get, no doubt, a good share of public patronage. The fountain is a beautiful piece of work, silver plated and highly polished. Call and get a drink at Darling's and you can see it for yourself.

THE Farmers' Institute annual excursion to the Model Farm is advertised for Wednesday, June 25th. Tickets are good to return by any train on the 26th, and the fare is so extremely low that we hope to see a good turn out on the day named. Full particulars may be seen by referring to their advertisement in this issue. Secretary Binnie is untiring in his efforts, and we hope to see him rewarded with a large attendance.

We have to refer this week to a very singular occurrence which we are at a loss to explain. It will be remembered that two or three weeks ago, we published an enquiry as to relatives of a certain Thos. Darby, of Lumsden, who was reported drowned a short time previous. The letter, we published, appeared genuine and was signed by the name of the undertaker, whom we supposed had disposed of the remains. The day our issue appeared, Mr. Dave Darby called on us to ascertain on what authority the article was published and from what source we got our information. We showed him the letter, but could do no more, and Dave went home feeling certain his brother was the drowned man referred to. We heard nothing more about the matter until Tuesday last when Mr. John Aldred called at our office with a letter from the undertaker denying all knowledge of the affair, and stating that the said Thos. Darby was well and attending to his business. The contradiction will be a relief to Mr. Darby's friends, but who it was that got up the sensational notice of his drowning is still a mystery.
