ONE of the oldest residents of Culross, and perhaps of the entire Province, died recently at the great age of 102 years, in the person of Mr. Michael Brennan. For nearly half a century deceased has lived in Bruce County, and has been known far and wide by many, who will greatly miss his familiar face.

On Tuesday last Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Lawrence received sad intelligence from Revelstoke, B. C., announcing the death of their daughter, Alice, who was married less than a year ago to Mr. J. Jenkins, who with an infant child remain to bear the sad bereavement. We extend our sympathy to the distressed husband and mourning relatives and friends.

THE "Middaugh" property near the furniture factory was purchased last week by Mr. A. A. Catton, who has occupied the premises for some time. In another column will be seen that Mr. Catton is advertising lots for sale. The property is most desirably located and intending purchasers will have difficulty in finding a better and more desirable location in Durham. Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Jackson were here to put the deal through and we are pleased to note that both look quite youthful.

A NEATLY gotten up prospectus of Duluth Business University has just been received at this office. In one set of photo engraving we notice the familiar face of Chas. G. Rotson, formerly of Traverston, but now a teacher in that great Hall of Learning. This is only another sample of what industry will do, and if "Charlie" had spent his early days leaning up against a post, he might have been leaning there yet with the great crowd who have no ambition for anything higher than idling their lives away. We truly admire those who have push about them, and who consequently admire Mr. Robson who has already made a mark for himself.

ANNIE McNALLY wife of Mr. Wm. Falkingham, of Durham, died at the residence of her father, Mr. James McNally, corner of Poynter and Stephen sts., on Monday last, aged 39 years. The deceased had been ill for about a year past and a couple of weeks ago came here to spend the last days in the home of her childhood. Her husband and a family of three boys survive to mourn the loss of a devoted wife and loving mother, and they will have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in their sorrowful bereavement. The funeral took place to Greenwood cemetery yesterday afternoon. Among the friends from a distance were the deceased's father-in-law, Mr. Charles Falkingham, of Durham, Mr. and Mrs. Harbort, the also of Durham, and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Watson and son, of Dollarville, Michigan. The pallbearers were Messrs. Washington Williams, Geo. Hart, Fred Wood, Geo. Eldred, Fred Redfern and Walter Redfern.—O. S. Sun.

W. GUTHRIE, General Blacksmith, desires to thank the public for their liberal patronage, and further to announce that he has secured the services of a first-class blacksmith from Palmerston to enable him get out all work as expeditiously as possible.—2

ON Sunday evening last Rev. Jas. Farquharson, of Pilot Mound, Man., took his brother's pulpit in the Presbyterian church here on his way home from the General Assembly in Toronto. He took for his subject the ever-memorable vision of St. Paul at Troas when the man of Macedonia prayed him "Come over into Macedonia and help us." He applied this to the Canadian North West at the present time. Never before was there so great need for active mission work there as now on account of the influx of settlers from all parts of the world. He made a stirring appeal, not so much for money as for men—men consecrated to the work for Christ's sake. If the North West is to be won for Christ it must be now. In a few years it may be too late.

THE NATIONAL PORTLAND CEMENT CO., (LIMITED)
P. W. STANHOPE, Mgr.

REV. MR. JANSEN LOCATED.

Melfort P. O., Sask., N. W. T. June 16th, 1902.

MY DEAR SIR,—Just a few words to you and for your readers who like to hear where I am labouring. The above address will tell it is about 90 miles east of Prince Albert. These 90 miles I have to go with horse and buggy all the way. The roads at present are in a bad state on account of the heavy rains, and hence I have to wait in Prince Albert till the roads are dried up. The land, they say, in that part is very good; every section is taken up, and as soon as the railroad finds its way through that part Melfort is expected to become soon a Western city. I will have a field of labour about 100 miles in circumference. I am busy now to secure my outfit ponies, tent, etc., etc. Later on I may write again.

Yours truly,
A. G. JANSEN.

HITS AND MISSES.

A local schoolmistress who has a dread of all kinds of contagious diseases sent a child home the other day because her mother was ill. The next morning the little girl presented herself at school with her little finger in her mouth, and a little hood swinging by the string, and said: "We've got a baby at our house, but mamma says I was to tell you it's not catching!"

THE STANDARD BANK.

Yesterday the shareholders of the Standard Bank met, and adopted the most satisfactory annual report in the history of that institution. The net profits of the year were $176,796, equal to 17.67 per cent, on capital. Two dividends of 5 per cent, each were paid shareholders, and the sum of $100,000 added to rest account, making that fund $850,000. The shareholders feel elated over the profitable year the bank has had, the percentage of earnings as published being only surpassed by one bank during the same period. The directors were re-elected; Mr. Cowan as president, and Mr. Wyld as vice-president.

A PUPILS' RECITAL.

(From The Ottawa Daily Free Press.)
Goldsmith's Hall was crowded to the doors last night for the recital given by the pupils of Miss Marguerite Strachan, assisted by Mr. Thicke. The only pianist on the programme was Miss Olive Straun Marshall who rendered several numbers from Mendelssohn and Hummel with a taste and sympathy surprising in one so young. Her technique was excellent and her selections played with considerable spirit. They were two of Mendelssohn's songs without words, a Tarentelle and an andante movement, and La Galante of Hummel with a Rondo by the same composer. The vocalists were Miss Laura Woods, Miss May Laing, Miss Irene Henry and Mr. N. D. McLeod. Miss Wood who has a sweet, clear voice sang very prettily "Sweet Pretty Bird," from "The Merry Men of Sherwood Forest," and "Rejoice Greatly" from Handel's Messiah. Miss Laing's voice is silvery and penetrating and her numbers were much enjoyed, she sang "Should He Upbraid," (Bishop) "Tell Me My Heart" (Bishop) and an encore "Twas Within a Mile o' Edinboro' Town." Miss Henry owns a full rich voice and sang with good effect Milard's "Ave Maria." Mr. N. D. McLeod's numbers were sung with spirit and won much applause. One was a very difficult recitative and aria from The Messiah "Thus Saith The Lord," and "But Who May Abide the Day of His Coming." The others were "Jesu Redeemer" of Bartlett and "Loch Lomond." All the voices showed careful training. Mr. Thicke who was in good voice gave much pleasure by his rendering of Sullivan's "The Sailor's Grave" and Miss Strachan contributed several numbers the recitative and aria "Then Shall the Eyes of the Blind be Opened," and "He Shall Feed His Flock," "Caro Mio Ben" (Giordani) and recit "Armida despicata" aria, "Lascia chio Piango," of Handel. The other numbers were Buck's "Rock of Ages," as a quartette by Misses Strachan and Laing and Messrs. Thicke and McLeod and a chorus "Coronation Hymn" by Misses Woods, Henry, Laing and Strachan and Messrs. Thicke and McLeod.
