HOLSTEIN.

Miss Mabel Cameron's visit was cut short in our midst by a message from her home in Listowel that her sister, Mrs. Greenough, was seriously ill at her home in Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hood are the proud possessors of a baby boy. He arrived early Sunday morning.

The Egremont Creamery Company improved their plant last week by putting in a "Victor" combined churn and butter-maker. The churn was purchased from the Creamery Package Co., of Cowansville, Quebec.

Preparations are being made for a grand demonstration on Dominion Day in our village. We hope to be able to give particulars next issue.

The hand of death has again been laid on one of our citizens in the person of Mr. Robert Kerr, carpenter, of this village. On Monday of last week he was not feeling well and consulted Dr. Brown, who informed him that he was afflicted with a severe attack of appendicitis. All was done that possibly could be done to relieve him, but with no avail. It was then decided to perform an operation. This was performed by Drs. Brown and Chas., and C. A. Jameson Thursday, but Mr. Kerr rapidly sank and breathed his last about 3 o'clock on Friday p. m., at the age of 46 years. He leaves behind to mourn his loss his wife and six small children, the eldest being ten years old. Also four brothers, James and Chas., in Springfield; David and Wm. in Bay City; also one sister, Mrs. J. O'Connell also of Bay City. The remains were interred on Sunday in Reid's cemetery.

The Rev. J. Little, pastor of the Holstein and Fairbairn congregations, was duly inducted on Thursday of last week. The induction services were conducted by the Revs. Aull, of Palmerston; Kendall, of Woodland; Farquharson, of Durham; and Reid, of East Normanby; the Rev. D. L. Campbell, of Dromore, being moderator. In the evening a very successful tea-meeting was held, after which addresses were delivered by the above named gentlemen, interspersed by solos by Misses King, of Mt. Forest; Renwick, of Dromore; and by Dr. Brown and W. S. Wood, of Holstein; also W. Ramage and Rev. J. G. Reid. The proceeds of the tea amounted to $62.50. The manse has been thoroughly renovated, and everything points to a successful pastorate.

The Rev. J. Truax is at present attending the Methodist Conference at Woodstock, and has, by the first draft of the stationing committee, been put down for Holstein circuit for another year.

Women and Jewels.

Jewels, candy, flower, man—that is the order of a woman's preferences. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous efforts to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insidious consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Boschee's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure-all, but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get this reliable remedy at Darling's Drug Store.

FLESHERTON.

On Tuesday of last week Magistrate Van Dusen and Reeve McTavish presided at a lengthy trial in the town hall which was witnessed by a goodly number of interested spectators. John McCallum and John Braniff were charged by Bailiff Wright with having rescued goods held under seizure by him in Clark & Nicholson's mill at Eugenia. The H. Williams Company, of Toronto, claim said goods under mortgage and their agent, Mr. J. Quirt, admitted to the court having employed the above young men to remove the same. The removal of the goods from the bailiff's possession the court held to be a violation of the law and the defendants were fined $5 each and costs, in all about $21. Mr. McArdle, of Lucas Wright & McArdle, was counsel for Mr. Wright and J. J. McLean, of Toronto, counsel for the Williams Company, appeared for the defendants.

The marriage of Miss Emily J. Sproatt, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Sproatt to Mr. Alfred H. Archibald, of East Luther, took place at the residence of the bride's parents Ceylon, on Tuesday afternoon of last week. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a few immediate friends of the contracting parties by Rev. C. L. Mills, of this place. Mr. Thos. Lawrence and Miss Jean Colison discharged the duties of groomsmen and bridesmaid. The happy couple left on the evening train for their future home.

Merchant Hockley, of Proton Station, was in town one day last week and had an experience with his black pony not calculated to soothe a man's nerves. The little lady got on her high dudgeon and after a good deal of trying conduct and demolishing a couple of pairs of shafts had to be driven home without the vehicle which she declined to draw even empty.

The Baptist congregation had a good turnout of members and friends at their church on Thursday evening last for the purpose of a reception to Mrs. Cook, wife of their esteemed pastor, who, with her little son, arrived from England a few days before to join Rev. Mr. Cook in his work here. Refreshments were served at 7 o'clock after which Rev. Mr. Cook gave an interesting account of his life on the Bahamas. Messrs. A. Wilson, Jerry Thompson Wm. Lockhart, and Mr. McLean, who was present from Priceville, followed with short, addresses extending a hearty welcome to Mrs. Cook who replied and expressed in pleasing terms her appreciation of the cordial welcome extended to her.

Flesherton is again to have a grand celebration on Dominion Day and several thousand people are expected here to see the sports which commence at 10 a. m. with a C-lithumpian parade for which good prizes are offered. At 1.30 a lacrosse match takes place between teams from Owen Sound and Durham after which horse racing and athletic sports will come on. Prof. Murray, of Toronto, Highland piper and dancer, and Misses Rose and Bryce, of Toronto, Highland costume dancers, have been engaged to give an exhibition of piping and dancing during the afternoon. Markdale Citizens' Band and Messrs. H. McDonald and P. McArthur, of Priceville, will furnish music throughout the day. $500 in prizes are offered. Keep this and the date in mind.

The Directors of the East Grey Fall Fair held their annual meeting here on Friday last for the revision of the prize list and other matters pertaining to the Fair which is to be held on Sept. 30 and Oct. 1st.

Foot ball teams from the Flesherton and Orange Valley Schools played a friendly game here on Saturday last. The ball was kept hot, for an hour and neither succeeded in making a goal.

W. P. Crossley's 'bus team were let out for an airing on Sunday and well nigh lost their lives by getting into the woollen mill pond where they sank in the soft bottom and were unable to extricate themselves. After being discovered, which was just in the nick of time, it took a number of men with horses and ropes to rescue them from their perilous condition.

Sabbath last was Communion day in the Presbyterian church here. The service was largely attended and three new members were received. Rev. J. A. Marheson, of Priceville, preached at the preparatory service on Friday.

Mr. Hutchison, teacher at Port Law, addressed the C. E. meeting very interestingly on Sabbath evening.

Dr. Christoe occupied the Methodist pulpit on Sabbath morning last and gave an interesting discourse on the characteristics of Martha and Mary of Bethany. In the evening the service was under the auspices of the League led by Mr. J. E. Fawcett.

Mrs. W. H. Thurston, in her usual clear and effective manner read an excellent sermon by Philip Brooks on receiving the Holy Ghost, Acts, 19:2.

Farmers are enjoying a very brisk wool market here this year. As high as 18 cents was paid on Saturday.

At the Artemesia Court of Revision held here last week only three appeals were made and the fact that the assessment was sustained throughout speaks volumes for the work of Assessor Bellamy.

buried at Salem eight years ago, removed to the Public Cemetery here on Monday.

Mr. P. Louck's flour mill which had been shut down while a new flume was being built and other repairs made is again running and all hands busy as nailers.

Mrs. Fred Hickling is recovering from a very severe attack of tonsillitis.

Rev. W. Sinclair, of Malton Circuit, spent a couple of days last week with his parents here.

Mr. Geo. Clark, of Ottawa, is home for an extended holiday with his grandmother, Mrs. J. W. Armstrong.

Mrs. J. J. Mills, of Montreal, arrived on Saturday to spend a month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan.

Mr. D. R. Downie, of Bolton, is spending a few days with Mrs. Joy and family.

Miss McAuley, of Toronto, and Mrs. Brooks, of Thornbury are visiting the latter's sister, Mrs. Andrew Benthorn.

Mr. and Mrs. Challenger, of Cedarville, visited the latter's brother, Mr. J. A. Boyd and wife on Sunday.

Wm. Heard, of Kemble, is visiting his brother, John H. here.

Mrs. John Bentham and son, Albert, of Silver Creek, N. Y., are spending a couple of weeks with relatives in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Cairns, back line, visited friends near Alliston last week.

CORNER CONCERNS.

Quite a bit of trouble and loss is resulting from the new railroad not being fenced. Among other losses is that of a horse to Mr. Sam Ritchie.

Mr. Tom Glencross and Miss Greenwood, of Traverston, visited their cousin, the Aitkins family, on Sunday.

The slaughter house for the new beef ring was erected last week. Farmers will now lay aside their salt pork for a while as operations begin next week.

Statute labor commenced early in Egremont to give a chance for as much use as possible of the new road grader.

Mr. Aaron Vollet had misfortune with his stock last Thursday. A colt commenced playing with a cow and in the mix up both got seriously hurt.

Mr. Dave Hillis was up at Wiar-ton last week to see the corner stone laid for the Beef Sugar Factory.

Jamieson's large majority at our polling booth would indicate the feeling of satisfaction over his election.

Mr. G. Staples was down this way for a drive on Sunday. He is very careful of his driver, even on the most shady roads he drives very slowly.

We are always pleased to note improvements in the Chronicle office as well as the paper itself. The new engine will seem a most benevolent thing when we call on press days.

A meeting to make arrangements for our annual picnic was held on Monday night. We will make announcement of date and programme later on. We will also send a complimentary ticket that will admit you to every part of the grounds, a seat on the best log in the bush and a supper that when once eaten not soon forgotten.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Tait, of Woodland, visited Mr. Ben Crittenden's home the fore part of the week and attended the Durham Presbyterian Church on Sunday.

Quite a number from this part attended the installation of Rev. Mr. Little into the Holstein and Fairbairn charges and many drove down to Church on Sunday as well.

If some spare preacher would make an appointment to hold service on the new boat that is being built for the cement works back at the Lake on Sundays he would have a large congregation.

Mrs. Jas. Tucker and her little daughter, Miss Esther, are holidaying with Belgrave friends. And Mr. and Mrs. John Grashy, of Glenelg, passed through here in route for the same place last week.

The Hon. J. T. Whitney possibly feels no more elated since election day over the increase in his side of the house than does Mr. David Ritchie on account of the increase on his side of the house since election day a bright little boy.

Your Dornoch Skeleton was decidedly Sharp on election night, though not sarcastic, for he is never that, and on the occasion referred to he was specially amiable.

MAPLE PARK.

Fine growing showers with all the appearance of a good crop of hay, and all is quiet after so many storms. Also the political storm is over, only for a few fence side wonders by the small Grit politicians how the Doctor got so large a majority in the Liberal South Riding of Grey. No wonder at all, the Doctor is a Liberal man.

Dave McIntyre, of the Durham Review Cor. Staff, paid the Park a flying visit last week with politics on his tongue, but returned, we believe, convinced that two could talk politics.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Runciman visited the latter's parental home over Sunday.

Will Frooke was in Mount Forest with his sister, Mrs. Lobsinger, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter McMurdo were visiting at Mr. Jos. Campbell's over Sunday. Also Mr. and Mrs. James Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Campbell, of Swinton Park, visited at D. Ferguson's over Sunday.

We are sorry to report the sick in and around here are not improving very much since our last writing.

Mr. W. Stewart is partly laid up with a sore leg, but hope he will soon be around again.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Moore visited friends in Flesherton lately.

What we would like to know: How J. M. Q., of Boothville, feels, also J. C. and H. H.
