place here on Friday and Saturday of not speak. last week, and the crowds of admirers, purchasers and prospective purchasers, were more than delighted at It is not our place to say who carries the best, or most stylish stock, but the public, we know, will receive right treatment by dealing at one of the Durham establishments. From what we learn from those who know there is no need of going outside of town to be suited with the latest and most fashionable millinery and fancy goods. The following gives but a vague idea of a few of the pretty creations we saw at each of the establishments, and before getting a fall hat we advise purchasers to see what they can get in Durham. We saw

AT MORLOCK'S Hat" is made of a large plateau of formance of all offices pertaining to green fancy braid, with the flat broad the sick. It tells what to do in case than on previous years. The horse Valuable Farm Property loops and long ends. A black plume ceipes for preparing solid and liquid is arranged against the brim, which food for the sick. No home should slightly flares at the left side.

Unusual charm makes this Picture Hat of black velvet. White Liberty satin is arranged in soft folds on the edge of the wide straight brim, and also encircles the broad, low crown, and a band is brought over on top of the crown and over the edge of the brim at the side. A white ostrich plume, secured by a pearl cabochon, completes the hat.

AT IREEAND'S.

Some of the opening display hats were as follows :-

One very handsome and stylish model was of folds of black velvet. The rim was rolled high at the sides and was faced with black tucked chiffon. Black moire ribbon was brought around the crown and bowed prettily at the back, while two handsome plumes fell gracefully over the Farm Stock, Implements

A very stylish turban in the popular green and blue combination, was of green gophered silk with handsome The undersigned has been authorized gray. The crown was caught up at the left side with a large rosette of TUESDAY, OCTOCER 14th, 1902, same was carried around the crown. Ends of the ribbon, with large cream applique roses, gave a very "swell" appearance to the back of the hat.

One of the very newest ideas in hats for young girls is the "Dolly Varden "- a large double-rimmed hat with flop edge. One shown was of white felt stitched with red. Red. silk was prettily knotted on the rim. From a knot at the left side fringed ends extended over the rim at the back.

Another hat the girls admired very much was a large soft flop of green camels hair felt. It was trimmed with rosettes of rose pink Liberty ribbon, a strap of the same going straight across the front. This hat also had fringed tahs of the ribbon at the back.

FROST & WOOD.

Every farmer has some choice, but there is no machinery so universally in favor as that manufactured by the Frost & Wood Co., of Smith's Falls. Ont. We have the local agency for the goods manufactured by this firm, and as they are so extensively known throughout the Dominion, it is not necessary to say anything by way of introduction. Before buying, however, we may be permitted to suggest, the wisdom of examining our goods, which sell at sight in many instances.

Our No. 3 Open Back Binder is a Leader in the Market.

We also carry a full line of Mowers, Rakes, Champion Seed Drills, Disc Harrows, Cultivaters, in short everything a farmer needs on the farm or in the house. The Standard Sewing Machine carries with it a five-year guarantee. Everybody knows the McLaughlan Buggies and Cutters, the Gray Buggies of Chatham, and the Armstrong Buggies of Guelph. We have them all, give us a call. Don't forget we have the National Cream Separator and Famous Threshers made by White & Son.
