FLESHERTON

On Wednesday evening of last week a parlor social under the auspices of the Presbyterian C. E. Society was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alf Thistlewaite 1 1/4 miles east of the village. Notwithstanding the bad condition of the roads nine dollars were realized and the company had a very enjoyable evening together.

We overlooked in our notes last week a birthday party given by Mr. George McTavish, who on the evening of last Saturday week had about a score of his young friends assist him celebrate the day of his advent to this mundane sphere.

Mr. James Sullivan, tinsmith, who has for some time been out of business here has again opened out in his old stand on Sydenham street.

The following marriage notice which will be of interest to a goodly number of our readers appeared in the Toronto Globe on Friday last. Vanzant—Rice—At the Elm street Methodist parsonage, on the 17th November, by the Rev. Joseph Odery, Mervyn E. Vanzant, chemist, to Edith Martha, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Rice, Toronto. Mervyn only a few years ago was one of the youthful blowers in the Flesherston Band, but he has something more now than a brass horn to blow about and we congratulate him.

On Wednesday afternoon of last week Rev. L. W. Thom had the pleasant duty of uniting in marriage at the Manse Mr. Joseph C. Hall and Miss Elizabeth Armstrong, of Hopeville. Miss Jennie Armstrong attended the bride and Mr. C. H. Munshaw, of this place, acted as best man.

Word has been received here today (Monday) of a case of suicide at Proton Station last night. James Douglas, of that place, is reported to have cut his own throat and then lay down in a small creek near by where he was afterwards found dead. Coroner Bibby, of this place, has gone to investigate. Deceased leaves a widow and family of small children.

Mr. Wm. H. Sproule, Real Estate Dealer and Broker, Winnipeg, accompanied by his brother Milton F. of London, England, who had been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sproule, Winnipeg, paid their uncle, R. J. Sproule, Postmaster here, and friends at Eugenia, Maxwell and Mc-

Intyne a short visit last week. The former returned home by Chicago and St. Paul and the latter sailed from New York on one of the Cunard steamers.

Messrs. Geo. Mitchell and N. Wilson have been treating their friends to venison and your Cor. has been favored with a nice cut from each. Thanks, gentlemen, it is very tasty.

Prof. Carke Braden, of Illinois, is to give a temperance lecture here on Monday evening next.

Rev. Wray R. Smith, of Durham, is announced to occupy the Methodist pulpit here on Sabbath next.

Mr. J. Firth, of Brandon, spent Sunday last with his mother, Mrs. H. Firth, at the Manse.

Mr. M. K. Richardson is spending part of this week in Toronto.

Miss Stella Loucks has returned from a lengthy visit with relatives at Ottawa.

Miss Tena Henderson of Wareham, is visiting her sister Mrs. (Dr.) Murray.

Mr. Attwood, of Walkerton, has taken the position of bookkeeper in the Toronto Globe on Friday last. Vanzant—Rice—At the Elm street Methodist parsonage, on the 17th November, by the Rev. Joseph Odery, Mervyn E. Vanzant, chemist, to Edith Martha, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Rice, Toronto. BUNESSAN.

We are pleased to hear that Archie McComb has secured a good situation since going to Toronto.

Miss Susy Kennedy has been home for some time. We neglected to mention the fact at the proper time.

Miss Annie McArthur is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McArthur. She has been seriously ill but is getting better rapidly.

Johnny Walker has had to quit farming for a few weeks. He has been ill, and shows but little sign of improvement yet.

What's the matter with the Durham boys, Mr. Editor? Seems to us they have been rather “catching fits” this fall. It is just possible they are the result of the example and teaching they get. What are the parents and preachers and teachers really doing to inspire and help them to higher and nobler things?

Nov. 19th there died at the residence of Mrs. Ginn, Mr. Thomas Ginn, a ninety-year-old gentleman who has made his home here for a year and a half. The deceased was a native of Tyrone, Ireland. He emigrated to Canada when a young man and settled some distance north of Toronto. After farming many years he retired and lived at various times in Brampton, Bolton and Priceville. He leaves one daughter, Mrs. Gowland, who lives near Bolton, and who was here and made all arrangements for the funeral. As the old gentleman was but little known, the funeral was but poorly attended. Much sympathy is felt for Mrs. Ginn, who has had all the care of the deceased, and so far as we know, has got nothing for it.

There is to be a meeting in the interest of the temperance cause in the Centre Baptist Church this Tuesday evening. The Revs. Newton and Farquharson are to be the speakers.

The Penalty of a Fast Life.

Is paid for by an irritable condition of body and mind, by exhausted energy, poor digestion, unstrung nerves and broken sleep. If you must and will live the killing pace, better keep in mind the sustaining powers of Ferrozone, a wonderful tonic and reconstructer. Ferrozone is a blood maker, a nerve strengthener, a heart and brain invigorator. It creates appetite, insures perfect digestion and undisturbed sleep, restores the vitality and strength lost by excessive living very quickly. Ferrozone will do you inestimable good, try it. Price 50c. per box or six boxes for $2.50, at Druggists, or Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

TRAVERSTON

The young people had a jolly night's fun at the home of Mr. John Ryan at the wind up of threshing last week.

The annual meeting of Traverston beef eaters was held in Hastie's Hall on Tuesday evening of last week and everything arranged for next season. A hearty vote of thanks, endorsed by many complimentary remarks was given to Mr. Tom Turnbull for the most satisfactory year in which he has performed his duties.

Mrs. Boakes, of Vaughan, is up on a visit to the old home of Mr. John Fallaise, whose sale takes place this week.

The death call came very suddenly to one of our earliest and most widely known pioneers on Saturday morning at 3.00 o'clock. Mr. Abraham Cook answered the call. He had been in poor health for a few days, but was able to get about, having been to Markdale on Monday of the same week. His daughter-in-law heard him up, and thinking he might be needing some attention ran down stairs. Upon asking if he wanted anything, he replied “I'm dying!” threw himself on the bed and in a minute peacefully passed over. The deceased was born in the County of Leitrim, Ireland, in September 1819—in the same year as good Queen Victoria. He came out to this country in 1845 to the Ottawa district, where two years later on April 5th, was wedded to Mary J. Copland, daughter of his employer, who survives him, though in feeble health. Thus, last spring, they passed the 55th anniversary of their wedding day. They moved to lot 7, on the 6th, 47 years ago, when few were the settlers in the township and his farm was woods to the blazed road. Having means to begin with, and being shrewd in business, he has always been in most comfortable circumstances and a truer helper than his wife man couldn't have. The old home has always been noted for its hospitality and the deceased was a tender hearted, obliging neighbor. He was of strong will and firm in what he considered right. He never once failed the Conservative cause, was an active member of the Orange Order, having at one time been District Master. For many years he has been one of Zion's trustees and at the building of the new church was appointed inspector of the work. He ever took an active part in school and municipal matters. To him and his partner were born seven children: Maggie, wife of Wm. Glencross, who died some years ago; Thomas, one of the most successful farmers in the township; Robert, the shrewd shipper of live stock from Ceylon; Jake, at present in Manitoba; Martha who passed away some eleven years; Will, on the old homestead; and Mrs. Ed. Embury, wife of one of the most likeable of G. T. B. engineers, whose home is in Toronto. They brought with them a beautiful wreath of flowers, inscribed with the word “Father” to deck the handsome casket. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon and was one of the largest we've ever attended, a number coming from all over the township. Rev. Wray R. Smith conducted a most impressive service. Among those from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cook, of Maple Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Embury of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. John Cook of Berkeley, Messrs. R. Cook and H. Tucker of Ceylon, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Love of Lauriston and many old friends from afar. Much sympathy is felt for his aged partner in these dark hours.

SPRING BANK.

Mrs. Dennie, of Norval, visited her brother, Mr. Jas. Maine lately.

Miss Kate Whitmore has gone to town to spend the winter months.

Bachelor Andy Bell is adding another lean to his house wigwag fashion.

Coughs

“My wife had a deep-seated cough for three years. I purchased two bottles of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, large size, and it cured her completely.”
J. H. Burge, Macon, Col.

Probably you know of cough medicines that relieve little coughs, all coughs, except deep ones! The medicine that has been curing the worst of deep coughs for sixty years is Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Three sizes: 25c., enough for an ordinary cold; 50c., just right for bronchitis, hoarseness, hard colds, etc.; $1., most economical for chronic cases and to keep on hand.
J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

other lean to his house wigwag fashion.

Roy Tiff, of Hanover, visited the Eckhardt family last week.

Mrs. Hugh Firth's little girl is recovering after passing through a trying illness.

Mr. John Moore returned home a week ago from Manitoba where he has been the past three or four months. As J. is deeply in love with that part of our fair Dominion, he has taken up land there and intends returning in the spring with a car load of farm and household effects. We presume there will be one special effect far more charming than all the rest.

Vote for prohibition it may be the means of bringing peace and joy to many a home that is now forlorn, dreary and sad.

Coun. Davis was down last week and let the job of putting in a culvert and gravelling McKechnies' sideroad. It was certainly not before it was time for had he been a little later he would have experienced some difficulty in finding where the road really was. There is yet a piece of road in this neighborhood which if not looked after is likely to cause trouble among our liberal councillors who year after year expend that portion of our punctually paid taxes for repairing roads where remodelling is less required.

CHURCH NOTES.

METHODIST.

The young men's service held in the Methodist church on Sunday evening was unique in character and of especial interest as a religious service. A chorus of thirty-five young men rendered very effectively some of the old and familiar Gospel songs. “Throw out the Life Line,” alternating bass, tenor and soprano effects in the chorus, was new and pleasing. The rendering of “Yield not to Temptation,” the verses sung by the congregation and the chorus by the male choir in full voice and repeated P. P., was a surprise and a delight. The octette, “O how lovely is Zion,” was well balanced in the four parts. The quartette, “Why stand ye idle all day,” by H. Benton soprano, McRae tenor, Yairs alto and Sanderson base, was sweetly impressive. The young men of the Church League took the whole of the service with the exception of a short Gospel address on “The parting of the ways” by the pastor. The congregation was delighted, and many have expressed themselves as desiring a repetition of this kind of a service some time in the future.

Anniversary Sermons will be preached in the Methodist church on Sunday morning and evening by the Rev. J. S. I. Wilson, of Flesherston. The congregation and their friends are expecting a musical treat. The three Joy sisters, tenor, contralto and soprano, are to sing at the services, morning and evening. This is the first visit of these talented vocalists to this town, and we bespeak for them and the minister a good audience. In the evening the Rev. J. S. I. Wilson will speak on the citizen's duty in the present Temperance Campaign. Rev. Wilson is one of the leading Temperance advocates in this part of the Province.

Women and Jewels.

Jewels, candy, flowers, man—that is the order of a woman's preferences. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous efforts to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insidious consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Boschee's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure-all but it is certain a cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get this reliable remedy at Darlings Drug Store.
