THE garden party given in Varney on Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Durham B. Y. P. U. was a most successful affair. Over forty dollars was realized, and Mr. Allan Bell and his faithful band of workers are to be congratulated. The Durham Brass Band supplied the music during the evening.

A. B., in accordance with his promise handed us another letter this week, but Reader was ahead, and having furnished us a lengthy article we thought it was enough of religious matter for one week in a secular paper. The other will appear next issue. Say, by the way, we would like those long-winded discussions to come in about Thursday or Friday so as to give us time to set them up before the rush.

WHILE excavating for the new stores, a mountain ash tree, on the boundary line between Mr. Mocker and Mr. Hunter, was undermined and fell into the excavation. Settlement for damages was submitted to arbitration as Mr. Hunter was unwilling to pay the $50.00 claimed by Mr. Mocker. The arbitrators were T. A. Harris, John McKechnie and George McKechnie, and the award placed the damage at $30.00, each of the contestants to bear half costs. The total cost to Mr. Hunter was about $41.00, which, under the circumstances, seems to us to have been a pretty good price for the tree, but we have no comment to offer just now.

COMPLAINTS are often heard of the alarming prevalence of drunkenness and the inadequacy of our legislative machinery to stamp out the evil. The complaints, no doubt, are too true, but a little thought is necessary to place the charge to where it belongs. For some time past a few of our citizens have been guilty of over-indulgence in strong drink, and it seemed that something had to be done to shut off the evil. We'll mention no names this time, though we have a perfect right to do so if we please. Last week three of the incorrigibles were brought before Inspector Harris and their whiskey and other intoxicants were shut off for a year, the hotel-keepers being notified that in the event of furnishing drink to these persons they would be prosecuted in strict accordance with the law. For a day or so a few dry tops were hanging around, but the sympathies of the citizens were over-awed by the danger of allaying their thirst. There are others also who should be treated in the same way, and, at the risk of all indignation, we express it as our hope that anyone violating the restraint under which these individuals are placed, will be heavily punished. Not only can the hotel-keepers be fined, but a double dose may be administered to any one furnishing them with intoxicants, and what's more we understand a strict watch is to be kept. The license law we have is not such a thing if the general public would see to its enforcement.

It annoys us to be late this week. Nearly a month ago we ordered a supply of paper to be here by the 4th of July. It failed to come, however, and at the last moment we had to telegraph for this week's stock and have it come by express. Hope our readers will all survive the disappointment.

BARGAINS IN MILLINERY.—We are still very busy in the Millinery Department, and since the hot weather orders are rapidly rushing in from all sides. LOVERS of lacrosse should not miss the championship game here on Monday next, July 14th, between the Lornes of Mount Forest and the home team, on the Agricultural grounds at 4 o'clock sharp. This is bound to be an exciting game as both teams are out for the District championship. Everybody go and cheer our boys on to victory. Admission to grounds 25 cents, ladies 10 cents. At 2 o'clock the Mount Forest and Durham juniors will play an exhibition game. One admission admits you to both games.

THE first of the union meetings given by the different young people's societies of this town, met in the basement of the Presbyterian church on Monday evening, and notwithstanding the oppressive heat, a fairly sized audience was in attendance. Rev. Wray R. Smith was in the chair. Miss Stewart gave an address on "Pledges," the subject chosen for the evening, and was listened to with interest, followed by a short address from the chairman. During the evening a duet was given by Mrs. Matthews and Miss May Saunders, a quartette by Mrs. Lauder, Miss Burnet, Messrs. MacFarlane and Lauder, and a solo by Mrs. (Rev.) W. L. Newton.

Special Prize to Farm Boys.

In an interview on Farming with Mr. Barlow Cumberland, of Toronto, we were somewhat surprised to learn he is deeply interested in farming, and on this subject, as well as nearly every other, he has certainly advanced ideas, which, if put into practice, would render many a farm home more attractive and comfortable. Speaking of the South Gray Prize List being in preparation, he volunteered two cash prizes, which we trust many of the farm boys will try to get. It requires only a little ingenuity on the part of a boy, and whether he gets the prize or not the effort will be of profit to him. Mr. Cumberland offers for the best chicken fattening coop a prize of $2.00 and for the second best a prize of $1.00. The coops to be made by boys from 14 to 17 years of age, and at least four entries. This will be specified in the Prize List.

COLLINSON-BYERS.

A Pretty Wedding Celebrated on Wednesday at Hampden.

Hamilton Herald.

A very pretty wedding took place on July 2 at 4:30 p. m. at Bonnie View, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Byers, Hampden, when their youngest daughter, Amelia H., was united in marriage to James G. Collinson, of Hamilton. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. Farquharson, of Durham, in the presence of about fifty guests, the bridal party standing under a canopy of ferns. The bride was becomingly gowned in white brilliantine, trimmed with chiffon and pearls, and wore the customary bridal veil and orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. Her only ornament was a diamond and pearl pendant, the gift of the groom. Her going-away gown was of a suit of broadcloth, the bridesmaid, Miss May Rousseaux, of Hamilton, was prettily gowned in white lustre, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The groom was assisted by his brother, W. Thomas Collinson, of Toronto University. The bridal party entered the drawing room to the strains of a march played by the groom's sister, Miss Nesa Collinson. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a turquoise ring, and to the groomsmen a diamond ring. The newly-wedded couple left next morning on a wedding trip to Toronto and other cities before returning to their home in Hamilton.

THE demand for Plymouth twine is great, as it has always given the best satisfaction. A few more maps of Ontario left, and given away free to the first few who buy Plymouth twine for the season. Call and get prices and look at the quality.—John Livingston.

LADIES look younger, which is the desire of one and all. Take the trouble of visiting Prof. Dorenwend's private show rooms, at Middaugh House, Durham, on Thursday, July 24, and see the many beautiful inventions in Styles of Human Hair Coverings, Wigs, Bangs, Switches, etc., and inspect his new patent structure.—2.

THE Mt. Forest Confederate has again changed hands, Mr. Wright, formerly of Turnbull and Wright, of Guelph, having purchased from the Kennedy Bros. We welcome the new man, and trust he will be as honorable in his relations with his fellow-members of the Fourth Estate as the gentlemen who are leaving have been.

BUSINESS is certainly booming in the Furniture Factory. We were through the works one day last week and learned from Manager Catten that the output for the past six months is several thousand dollars ahead of the corresponding period last year. We hope soon to be able to give a report of their doings financially.

COMPLAINT has justly been made about the filthy action of some one who dumped a whole barrelfull of pigs feet, heads and other refuse into the Saugeen River, at the bridge on the second concession, east of town. A few days ago a horrible stench led to investigation which revealed the cause, the barrel being not more than half submerged and the contents in a state of putrefaction. Such conduct deserves severe punishment, endangering, as it does, the health of the whole town and community.
