DURHAM CHRONICLE

W. IRWIN, Editor and Proprietor.

Durham, Dec. 18, 1902.

TRAVERSTON

There was a merry house-warming at Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kerney's last Friday night. About sixty of the young people of the vicinity gathered in answer to the kindly invitations given and with music, song, play and dance, they made the handsome new house resound. A feast of choicest edibles at midnight was one of the pleasing events of the evening. The new home is of solid brick and commodious with cellar full size, into which has been placed a fine McLary furnace. Emke Bros. did the Mason work and Mr. Brodie, of the Lake, was Master carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. K. have a family of bright boys and girls. May they all be long spared to enjoy their comfortable home.

A very pretty wedding and one that caused quite a stir in the neighborhood took place at the cosy, old, stone home of Mr. Wm. Greenwood on Wednesday of last week, Dec. the 10th. Handsome "Tom" Glencross, only son of the late Wm. Glencross, was the happy groom. He is owner of a splendid farm, in well equipped condition, and is one of our most popular and genial young men. Miss Carrie, the fair, sweet bride, is Mr. and Mrs. Greenwood's youngest daughter, and has been the gem of their home. For some time she has been organist in Zion, and on more than one occasion has won warm applause by her solo singing. She is, also, a gifted artist. The ceremony took place under an evergreen arch, decked with flowers, at high noon, the Rev. Wray Smith officiating. As the strains of the Wedding March swelled through the rooms, the groom and his supporter, Mr. John Greenwood, Jr., took their places and in a few moments were joined by the winsome bride and her quently bridesmaid, Miss Mary Glencross. The bride was gowned in rich, brown velvet, with white silk vest and white silk applique trimmings. She carried a lovely bouquet of white carnations and white mums. The bridesmaid was attired in a brown cloth dress, also trimmed with white silk. A few minutes and the loving hearts were united. Warm congratulations followed, after which feasting, right worthy of the old home, was in order. The bridal cake, of four stories, was a beauty from its enticing foundation to the white dove that embellished purity and peace at the top. A merry drive to Cayton Station to catch the 5 o'clock train, showers of rice and good wishes, and the glad pair went off to the Queen City to spend a happy week among friends. Many useful and handsome gifts the bride received. The guests from a distance were—Mr. Thos. Orchard and Miss Tena, of Holstein; Mr. and Mrs. Storrey, of Durham; Mr. and Mrs. R. Corlett, of Dorloch; Mr. and Mrs. John Love, of Lauriston; Mr. and Mrs. John Cook, of Berkeley; and others nearby to the number of fifty. This young couple has ever been very near and dear to us and we wish them a life of earth's sweetest joys.

ORCHARD

The anniversary services were well attended. All were delighted with Rev. Wray Smith, who, we are sorry to say, was not in his usual health and feeling somewhat indisposed, could not be present the following evening. The Holstein choir, as usual, rendered excellent music. The Tea Meeting on Monday evening was a success. An excellent programme was given. Rev. Miller, of Varney, delivered a grist of wholesome truths which proved him to be an A 1 Miller. As usual Rev. Little, of Holstein, delighted the audience. He is not by any means little in heart, thought or stature. The choir and did it admirably. Misses Minnie and Victoria Cornish each gave a recitation in good style. Rev. Truax ably filled the chair and we must say he is true to his name. He is in truth a "True ax." The inner man being amply provided for, there remained enough for a Children's Social the following evening which was well attended.

Mrs. John McEwen has returned from a four months' visit with her daughter, Mrs. Miller, of Lumsden, Assa. Her son John accompanied her home, and we understand, intends to spend the winter here. John has been a resident of the West seven years and speaks highly of it.

Mr. Charles Blyth went to Guelph last week to attend his aunt's funeral Mrs. Robt. Blyth.

Miss Mary Pinder is visiting with friends at Pine River.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Schenk, of Egremont, visited with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Mark over Sunday.

Mrs. Gammon, of Normanby, visited her son and his family, Mr. A. Bogie.

The Methodist S. S. purposes giving an entertainment Monday, Dec. 22nd. An excellent programme is being prepared by the children. Admission 10 cents.

HOLSTEIN.

Well, Mr. Editor, we have been silent for quite a long time. We have often regretted that we have not been more punctual in our efforts to furnish items for your valuable paper. It is our sincere desire and intention to furnish your numerous readers with local happenings from time to time.

Our village reached a somewhat progressive stage this year which we hope will continue for an indefinite period. Our citizens with one consent agree that this year has been the most progressive in building operations in the history of the village. Our progressive citizen, Mr. W. T. Petrie, has been very active in this respect. He has erected a new store just opposite the mill. The building is 60x20 feet built of solid brick. The building is being fitted up in the most modern style and when completed will compare favorably, if not being in advance, of many town or city stores. He has also erected a very commodious residence on the east side of the railroad track. Mr. C. McKinnon has also built a very neat and commodious brick house just north of the old temperance hall. J. M. Dixon finding it impossible to secure a residence here, has also treated himself in like manner. Mr. R. E. Mickleboro has just completed one of the most palatial residences in this vicinity.

Miss Mabel McRobb was the guest of Miss Nellie Philips last week.

John McKenzie, of Toronto Trinity School of Medicine, spent last week at his old home here on account of his father's illness.

J. R. Smith has leased the old Tribe farm for a term of years.

Rev. J. Truax is holding a series of evangelical services at Yeovil at present.

Mr. W. Hamilton, who left here twenty years ago and settled near Regina, returned last Friday to visit old acquaintances and friends.

Our Creamery Co had a very successful season lately closed. The total make was 175154 lbs. The directors of the Company are to be congratulated on again securing the services of Mr. P. F. Thair to manufacture the butter for the season of 1903.

Messrs. Brown, Spence, Weideman and Horsburgh have secured the buttermilk of the season's make at the rate of $3.25 per ton of butter manufactured.

We welcome to our burg Mrs. J. Philp, who is nicely settled in the residence lately vacated by Mrs. W. T. Brown.

Our aged and respected citizen Mr. John May has passed to join the great majority. He had been in failing health for some time but his illness was not of a serious character until a few days before his death. He leaves to mourn his loss his aged partner, one daughter and three sons. His remains were interred in Reid's cemetery on Monday of last week.

The children of the Methodist S. School are busy making preparation for their annual Xmas entertainment which is to be held on the evening of the 25th inst.

You have only to take a peep into our two stores here to be convinced that they are up-to-the-minute in every respect and the proprietors are satisfied that prices are right too.

John Waddell has just returned from the Queen City and we can form no idea when goods will cease to arrive.

We spent an hour or so lately at the mill here and it was a surprise to see how Sandy had to move to meet the requirements of the numerous customers.
