ALL parties interested in the organization of Curling, Skating or Hockey Clubs for the coming winter are invited to attend a meeting at the Foresters' Hall on Friday evening, the 3rd of October, at 8 p. m. sharp. A full attendance requested. W. CALDER, Secretary.

We have not advanced the price of our tobaccos. Amber smoking tobaccos, Bobs, Currency and Fair Play chewing tobaccos are the same size and price to the Consumer as formerly. We have also extended the time for the redemption of Snowshoe tags to January 1st, 1904.—THE EMPIRE TOBACCO CO., LIMITED.

LONDON has sent good business men to all parts of the country. One of the successful ones is W. Black, hardware merchant, of Durham. While, in company with his wife, visiting the Western Fair and his boyhood home, he dropped into the London Hardware Company's store, and before leaving he bought the bulk of the stock that was rescued from the fire of July 22, and is now in a position to give his customers at Durham great bargains. Durham should be proud of such an ambitious merchant.—London Advertiser.

We missed reporting several items last week owing to press of work in getting out the prize list and other things in connection with our big Show. Even some of the exhibitors tell us we omitted to give them credit for prizes they received. We'll not deny the possibility under such pressure of making an omission. But the fault is hardly to be laid at our door, nor should the secretary of the Association or his able and obliging assistant be made to share the blame if blame exists. The work is very trying, and were those who feel like fault finding put in their place or in ours we doubt if things would be materially improved.

Mr. H. H. MILLER says, "I sold the Ries Farm, as I have many others, through newspaper advertising." This is the old story that it pays to advertise. Last week Sam Langril bought the Donald McCoskery farm at Bunessan, the buyer and seller being brought into business relationship through a little ad in the CHRONICLE. Sam saw the ad and wrote to Mr. McCoskery in Toronto, offering a spot cash for the farm after which a sale was soon effected, the money paid over and both felt happy. Mr. Miller is now advertising the P. O. Stewart Farm in Bentinck, and the chances are it will not be long till he finds a purchaser. Our friend, Mr. Calder, who is a great admirer of the CHRONICLE advertises in this issue the "McKae Farm" in North Glenelg which must be sold inside of sixty days.

We had a call Friday last from Mrs. McArthur, of Cleveland, who was returning from a visit of six or seven weeks duration with friends in Glenelg. We regret to learn the sad circumstance which led to the visit. On the 11th day of August last her mother, Mrs. Wm. Henderson, Glasgow, met with a run-away accident which terminated her earthly career next day, at the age of seventy eight years. The deceased was for many years a native of this vicinity, having lived between here and the Rocky from the year 1840, and consequently knew all the hardships of pioneer life. Mrs. McArthur started on her trip home as soon as she received word of the accident, but before her arrival the spark of life had left its mortal tenement of clay. She was accompanied to the house of mourning by her sister, Mrs. Young and Mrs. Young's daughter, Miss Evelyn, also Miss Nina Henderson, another grand-daughter of the deceased lady.

SEE Peel's ad.

LADIES' Jackets to hand at Grant's.

FARMERS, see our heavy boots for fall wear.—H. W. Mockler.

THE most careful buyers are buying their fall footwear at Peel's.

H. W. MOCKLER has just received a full stock of men's and boys' overcoats.

A FEW good dwelling houses and lots for sale in Durham. Apply to A. H. Jackson.—2.

FOR SALE—Pure bred Jersey calf, registered pedigree, cheap. Apply to F. Peel.—tf.

WE are in receipt of a letter from Corporal Allan Bell, who reports everything OK at the Niagara Camp.

WE have some nice fur ruffs at $1.00, $1.40, $1.50 and $2.00.—C. L. Grant.

RING LOST.—A plain gold ring, well worn, valued as a keep-sake, lost on Sunday 28th in the Presbyterian Church or on the way thereto. Finder will be liberally rewarded by leaving same at this office.

AUCTION SALE—Tuesday, Oct. 14th, at lots 62 and 63, S. D. R., Bentinck, Farm Stock, Implements, and Household Furniture. Joseph Corbett, proprietor. Hugh MacKay, Auctioneer. See bills for particulars.

THE friends of Mr. W. A. Leighton will regret to learn of his death which occurred recently in North Dakota. The remains, we learn, were interred at his home in Tilsonburg. Mr. Leighton was a cousin of Mr. R. McFarlane, Jr., with whom he was engaged for some time as a Drug Clerk.

A PAPER received from Rose Lawn, Indiana, has an advertisement for Mr. A. McClinton, who has embarked in the Furniture and Undertaking business. We understand Mr. McClinton was well known in this vicinity, and his friends will be glad to learn that he is doing well in the Hoosier State.

LITERATURE, Art and Music, the new magazine, has the finest writers and the best stories. Every month it gives either a sheet of new music, worth fifty cents, or an Art Study in color, worth seventy-five cents, each separate from the magazine. It can be bought from the newsdealers, or send ten cents for sample copy to Publisher Literature, Art and Music, 125 East 23rd Street, New York City. The subscription price is one dollar a year.

WE regret to learn of the death of Miss Burgess, daughter of Inspector and Mrs. Burgess, of Owen Sound. For several months she was dangerously ill, so ill indeed that at one time the fond parents thought the vital spark had fled. She rallied, however, and for some weeks made good progress till a relapse set in, which carried her off very suddenly a few days ago. Mr. and Mrs. Burgess have our sincere sympathy in their sad trial.

A SAD death occurred in Glenelg, near Bunessan, on Friday last. Mr. Archie McNab, a man of about forty-five years of age, went for the cows on the morning of the day in question, but failing to return the friends became anxious and sometime during the day or afternoon instituted a general search for the missing man. On towards evening he was found in a swamp nearly dead, having lain there, it is thought, for several hours. It is thought he took a stroke of paralysis, or perhaps an epileptic fit from which he did not recover, as death claimed him shortly afterwards. The remains were interred Saturday. The deceased, we understand, had not been well for some time.

R. B. KEELER & SON
The Big Jewellery Store. DURHAM, ONT.

ON Friday night last a number of the young people of the town had an enjoyable time dancing till the little hours of the morning in the new Laboratory building just completed by the National Portland Cement Company. The floor, they say, was magnificent, and being well lighted by electricity from the Company's power-house, it was no doubt an ideal spot for the young people to shake themselves.

Mr. M. RICHARDSON writes us from Vancouver, B. C., to express regret at his inability to be present at the South Grey Annual Exhibition, but consoles himself with the thought that he can not get all the good things in this life. Mr. Richardson is a close observer of nature, and no doubt his trip to the Pacific Coast and a view of the magnificent grandeur of the Rocky Mountains will compensate in part for what he lost in not being present at our great show.

THE Cement Mill is evidently getting nearer and nearer to completion, and cement will surely be made in the near future, in about four or five weeks we understand. Last week seven or eight carloads of clay were landed, and about as many carloads of coal. The construction of the trestle work from which the marl will be dumped from the cars is going on rapidly, and must be completed before long. Of course we can't get in to see how things are moving and we hate to peek in through the fence. If we keep our readers in ignorance of the progress that's being made we hope they'll not blame us for it now since we're not allowed to see.

It was awfully naughty for Hughie Charlie McKechnie to go up and marry Mrs. Gorsline without telling us a word about it. But then they're both young and bashful and we'll forgive them this once. It was done on the sly too. On Wednesday evening of last week, the frisky lover left a suit in at the residence of the bride to have them in readiness for the wedding next day. To do things up in good shape, Hughie walked up in the afternoon with a bucksaw on his shoulder, and made his way into Mrs. G.'s woodshed, but instead of sawing wood he got down behind a coal oil barrel and put on his new suit. In the meantime Rev. Ryan made a pastoral visit by way of the front door. Subsequently Young Hughie, who is about sixty-five or thereabouts, came prancing in the back way, and the nuptial knot was tied, but the secret didn't leak out for four or five days, even the Clergyman, it seems, being bound solemnly to reveal nothing that should be hidden.

It is our sad duty this week to chronicle the death of Miss Amy Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wright, of this town. For some time the deceased young woman has been ailing from lung trouble and her death was not unexpected. Death took place on Friday afternoon last, and on Sunday morning the remains were taken to the Methodist church where a solemn and appropriate service was conducted by Rev. Wray Smith, after which interment took place at the Durham cemetery. Miss Wright was a general favorite with the young people, many of whom gave evidence of genuine sorrow during the service. A personal reference by the pastor, regarding the true Christian, self sacrificing character of the deceased, is a consolation to the parents in their bereavement, and though they mourn the loss of a loved one, they mourn not as those who have no hope. We join the whole community in our sympathy with the mourning relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Wright wish to thank the people for their kindness shown.

People We Know

THE GOING AND COMING OF VISITORS IN THE MONTH OF OCTOBER.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunt are visiting their daughter in Detroit.

Mr. Wm. Coleridge, of Yeovil, was in town Tuesday.

Miss Alla Paterson, of Flint, Mich., is visiting her many friends and relatives in Durham and vicinity.

Miss Calder, of Calderwood, spend an enjoyable visit with her friends in town last week.

Editor and Mrs. Ramage attended the marriage of the latter's brother, Mr. Wm. Coleridge, at Yeovil on Wednesday last.

Mrs. Jas. Lauder and her two children returned to Peoria Thursday morning last after spending a couple of months' visit with Mrs. Jas. Lauder and family in town.

Miss M. Lick, B. A., resumed duties in the school here on the first inst. Owing to the death of her mother, which took place about a month ago, she applied for and was granted a month's leave of absence. Miss McDonald, who took her work during August, left for her home in Chesley.

The following from a distance attended the funeral of the late Amy Wright: Mr. S. C. Wright, Whitby, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Matthews, Markdale, Mr. MacMachon, Acton, Mr. and Mrs. Dean and Miss Cooper, Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wright and two daughters and Mr. Chas. Bradwin, Hanover.

OUR new story, "Purified by Suffering," will have the opening chapter appear in our issue of the 16th October. The author is the well-known Mary J. Holmes, and is one of her best stories, being thrilling and realistic. It will carry the readers through a labyrinth of delightful and strange experiences. Now is the very best time for new subscribers, as they can get THE CHRONICLE to the end of next year for one dollar. Tell your friends.

AFTER a good deal of study and worry we have at last "figgured" out why so many country editors get rich. Here is the secret of their success: A child is born in the neighborhood; the attending physician gets $10, the editor gives the loud-lunged youngster and the "happy parent" a send off and gets $00. It grows up and marries; the editor publishes another long-winded, flowery article, and tells a dozen lies about the "beautiful and accomplished" bride. The minister gets $10 and a piece of cake and the editor gets $000. In the course of time it dies; the doctor gets from $5 to $100, the minister perhaps gets another $5, the undertaker gets $25 to $50, the editor publishes a notice of the death, an obituary two columns long, lodge and society resolutions, a lot of poetry and a free card of thanks and gets $0000. No wonder so many country editors get rich.

Wedding Bells.

Sept. 24th, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Ector was again the scene of a happy event when their daughter, Millie, was united in marriage to Mr. Isaac Petch, of Rossland, B. C. Shortly after 8 p. m., while Miss Maggie Ector played a wedding march, the groom took his place under an evergreen arch in the parlor, and the bride immediately followed leaning on the arm of her father. The Rev. Mr. Farquharson then conducted the brief but all sufficient Presbyterian marriage service, and the happy couple were one for life. After the usual congratulations, etc., a splendid dinner was partaken of in the tastefully decorated dining-room and then a few hours were spent in pleasant chat, games etc. The presents, which were displayed in the dining-room, were useful and costly. The guests numbered 50 or 60, and consisted almost entirely of relatives of the bride and groom. Those from a distance were, Mrs. Ailward, mother of the groom, from Collingwood; Mrs. Scott, Collingwood; Mrs. Butterfield, Norfolk, Virginia; Mrs. McRae, Collingwood; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McCallum, Brussels; Mrs. John Gowland, Woodbridge; and Mr. Abraham and Miss Esther Brydges, Wingham. The brides dress was cream silk brocade trimmed with silk applique; she wore a bridal veil fastened with a wreath of white asters, and carried a bouquet of white alyssum. Her travelling suit was of stone-blue broadcloth. Mr. and Mrs. Petch left Tuesday for Rossland, visiting for a few days in Portage La Prairie and Calgary.—Com.
