MR. JOHN A. BLACK, left Tuesday morning for Farwell, Michigan, to attend the funeral of his brother, Mr. D. S. Black, who died Monday morning and was buried Wednesday. A telegram announcing the demise was the only intelligence received here and up to time of going to press we have no definite knowledge of the cause of death.

AT the recent South Grey Agricultural Society Exhibition a special prize of three dollars was offered by Mr. Barlow Cumberland for the best chicken fattening coops to be made by boys between the ages of fourteen and seventeen years. Whether it is that hen lore is at a low state of advancement, or that embryo mechanics are not grown in this section we are unable to decide. At all events, though we can't assign the reason, there wasn't a single competitor. Now it seems to us the construction of such an article would be of sufficient value to justify a boy in making the effort.

ROBERT REID and Miss Elizabeth H. Burell were married Saturday evening and Messrs Paterson, McKenzie, McFarlan and Whaley, of the Works succeeded in entertaining the groom by sending him a telegram purporting to come from Canada and it is said the boys were rewarded for their "thoughtfulness" by a box of cigars. The presents were: The firm, a piano; Paterson and McFarlan, cooking range; S. Whaley, handsome couch; W. Cameron, combination writing desk and book case; R. McFarlan, bedroom suite; J. McKenzie, oak dining table; and numerous other gifts from employees of the Flint Wagon Works.

THE Harvest Home Festival Service in connection with the Anglican Mission at Ceylon, held on Tuesday evening, October 14th inst., was of a beautiful and impressive nature. The Service was conducted by the incumbent, Rev. C. L. Mills, and the sermon was preached by Rev. J. R. Newell, of Markdale, from Psalm LXV, 11 v. The preacher, according to his accustomed style and power, dwelt largely upon the dependence of man and his gratitude to God, and of our thankfulness for peace, liberty and abundant harvest. The offertory was good and the singing excellent. The Hall (where the service was held) was beautifully decorated for the occasion with grain, fruit and flowers artistically arranged, emblematic of the Harvest Home Thanksgiving Service and reflects great credit on the ladies and friends of the Mission.

"Uncle Tom" at the Grand.

This famous play, which dates back so far that some people have a vague idea that it caused the war of the rebellion, has been presented with religious regularity each dramatic season, sometimes with double little Evas and double Uncle Toms even, but never has it been given with such an elaborate stage dressing and realistic effects as this. In fact, several of the features are in themselves sufficiently novel to make it worth while going to see "Uncle Tom's Cabin" for the forty-seventh time. The company is strong. But the leading feature of the production is the gorgeous transformation scene painted by Sosman & Landis, which represents "little Eva in the golden realms." The tableau is a beautiful and striking one, representing the flight of the angels of death and the opening of the golden gates. There are also several other noteworthy stage settings, representing a cotton picking scene, Eliza crossing the ice, etc. Some very pleasing singing of plantation melodies is given by a colored quartette, and there is some wing dancing that is a great novelty. The audience last night was a large one.—The Times, April 14. E. F. Davis Uncle Tom's Cabin Co. will appear at Durham Town Hall, one night only, Thursday, Oct. 23rd. Prices 25 and 35 cents.
