The final regular session of the present county council opened in the court room at seven o'clock. Warden Charles McKinnon occupied the All the members present. Messrs. R. Agnew, James Allan, George A. Brown, R J. Doyle, jr. Charles Gordon, Thomas Harness, John McArthur, Neil McColeman, John McDonald, Duncan McLean, Joseph Pringle, D. K. Preston, Andrew Shenk, Anthony Shute and George Watson. After the reading of the minutes the Warden briefly addressed the council in which he referred to the pleasure he felt in seeing all the members of council in their places apparently in good health and spirits He also expressed his satisfaction at the very prosperous season which the farmers have had in the abundant harvest which they have reaped, also from the fact that prices of farm produce were in general so good. In fact, he said, the times all over the province were very good, and what was true of the province was fully true of the County of Grey as a whole -it is prospering. We have in this county some of the largest manufacturing industries on this continent; and further, he was pleased to say, that on the first of the present month this county had to its credit in the banks no less a sum than $20,486 and our county rate much lower than it has been for years.
